HCC-Course Description
A course designed to prepare students for English 1301. Students will ordinarily proceed to English 0310 after taking English 0300. Some students may, however, test directly into English 0310 (English 0300 is not a prerequisite for English 0310). English 0310 provides a basic review of the principles of grammar, usage, and mechanics and utilizes the writing process to teach students to write short essays (300-500 words).

Prerequisites
Students are responsible for registering for and taking the correct courses to meet department, institutional, and state requirements. A student who is taking developmental English, reading, or math to meet minimum standards as set by the state government will be blocked from registering for certain college-level courses based on a lack of prerequisites. Example: a student tries to register for History 1301; however, the student has not passed the reading and writing sections of the placement test. The student also has not completed GUST 0342 and ENGL 0310 (or ENGL 0349 for the non-native speakers). The student will be blocked from registering for HIST 1301 because prerequisites have not been met.

Program Learning Outcomes
By the time students have completed English 0310, they will be able to:
   1. Use a variety of sentence patterns in writing.
2. Comprehend and respond to assigned readings.
3. Employ the writing process (planning, drafting, editing, revising, and developing thesis and topic sentences) in assigned writings.
4. Write a variety of essays using appropriate rhetorical modes.

- This is an adult learning environment and you are expected to be able to conduct yourself in an adult manner. If you are unable to monitor your actions and you are repeatedly (more than three instances) disruptive to class instruction (talking to classmates during lectures, shouting out to others during lectures, repeatedly walking in and out of class, interrupting the instructor to ask questions, etc.), you will be withdrawn from the class.
- If you arrive to class late and a scheduled assignment is being or has been graded in class, your work will not be accepted for a grade.
- Do not work on materials for other classes during this class.
• Get handouts and returned work before class begins or after the class ends. DO NOT walk up to the instructor’s desk during the class.
• Turn off IPODs and cell phones prior to entering class. No calls, text messages, photographs, or any other electronic communication should be sent or received during class. If your phone rings, you make calls in class or you send text messages, I will note it in a special “Classroom Interruption” log. You will get a verbal warning. If it happens again, you will be dismissed from the class for the rest of the day. If it happens a third time, you will be dropped from the class.
• If you sleep in class, on the first occurrence you will receive a verbal warning. If it happens again, you will be dismissed from the class for the rest of the day. If it happens a third time, you will be dropped from the class.

HCC Policy Statement - ADA

Services to Students with Disabilities
Students who require reasonable accommodations for disabilities are encouraged to report to Dr. Becky Hauri at 713-718-7910 to make necessary arrangements. Faculty is only authorized to provide accommodations by the Disability Support Service Office

HCC Policy Statement: Academic Honesty
A student who is academically dishonest is, by definition, not showing that the coursework has been learned, and that student is claiming an advantage not available to other students. The instructor is responsible for measuring each student's individual achievements and also for ensuring that all students compete on a level playing field. Thus, in our system, the instructor has teaching, grading, and enforcement roles. You are expected to be familiar with the University’s Policy on Academic Honesty, found in the catalog. What that means is: If you are charged with an offense, pleading ignorance of the rules will not help you. Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College System officials against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty. “Scholastic dishonesty”: includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion.

Cheating on a test includes
- Copying from another students’ test paper;
- Using materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
- Collaborating with another student during a test without authorization;
- Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of a test that has not been administered;
- Bribing another person to obtain a test that is to be administered.

Plagiarism means the appropriation of another’s work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one’s own written work offered for credit.

Collusion means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit. Possible punishments for academic dishonesty may include a grade of 0 or F in the particular assignment, failure in the course, and/or recommendation for probation or dismissal from the College System. (See the Student Handbook)

HCC Policy Statements

Class Attendance - It is important that you come to class! Attending class regularly is the best way to succeed in this class. Research has shown that the single most important factor in student success is attendance. Simply put, going to class greatly increases your ability to succeed. You are expected to attend all lecture and labs regularly. You are responsible for materials covered during your absences. Class attendance is checked daily. Although it is your responsibility to drop a course for nonattendance, the instructor has the authority to drop you for excessive absences.

If you are not attending class, you are not learning the information. As the information that is discussed in class is important for your career, students may be dropped from a course after accumulating absences in excess of 12.5% hours of instruction. The eight hours of class time would include any total classes missed or for excessive tardiness or leaving class early.

You may decide NOT to come to class for whatever reason. As an adult making the decision not to attend, you do not have to notify the instructor prior to missing a class. However, if you exceed five absences you will be dropped from the class.

Poor attendance records tend to correlate with poor grades. If you miss any class, including the first week, you are responsible for all material missed. It is a good idea to find a friend or a buddy in class who would be willing to share class notes or discussion or be able to hand in paper if you unavoidably miss a class. Class attendance equals class success.

HCC Course Withdrawal Policy

If you feel that you cannot complete this course, you will need to withdraw from the course prior to the final date of withdrawal. Before, you withdraw from your course; please take the time to meet with the instructor to discuss why you feel it is necessary to do so. The instructor may be able to provide you with suggestions that would enable you to complete the course. Your success is very important. Beginning in fall 2007, the Texas Legislature passed a law limiting first time entering freshmen to no more than SIX total course withdrawals throughout their educational career in obtaining a certificate and/or degree.

To help students avoid having to drop/withdraw from any class, HCC has instituted an Early Alert process by which your professor may “alert” you and HCC counselors that you might fail a class because of excessive absences and/or poor academic performance. It is your responsibility to visit with your professor or a counselor to learn about what, if any, HCC interventions might be available to assist you – online tutoring, child care, financial aid, job placement, etc. – to stay in class and improve your academic performance.

If you plan on withdrawing from your class, you MUST contact a HCC counselor or your professor prior to withdrawing (dropping) the class for approval and this must be done PRIOR to the withdrawal deadline to receive a “W” on your transcript. Final withdrawal deadlines vary each semester and/or depending on class length, please visit the online registration calendars, HCC schedule of classes and catalog, any HCC Registration Office, or any HCC counselor to determine class withdrawal deadlines. Remember to allow a 24-hour response time when communicating via email and/or telephone with a professor and/or counselor. Do not submit a request to discuss withdrawal options less than a day before the deadline. If you do not withdraw before the deadline (November 18, Thursday by 4:30pm), you will receive the grade that you are making in the class as your final grade.

Repeat Course Fee

The State of Texas encourages students to complete college without having to repeat failed classes. To increase student success, students who repeat the same course more than twice, are required to pay extra tuition. The purpose of this extra tuition fee is to encourage students to pass their courses and to graduate. Effective fall 2006, HCC will charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. If you are considering course withdrawal because you are not earning passing grades, confer with your instructor/counselor as early as possible about your study habits, reading and writing homework, test taking skills, attendance, course participation, and opportunities for tutoring or other assistance that might be available.
