TOTAL: 500 points
It is the policy of the Dean of Workforce that an Incomplete may be given only for extenuating circumstances: (i.e., family illness, accident, or an unforeseen event occurring at final exam time).

Class Participation: Class preparation and participation is a subjective item that will be evaluated in context of each of your overall accomplishments in the course. The more you participate in-class, the better your grade will be.

Quizzes: You will have at least five (5) unannounced quizzes on the lecture and reading material throughout the semester. Each quiz will be administered will be worth 20 points.

Assignments: There will be eight written assignments due throughout the semester. Each assignment is related to the completion of your business plan and, as a total, is worth 50 points. I will present a Business Plan format for each student to follow is attached to this syllabus. NO OTHER FORMAT WILL BE ACCEPTED. Detailed information on each assignment will be provided to you within the lectures.

Online Discussions: This is a Hybrid or “web-enhanced” course, which means that some of the course material may be taught, researched, and/or discussed online. We will be using either Eagle On-Line, search browsers, or e-mails to affect online discussions and/or research. The discussion topics throughout the semester will be centered around the various segments of your business plan. 50 points will be awarded for quality on-line discussions.

For every other class I will ask you to track two stock listings of your choice and determine to what degree you would be making or losing money if you owned the stocks. As part of the class discussion, I will relate our business management information to the success or failure of the stock. We will also discuss the importance of entrepreneur leadership and responsibilities as it relates to a small business. Students will be called upon to present their ideas to specific areas of their Business Plan. The quality and depth of your discussions are the main factors in determining your grade for this section.

Business Plan (Final): The final assignment is your unique, fully completed business plan. This counts as your final exam grade, and includes eight sections, completed financial projections, table of contents and front cover. In a binder, TWO copies must be submitted prior to one week before the last class of the semester. Detailed information on this final assignment will be provided to you.
Grading Scale
90 – 100: A
80 – 89: B
70 – 79: C
60 – 69: D
Below 60: F

Quality of Writing
The Business Plan is an official document of your business, which could occasionally be shown to prospective investors, buyers, suppliers, government officials, and etc. For this reason, it needs to be written in very clear and correct English. Thus, you are required to take your assignments and final business plan to the Writing Center (Room 703 - (713) 718-5889) for grammar corrections before you submit them to me. Your grades will also depend on the quality of your writing.

Course Content
Student Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

Describe important issues about small business, identify essential management skills required of a successful entrepreneur; understand a P&L Statement and Balance Sheet, and prepare a business plan.

Instructor Requirements
As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

✔ Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
✔ Facilitate an effective learning environment through class activities, discussions, and lectures
✔ Description of any special projects or assignments
✔ Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness and make up
✔ Provide the course outline and class calendar which will include a description of any special projects or assignments
✔ Arrange to meet with individual students before and after class as required
To be successful in this class, it is the student’s responsibility to:

✓ Attend class and participate in class discussions and activities
✓ Read and comprehend the textbook
✓ Complete the required assignments and/or exams
✓ Ask for help when there is a question or problem
✓ Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts and all assignments

Instructional Methods
As an instructor, I want my students to be successful. I feel that it is my responsibility to provide you with knowledge concerning the field of business administration, modeling effective and efficient management strategies, and organizing and monitoring the field experience that allows you to connect the information that you learn in this course to the real world of business administration.

As a student wanting to learn about the field of business administration, it is your responsibility to read the textbook, submit assignments on the due dates, study for the exams, participate in classroom activities, attend class, and enjoy yourself while experiencing the real world of business administration.

You will spend the majority of class time involved in collaborative activities. You will be involved in discussions with your classmates and your instructor. As you will want to contribute to these discussions, you will need to come to class prepared to discuss, analyze and evaluate information from your text and other assigned readings.

Other Student Information
Go to the following URL: www.prenhall.com/scarborough/ for student supplements.

You have the opportunity to enhance your personal and intellectual growth by participating in a variety of activities. Those activities can be located in the Student Handbook or through the HCCS Web resources at: www.hccs.edu/handbookHome2.html.

