COURSE DESCRIPTION: A course devoted to improving the student’s writing and critical reading. Writing essays for a variety of purposes from personal to academic, including an introduction to argumentation, critical analysis, and the use of sources.

PREREQUISITES: A satisfactory assessment score, completion of ENGL. 0310 or (for non-native speakers) ENGL. 0349.

CORE CURRICULUM COMPETENCIES: English 1301 is part of the core curriculum and, as well, emphasizes all the core competencies: reading, writing, speaking, listening, critical thinking, and computer literacy. A specific listing of course goals and competencies is in the ENGLISH 1301 STUDY GUIDE.

COURSE GOALS: In English 1301 we seek to provide writing instruction and practice that will help students master writing the short essay while developing critical reading skills. We believe that in mastering this particular kind of writing, students will also gain skills that will permit them to be successful at writing tasks in other college courses, their careers, and in their personal lives.

MINIMUM WRITING REQUIREMENT: Minimum of 5000 words during the semester.

INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS: THE NEW MCGRAW–HILL HANDBOOK*

THE NORTON READER, 13TH EDITION

ENGLISH 1301 STUDY GUIDE *

2 Blue Books for taking the Midterm and Final Exam
*Please note the when you register with McGraw Hill Direct Connect you will have access to e-texts of both the Handbook and the Study Guide. Print copies of both, if desired, may be ordered from McGraw Hill for $20 once you have registered.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of writing as process.
2. Apply basic principles of critical thinking in analyzing reading selections, developing expository essays, and writing argumentative essays.
3. Analyze elements such as purpose, audience, tone, style, strategy in essays and/or literature by professional writers.
4. Write essays in appropriate academic writing style using varied rhetorical strategies.
5. Synthesize concepts from and use references to assigned readings in their own academic writing.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

6. Demonstrate writing as a connected and interactive process that includes planning, shaping, drafting, revising, editing, and proofreading;
7. Demonstrate critical abilities when discussing texts in class and in writing assignments by delving into the meanings and implications behind the issues, theses, or themes;
8. Analyze texts by professional writers and write critical essays breaking down rhetorical elements into parts, examining the parts, and showing their effects;
9. Apply various methods of development and organization, and/or rhetorical appeals in written assignments;
10. Demonstrate effective use and documentation of sources in support of student ideas in informative and/or persuasive essays.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS: Students will experience a variety of instructional methods, including frequent class discussions and peer reviews. I will offer specific guidance as to how to write analyses and arguments. Students will be expected to reflect deeply upon an issue or an analysis. Also, examples of good student writing will be available for review by members of the class.
HCC GRADING SCALE:

A = 100-90
B = 89-80
C = 79-70
D = 69-60
F = 59 and below

HCC POLICY STATEMENTS:

DISCIPLINE: As your instructor and as a student in this class, our shared responsibility is to develop and maintain a positive learning environment for everyone. I take this responsibility seriously and will inform members of the class if their behavior makes it difficult for me to carry out this task. As fellow learners students are asked to respect the learning needs of their classmates and to assist me in achieving this critical goal. (See STUDENT HANDBOOK)

ACADEMIC HONESTY: A student who is academically dishonest is, by definition, not showing that the coursework has been learned, and that student is claiming an advantage not available to other students. The instructor is responsible for measuring each student’s individual achievements and also for ensuring that all students compete on a level playing field. Thus, in our system, the instructor has teaching, grading, and enforcing roles. Students are expected to be familiar with HCC’s policy on Academic Honesty found in the catalogue. What this means is that if a student is charged with an offense, pleading ignorance of the rules will not help.

PLAGIARISM AND COLLUSION: THE STUDENT HANDBOOK lists cheating, plagiarism, and collusion as scholastic dishonesty. It defines PLAGIARISM as “the appropriation of another’s work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one’s own written work for credit.” It defines COLLUSION as “the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing work for credit.” Possible punishments are “a grade of 0 or F on the particular assignment, failure in the course, and/or recommendation for probation or dismissal from the college.” (See STUDENT HANDBOOK)

ELECTRONIC DEVICES: Official HCCS policy concerning camera phones, cameras, audio/tape recorders, video recorders and any other electronic device that is capable of recording the human voice or image declares that the “[u]se of recording devices, including camera phones and tape recorders, is prohibited in classrooms, laboratories, faculty offices, and other locations where instruction, tutoring, or testing occurs. Students with disabilities who need to use a recording device as a reasonable accommodation should contact the Office for Students with Disabilities for information regarding [such] accommodations.” As a student active in our learning community, it is your responsibility to be respectful of our learning atmosphere. To show respect to your fellow students and instructor, you will turn off your phone and other electronic devices and will not use these devices in the classroom unless you receive explicit permission. If such a device sounds or is used during class, it will be considered a disruption of the educational process (such as other forms of inappropriate behavior) and will be treated as such. If a student expects an emergency call, he or she must speak to the instructor to receive an exception to this policy.

