HCC Policies

Student with Disabilities	Students with a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, psychiatric, visual, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the Disability Services
----------------------------------	---

	Office at their respective college at the beginning of each semester. The faculty is authorized to provide only the accommodations requested by the Disability Support Services Office.
Academic Honesty	Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College Systems officials against a student accused of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty may include a grade of “0” or “F” on the particular assignment, failure in the course, and/or recommendations for probation or dismissal from the College System. A recommendation for suspension or expulsion will be referred to the College Dean of Students for disciplinary disposition.
Attendance Policies	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Students are expected to attend all classes (see college catalog for attendance policy).</li> <li>2. Students are responsible for all work missed during their absence.</li> </ol>
HCC Course Withdrawal Policy	The State of Texas has begun to impose penalties on students who drop courses excessively. For example, if you repeat the same course more than twice, you have to pay extra tuition. Beginning in Fall 2007, the Texas Legislature passed a law limiting first time entering freshmen to no more than SIX (6) total courses withdrawals throughout their educational career in obtaining a certificate and/or degree. To help students avoid having to drop/withdrawal from any class, HCC had instituted an Early Alert process by which your professor may “alert” you and distance education (DE) counselors that you might fail a class because of excessive absences and/or poor academic performances. It is your responsibility to visit with your DE professor or a DE counselor to learn about what, if any, HCC interventions might be available to assist you - online tutoring, child care, financial aid, job placement, etc. - to stay in class and improve your academic performance. If you plan on withdrawing from your DE class, you MUST contact you DE counselor or your DE professor prior to withdrawing (dropping) the class the class for approval and this must be done PRIOR to the withdrawal deadline to receive a “W” on your transcript.  Final withdrawal deadlines vary each semester and/or depending on class length, please visit the online registration calendars, HCC schedule of classes and catalog, any HCC Registration Office, or any HCC counselor to determine class withdrawal deadlines.  Remember to allow a 24-hour response time when communicating via email and/or telephone with a DE professor and/or counselor. Do not submit a request to discuss withdrawal options less than a day before the deadline. If you do not withdrawal before the deadline, you will receive the grade that you are making in the class as your final grade. DE counselors may be reached by calling 713.718.5275, option #4 or decounseling@hccs.edu
EGLS<sub>3</sub> -- Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System	At Houston Community College, professors believe that thoughtful student feedback is necessary to improve teaching and learning. During a designated time, you will be asked to answer a short online survey of research-based questions related to instruction. The anonymous results of the survey will be made available to your professors and division chairs for continual improvement of instruction. Look for the survey as part of the Houston Community College Student System online near the end of the term.
Misconduct	HCC is committed to provide a learning and working environment that is free from discrimination on the basis of sex which includes all forms of sexual misconduct. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 requires that when a complaint is filed, a prompt and thorough investigation is initiated. Complaints may be filed with the HCC Title IX Coordinator available at 713 718-8271 or email at oe@hccs.edu .
