What's Exciting About This Course

Is a career in teaching right for you? Whether you are sure about your career choice or not, this course will help broaden your understanding of what it means to be an educator. This course will acquaint you with the multi-faceted culture of schooling and classrooms. Together, we will address questions such as: How are teachers prepared? What are effective teaching and learning strategies? How can teachers meet the varying needs of a diverse student population? What are best practices for classroom management? How are schools funded? Who decides the curriculum? What is an educational philosophy? A highlight for you this semester will be your field experience—an opportunity to see firsthand how theories, strategies, and practices are reflected in actual classrooms. As you progress through course readings and participate in course activities, your growing knowledge base and experiential learning will help you better determine if teaching is a good career fit for you.

his course is exciting because...

My Personal Welcome

Welcome to Introduction to the Teaching Profession! It is my privilege to work with you this semester. As you read and work through course materials, you may encounter concepts that challenge you. Approach each challenge with determination to learn. I will provide support, resources, and feedback to guide you. HCC also provides numerous resources for students—including online and in-person tutoring, as well as many helpful resources through the HCC library. Take full advantage of the college resources available to you. Put in the hard work. Contact me with your course questions or concerns. Commit to starting and finishing the course successfully!

Welcome to the course!

Preferred Method of Contact

I will respond to emails within 24 hours Monday through Friday; I will reply to weekend messages on Monday mornings. My email address is aubrey.todd@hccs.edu.

Course Overview

Course Description

EDUC 1301 is an enriched, integrated pre-service course and content experience that provides active recruitment and institutional support of students interested in a teaching career, especially in high need fields. The course provides students with opportunities to participate in early field observations at all levels of P-12 schools with varied and diverse student populations and provides students with support from college and school faculty, preferably in small cohort groups, for the purpose of introduction to and analysis of the culture of schooling and classrooms. Course content should be aligned as applicable with State Board for Educator Certification Pedagogy and Professional Responsibilities standards; and the course must include a minimum of 16 contact hours of field experience in P-12 classrooms.

Prerequisites

Must be placed into college-level reading and college-level writing.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs)

Upon completion of EDUC 1301, the student will be able to:

1. Identify current issues influencing the field of education and teacher professional development.
2. Analyze the culture of schooling and classrooms from the perspectives of language, gender, socioeconomic, ethnic, and disability-based academic diversity and equity.
3. Provide examples from classroom observations and course activities that demonstrate understanding of educational pedagogy and professional responsibilities of teachers,
4. Evaluate personal motivations, educational philosophies, and factors related to educational career decision making.
5. Recognize the various multiple intelligences/learning styles in order to be able to implement instructional practices that meet the needs of all students.

Learning Objectives

SLO1. Identify current issues influencing the field of education and teacher professional development.

- 1.1 Understand the importance of a professional code of ethics and the legal responsibilities that teachers engage in on a daily basis.
- 1.2 Review several major court decisions that affect schools.

SLO2. Analyze the culture of schooling and classrooms from the perspectives of language, gender, socioeconomic, ethnic, and disability-based academic diversity and equity.

- 2.1. Review the general structure of our K-12 education system.

SLO3. Provide examples from classroom observations and course activities that demonstrate understanding of educational pedagogy and professional responsibilities of teachers.

- 3.1. Examine the various curricular, instructional, assessment and management responsibilities that teachers engage in on a daily basis.

SLO4. Evaluate personal motivations, educational philosophies, and factors related to educational career decision making.

- 4.1 Examine the historical development of public and private U.S. schools.
- 4.2 Consider the principles, practices and benefits of professional unions and associations.

SLO5. Recognize the various multiple intelligences/learning styles in order to be able to implement instructional practices that meet the needs of all students.

Departmental Practices and Procedures

Program-Specific Student Success Information

IMPORTANT: A student cannot pass this course, no matter the course average, if the field experience hours are incomplete and/or if the Educational Philosophy paper (a key assessment) is not submitted, or if the paper does not earn a score of at least 70%.

Departmental Policy for Revision of Key Assessments: Only one revision is allowed per student on key assessments and required component written assignments. The maximum grade a student can earn on a revised assignment is 70% of the possible points. If a student uses any tutoring service, he or she must take/send assignment description or directions with the first draft. IF the student does not pass the assignment the first time, any or all of the following may be required:

1. Conference with professor
2. Take an APA and/or Plagiarism online tutorial and pass the quiz (upon instructor's request)
3. Utilize HCC tutoring

Instructional Materials and Resources

Instructional Materials

This course is part of the HCC Textbook Savings program, also known as First Day (Inclusive Access). This means you will have access to the digital textbook and online courseware through a link in Canvas. You do not need to purchase the course textbook or any access code. Your HCC student account was billed for these materials at a discounted price, guaranteed to be the lowest cost available for your required course materials. Plus, you benefit from a single sign-on access through Canvas.