Statement of Foundation Skills and Workplace Competencies (Scan Skills)
A study was conducted for the Department of Labor by the American Society for Training and Development which identified the seven skills U. S. employers want most in entry level employees. These skills are motivation to learn, basic skills, communication, teamwork, critical thinking, career development and leadership.

HCCS is committed to preparing every student with the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in today’s dynamic work environment. Towards this end, the following skills will be included in this course. Testing and assessing these skills will vary according to individual instructors. The following are examples of how these skills may be incorporated in this course.
Demonstrating Thinking Skills - Creative thinking, Problem solving, Thinking logically, and seeing with the mind’s eye by completing team and individual critical thinking and brainstorming exercises. The student is encouraged to “think out side the box”, use independent thought, respect other’s ideas, identify discrepancies between actual and what could/should be in different situations, and design strategies for reducing or eliminating the discrepancies. These exercises are part of the participation evaluation, which account for 5% of the semester grade.

Students with Disabilities

ADA Statement

The Houston Community College System does not discriminate on the basis of disability in the recruitment and admission of students or the operation of any of its programs and activities. The designated office for compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 is the HCCS Access and Equity Office.

The College will make its campuses and programs accessible to individuals with disabilities in accordance the law. Where it is impractical to modify a specific area to make it accessible, the College will provide an accessible alternative.

For instructional accommodations the student should contact the HCCS disabilities services staff through the Counseling Office at least 60 days prior to the first day of class. Academic accommodations will be provided only after students have properly registered for services through designated disability services staff. Any student who anticipates difficulty in gaining access to a classroom should contact the center administrator at or before the time of registration.

Academic Dishonesty

Scholastic Dishonesty (HCCS Student Handbook)

Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College System officials against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty.

"Scholastic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion.

"Cheating" on test includes:
• Copying from another student's test paper
• Using materials during a test that are not authorized by the person giving the test;
• Collaborating with another student during a test without authority;
• Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or in part the contents of an un administered test;
• Bribing another person to obtain a test that is to be administered.

"Plagiarism" means the appropriation of another's work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one's own written work offered for credit.

"Collusion" means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.

Attendance and Withdrawal Policies
Class attendance is extremely important as my lectures contain additional real life experiences not found in the book. You are encouraged to get to know your fellow students in order to have a secondary source for lecture notes and handouts if you cannot attend a class session. Students are expected to assume the responsibility for learning. Your instructor will assist you, but the actual responsibility rests with you. Students are also expected to devote their energy to attaining the skills and knowledge required for their particular career goals. Disruptive activity that hinders other students' learning or deters an instructor from effective teaching will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

In accordance with HCCS rules, the instructor has the authority to drop a student from any class after the student has been absent for periods equivalent to two weeks of class (6 classes). However, the student has the ultimate responsibility to withdraw from the course. Attending class lectures is vital to understanding, integrating, and applying the concepts discussed in class.

Attendance will be kept according to HCCS rules. If there are extreme circumstances that require absence from class, it is the student's responsibility to notify the instructor before the class period. Students absent from class are still responsible for all material assigned and/or covered during the missed session. Students arriving late or leaving early should notify the instructor ahead of time, and sit in a seating location that is least likely to disrupt the class.

Makeup quiz tests:
Of the five quizzes administered, in the event of poor performance below an 80%, the student may take the same quiz a second time to prove his/her grade. The conditions for taking the SAME test a second time are as follows:

1. The student has NOT been tardy for class more than once.
2. The student has NOT been absent from class without a doctor’s note more than once.
3. The student shall take the quiz before or after class.
4. 20% will be deducted from each quiz grade, allowing the student to earn the highest grade of 80%.

Grade Appeal, Refunds, Discipline Issues and Sexual Harassment Policy
Refer to the Student Handbook, Catalog and Schedule.

New Policy, “3-Peat”
Students who repeat a course for a third or more times may soon face significant tuition/fee increases at HCC and other Texas public colleges and universities. Please ask your instructor / counselor about opportunities for tutoring / other assistance prior to considering course withdrawal or if you are not receiving passing grades.
