Course Information

Course Description	Instruction in the techniques used to analyze the fashion image of individual clients. Emphasis on personal coloring, seasonal color harmonies, appropriate fabric textures, body proportion and silhouette, figure, facial and hair analysis and wardrobe coordination. Study of fashion image consultant business practices and job qualifications.
Prerequisites	None
Course Learning Outcome	After the completion of this course, you should be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrate an understanding of the role of image in today's fashion culture. 2. Analyze the image of a particular social group or individual and communicate image related information with the class – utilizing a budget set forth upon project initiation. 3. Manipulate the elements of image to achieve a specific goal. The primary purpose of this course is to broaden the perspective from which you view self image related to fashion. Much of what we will do in this course involves the application of color, self image and clothing/grooming aspects that impact the way people look and the perceptions associated with image. If you have studied these disciplines you will have an advantage over students who have not. If you have not studied any of them previously, you may find areas that you wish to pursue by doing further study.
SCANS (Secretary's Commission Addressing Necessary Skills)	OBJECTIVES The U.S. Department of Labor's Secretary's Commission on Achieving Necessary Skills (SCANS) to enter the workplace determined that specific competencies must be addressed. HCCS is committed to preparing every student with the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in today's work environment. The following competencies will be addressed in this course: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Manages Time • Participates as a Member of a Team • Teaches Others • Exercises Leadership • Negotiates to Arrive at a Decision • Works within Cultural Diversity • Acquires and Evaluates Information • Organizes and Maintains Information
Textbook Information	Uses Computers to Process Information Your Personal Style, by Nancy Plummer NOTE: No attempt will be made to cover every detail of the required textbooks. However, the student is responsible for all information in the course required textbooks. The student is expected to use the course required textbooks, as well as additional resources provided and/or allowed by the instructor (both hardcopy and electronic), as the primary sources to answer discussion questions
Lab Requirements	None

HCC Policies

Student with Disabilities	Students with a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, psychiatric, visual, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the Disability Services Office at their respective college at the beginning of each semester. The faculty is authorized to provide only the accommodations requested by the Disability Support Services Office.
Academic Honesty	Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College Systems officials against a student accused of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty may include a grade of "0" or "F" on the particular assignment, failure in the

Attendance Policies	course, and/or recommendations for probation or dismissal from the College System. A recommendation for suspension or expulsion will be referred to the College Dean of Students for disciplinary disposition. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students are expected to attend all classes (see college catalog for attendance policy). 2. Students are responsible for all work missed during their absence. 3. Student may be dropped from courses for absences that exceed 12.5% of the total semester hours, usually equated to more than 4 absences in a 2-day per week class and more than 2 absences in a 1 day per week class
HCC Course Withdrawal Policy	The State of Texas has begun to impose penalties on students who drop courses excessively. For example, if you repeat the same course more than twice, you have to pay extra tuition. Beginning in Fall 2007, the Texas Legislature passed a law limiting first time entering freshmen to no more than SIX (6) total courses withdrawals throughout their educational career in obtaining a certificate and/or degree.
EGLS₃ -- Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System	At Houston Community College, professors believe that thoughtful student feedback is necessary to improve teaching and learning. During a designated time, you will be asked to answer a short online survey of research-based questions related to instruction. The anonymous results of the survey will be made available to your professors and division chairs for continual improvement of instruction. Look for the survey as part of the Houston Community College Student System online near the end of the term.
TITLE IX OF THE EDUCATION AMENDMENTS OF 1972, 20 U.S.C. A§ 1681 ET. SEQ.	Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 requires that institutions have policies and procedures that protect students' rights with regard to sex/gender discrimination. Information regarding these rights are on the HCC website under Students-Anti-discrimination. Students who are pregnant and require accommodations should contact any of the ADA Counselors for assistance. It is important that every student understands and conforms to respectful behavior while at HCC. Sexual misconduct is not condoned and will be addressed promptly. Know your rights and how to avoid these difficult situations. Log in to: www.edurisksolutions.org .