You may opt out of the Textbook Savings program through the First Day (Inclusive Access) link from the first day of class through the Official Day of Record (see HCC calendar), but this is NOT recommended. If you opt out, you would then be responsible for purchasing your course materials at the full retail price and access to your materials may be suspended. The opt-out process would be for students who already have access because they are repeating the course.

For more information about the HCC Textbook Savings program, contact our bookstore manager, LaTonya Pate, at sm515@bncollege.com or 713-528-0872.

Other Instructional Resources

Courseware

This course uses McGraw-Hill Connect courseware. The Connect courseware includes the digital textbook, quizzes, exams, videos, and more. You do not need to purchase the textbook or access code for the Connect courseware. These materials are available through Canvas.

Grading Formula

Grade	Range	Notes
A	90 to 100%	90-100% of points possible and required components are successfully completed
B	80-89%	80- 89% of points possible and required components are successfully completed
C	70-79%	70- 79% of points possible and required components are successfully completed
D	60-69%	60- 69% of points possible and required components are successfully completed
F	59% or less	59% or less of points possible and/or required components are not successfully completed

* Instructor's Practices and Procedures

Incomplete Policy

The grade of "I" (Incomplete) is conditional. Incompletes are at the discretion of the professor and aligned with departmental guidelines. The grade of "I" may be earned if a student is passing the course with a D or higher AND has completed at least half of the required components for the course. Additionally, the student must have a justifiable and documented reason for not completing the work on schedule.

If you receive an "I" you must arrange with the instructor to complete the coursework within six months. After the deadline, the "I" becomes an "F". All "I" designations must be changed to grades prior to graduation. The changed grade will appear on your record as "I"/Grade (example: "I/A").

Missed Assignments/Make-Up Policy

Late work will not be accepted due to you experiencing technical difficulties, due to your employment schedule, or due to any personal challenges you may be experiencing, that are not brought to my attention in a reasonable amount of time before the due date/time. I will consider the context of your situation, as well as applicable documentation, as to why you did not complete an assignment or quiz by the due date. However, do not count on being able to turn in late work. Any work accepted will be counted at 60% of the earned points. Plan your time accordingly so that you have “extra” time to deal with any potential technical difficulties or other issues that may pose challenges to your completion of the work by the due dates. No make-up work will be allowed during the final exam week.

COVID-related accommodations will be provided on a case-by-case basis. Students should report COVID-related issues to instructors as soon as possible. Students must notify the instructor (or have someone call the instructor’s office phone on their behalf) and accommodations are not retroactive; they go into effect the date instructors receive the email or call requesting COVID-related accommodations.

The amount of time for assignment extensions will be provided on a case-by-case basis, via Canvas email. If symptoms prohibit a student’s ability to complete work on time, students will need to submit a physician’s return-to-school (or work) note. If hospitalization is required, a physician or hospital official note must be submitted, indicating dates of hospitalization, student’s name, and with student’s personal information omitted.

Academic Integrity

Here’s the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance):

<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>
(<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>)

Note: HCC expects all students to conduct themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Proceedings may be initiated by instructors, department chairs, and/or instructional deans against a student accused of a violation of academic integrity. “Scholastic Dishonesty” includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, self-plagiarism, and collusion. Discretion is given to the instructor as to the administration of consequences for academic integrity violations at the classroom level, subject to any rules imposed by the relevant program/division/center of excellence. Consequences might include such penalties as a 0 on the particular assignment, a mandatory retaking or redoing of the assignment in question, a significant deduction from the final overall course grade, dismissal from the course (if prior to the date of last withdrawal) or failure of the entire course.

<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>

Scholastic Dishonesty may also result in a referral to the Dean of Student Services.

Attendance Procedures

It is imperative that you attend class in order to be successful. You are expected to attend all scheduled classes. Although it is your responsibility to drop a course for nonattendance, the instructor has the authority to drop you for excessive absences. You may be dropped from a course prior to the college drop deadline (see academic calendar) once you accumulate absences in excess of 12.5 percent of the total hours of instruction (lecture and lab). For a 3 credit hour lecture class meeting 3 hours per week like this one (48 hours of instruction), you can be dropped after 6 hours of absence (after missing more than 3 classes). The 6 hours may include accumulated minutes for arriving late to class and leaving class early and lab time missed.

