

Ashton Erik Paniagua

Ashton.Paniagua@HCCS.EDU

Education Graduate:

- Midwestern State University, Masters in History
 - Thesis: The Plane that won World War II: The P-51 Mustang.
- University Of North Texas, Masters Library Science

Undergraduate:

- University of Houston Downtown, Bachelor in History
- Wharton County Junior College, Associate of Arts

Current Positions:

- 2022
 - Adjunct Professor History Houston Community College Northwest College

Responsibilities:

Curriculum development

- Public Service Librarian Houston Community College Northwest College

Responsibilities:

I am a part-time librarian for Houston Community College. I dedicate myself to serving the college by providing assistance in information retrieval and research techniques. I have working knowledge about materials, research databases, circulation, and other aspects of archiving. Coupled with my teaching experience I provide the library with a unique blend of management skills, professionalism and historical knowledge.

- 2019-2022
 - Fortbend Independence School District
 - United States History
 - Advance Placement APUSH
 - Mexican American Ethnic Studies

Past Positions

- University of Houston Downtown (Houston, Texas) 2011-2014
- Alvin Community College (Alvin, Texas) 2013-2014
- San Jacinto College (Pasadena, Texas) 2010-2013
- Lone Star College (cypress Fairbanks) 2013 - 2018

Awards

- Phi Alpha Theta; Historical Honor Society