SPECIAL NEEDS: Any student with a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, psychiatric, vision, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the Disability Support Services Officer at the respective college at the beginning of each semester. Faculty are authorized to provide only the accommodations requested by the Disability Support Services Office. For questions please contact Donna Price at 713-718-5165 or the Disability Counselor at your college. To visit the ADA Web site, please check www.hccs.edu, then click Future students, scroll down the page, and click on the words Disability Information.

ATTENDANCE: College policy, which will apply in this class, states that a student may be dropped from a course for absences in excess of 12.5% of the hours of instruction, which means in excess of six hours of instruction. In addition, please note that in this course three tardies equal one absence, and leaving a class early is the same as a tardy.

WITHDRAWAL FROM CLASS: Any student who stops attending the class needs to withdraw officially prior to the withdrawal deadline. (See the dates in the current SCHEDULE OF CLASSES.) Any student who does not follow these procedures will receive an “F” in the course.

EGLS3 – Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System: At Houston Community College, professors believe that thoughtful student feedback is necessary to improve teaching and learning. During a designated time, you will be asked to answer a short online survey of research-based questions related to instruction. The anonymous results of the survey will be made available to your professors and division chairs for continual improvement of instruction. Look for the survey as part of the Houston Community College Student System online near the end of the term.

LAST DAY FOR ADMINISTRATIVE/STUDENT WITHDRAWALS: Monday, November 11, 4:30pm.

STUDENT ASSESSMENTS:

Narration and Description essay 10%

Definition Essay 10%

Cause/Effect Essay 10%

Persuasion/Argumentation Essay 15%

McGraw Hill Connect Composition Personalized Learning Plan 15%

*Mid-Term Essay (written in class)- Critical Analysis 10%

*Final Essay (written in class)-Critical Analysis 20%

Quizzes and Class Participation 10%
An average of “C” must be earned on the two In-Class essays (Mid-Term and Final) to receive a grade of “C” or better in the course. If an average grade of “F” (0-59%) is earned on these two assignments, the student will receive an “F” in the course, REGARDLESS OF OTHER GRADES.

INSTRUCTOR REQUIREMENTS:

In-class essays must be written in blue books, which can be purchased in the Spring Branch Campus Store and the Katy Campus Store.

Out-of-class essays must follow basic MLA rules and be typed, double spaced, and printed on 8 ½ x 11” white paper with 1” margins and use a 12 pt. plain font. The required materials should be secured with a paper clip. Points will be deducted from papers that do not meet requirements.

INSTRUCTOR GRADING CRITERIA:

Out of class papers will be judged on content, structure, and style. Students will be expected to use correct grammar, sentence structure, and diction.

On in class papers more attention will be paid to content and general organization, but a student’s use of correct English will certainly be considered in determining a grade.

MAKE-UP POLICY: Quizzes are unannounced and cannot be made up.

LATE PAPERS: ONE GRADE OFF PER CALENDAR DAY FOR LATE PAPERS.

COURSE CONTENT: Students will study the rhetorical modes, and as stated above, will write a series of papers employing the modes. Papers written outside of class should be typed and should be approximately 1000 words in length, while in-class essays should be about 750 words long. The number of words contained in a paper should be indicated on the title page. Students will examine essays in THE NORTON READER that employ the rhetorical modes being studied.

STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS:

NARRATION AND DESCRIPTION ESSAY: A 1000+ word out-of-class reflective essay that may be totally fictional, completely drawn from personal experience, or a combination of the two. It will ideally include the use of some figurative language and imagery.

DEFINITION ESSAY: A 1000+ word out-of-class essay defining something as specific as a disease, such as lung cancer, or a concept such as courage or leadership.

MIDTERM ESSAY EXAM: A 750+ word in-class essay that critically analyzes an essay handed out to the student the day of the exam.

CAUSE/EFFECT ESSAY: A 1000+ word out-of-class essay examining both the causes and effects of an issue such as segregation or jealousy dealt with by a writer in THE NORTON READER.
PERSUASION/ARGUMENTATION ESSAY: A 1000+ word out-of-class essay that focuses on a particular issue. This essay, which will require some research and the use of MLA documentation, also emphasizes the effective use of the three appeals of logic, emotion, and credibility.

MCGRAW HILL CONNECT COMPOSITION 2.0: An online grammar resource and personalized study plan. Grade is based on completion of the diagnostic test, personal learning plan, and post diagnostic test in a timely manner as outlined in the syllabus. In addition, students should score greater than 50% correct and show improvement over the semester. At any time, should you have technical issues, contact the McGraw Hill Digital Products Support Center at www.mhhe.com/support or 1-800-331-5094.

FINAL ESSAY: A 750+ word in-class critical analysis chosen from topics presented to the class at the time of the exam.

NOTICE: Students who repeat a course three or more times may soon face significant tuition/fee increases at HCC and other Texas public colleges and universities. Students should ask their instructor/counselor about opportunities for tutoring/other assistance prior to considering course withdrawal, or if they are not receiving passing grades.