In an online class, the equivalent would be failing to participate and/or turn in assignments for two weeks. Be aware that students can be dropped from an online class due to nonparticipation. Note the following statement from the HCC Online Course Requirements Webpage:

“All students are expected to attend classes regularly, thus online students must login to their course(s) on a regular basis. Online students who do not login and actively participate before the Official Day of Record may be automatically withdrawn for non-attendance. An automatic withdrawal from a course does not erase the course from your record or excuse you from paying for the courses" (<https://www.hccs.edu/online/student-support/>).

Student Conduct

"The [HCC] Board views college-level students as adults who subscribe to a basic standard of conduct, which requires that they not violate any municipal, state, or federal laws. Furthermore, no student may disrupt or otherwise interfere with any educational activity or fellow students' right to pursue academic goals to the fullest in an atmosphere appropriate to a community of scholars. Any student failing to abide by appropriate standards of conduct during scheduled College District activities may be subject to disciplinary action" (HCC Board Policy FLB).

HCC Board Policies: <https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/policies/hcc-board-policy-manual-section-f/>
(<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/policies/hcc-board-policy-manual-section-f/>)

Instructor's Course-Specific Information

Students can expect grades and feedback after they submit coursework, generally within 7-10 days after the due date.

Devices

It is everyone's responsibility to monitor the use of electronic devices in a respectful manner. Devices that prove to be distracting will not be permitted.

Faculty Statement about Student Success

Expect to spend at least twice as many hours per week outside of class as you do in class studying the course content. Additional time will be required for written assignments. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Reading the textbook
- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course. Success requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.

Faculty-Specific Information Regarding Canvas

This course section will use Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu> (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>)) to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities.

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. For best performance, Canvas should be used on the current or first previous major release of Chrome, Firefox, Edge, or Safari. Because it's built using web standards, Canvas runs on Windows, Mac, Linux, iOS, Android, or any other device with a modern web browser.

Canvas only requires an operating system that can run the latest compatible web browsers. Your computer operating system should be kept up to date with the latest recommended security updates and upgrades.

Social Justice Statement

Houston Community College is committed to furthering the cause of social justice in our community and beyond. HCC does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity and expression, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status. I fully support that commitment and, as such, will work to maintain a positive learning environment based upon open communication, mutual respect, and non-discrimination. In this course, we share in the creation and maintenance of a positive and safe learning environment. Part of this process includes acknowledging and embracing the differences among us in order to establish and reinforce that each one of us matters. I appreciate your suggestions about how to best maintain this environment of respect. If you experience any type of discrimination, please contact me and/or the Office of Institutional Equity at 713-718-8271.

HCC Grading System

HCC uses the following standard grading system:

Grade	Grade Interpretation	Grade Points
A	Excellent (90-100)	4
B	Good (80-89)	3
C	Fair (70-79)	2
D	Passing (60-69), except in developmental courses.	1
F	Failing (59 and below)	0
FX	Failing due to non-attendance	0
W	Withdrawn	0
I	Incomplete	0
AUD	Audit	0
IP	In Progress. Given only in certain developmental courses. A student must re-enroll to receive credit.	0
COM	Completed. Given in non-credit and continuing education courses.	0

Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students during office hours, and before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class in person and/or online
- Participate actively by reviewing course material, interacting with classmates, and responding promptly in your communication with me

- Read and comprehend the textbook
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook (<https://www.hccs.edu/studenthandbook>)

Sensitive or Mature Course Content

In this college-level course, we may occasionally discuss sensitive or mature content. All members of the classroom environment, from your instructor to your fellow students, are expected to handle potentially controversial subjects with respect and consideration for one another's varied experiences and values.

EGLS3

The EGLS³ (Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System (<https://www.hccs.edu/egls3>)) will be available for most courses near the end of the term until finals start. This brief survey will give invaluable information to your faculty about their teaching. Results are anonymous and will be available to faculty and division chairs after the end of the term. EGLS³ surveys are only available for the Fall and Spring semesters. -EGLS3 surveys are not offered during the Summer semester due to logistical constraints.

Housing and Food Assistance for Students

Any student who faces challenges securing their foods or housing and believes this may affect their performance in the course is urged to contact the Dean of Students at their college for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so.

This will enable HCC to provide any resources that HCC may possess.

Student Resources

Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment and on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services (<https://www.hccs.edu/tutoring>) website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <https://library.hccs.edu> (<https://library.hccs.edu>).

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B.
