What's Exciting About This Course

Did you know that Public Speaking is listed as some American's number one fear? In this course, you will be introduced to the tools you need to create and deliver effective, and comfortable, speeches. You will learn proven techniques to build your confidence by managing anxiety associated with public speaking, speaking with truth, and tailoring your message to varied audiences. The course uses application of communication theory and practice to the public speaking context, with emphasis on audience analysis, speaker delivery, ethics of communication, cultural diversity, and speech organizational techniques, to develop students' speaking abilities, as well as the ability to effectively evaluate oral presentations.

My Personal Welcome

Welcome to Public Speaking—I'm delighted that you have chosen this course. As we explore new ideas and techniques, you will likely recognize some finesse methods popular public speakers employ. I am available during posted office hours to address any questions you might have. My goal is for you to walk out of the course with confidence in your public speaking skills.

Preferred Method of Contact

The fastest way to reach me is by my HCC email.

Course Overview

Course Description

SPCH 1315 focuses on research, composition, organization, delivery, and analysis of speeches for various purposes and occasions. The course is designed to develop proficiency in public speaking situations; emphasis on content, organization, and delivery of speeches for various occasions.

Department Website

<https://>

Core Curriculum Objectives (CCOs)

The HCCS Speech Discipline Committee has specified that the course address the following core objectives:

- Critical Thinking Skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
- Communication Skills—to include effective department, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
- Personal Responsibility—to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.
- Teamwork—to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.

Student Learning Outcomes and Objectives

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs)

1. Identify and explain the components of the communication process, as well as clarify how they relate to diverse communication models.
2. Research and select appropriate source materials to develop ideas and support claims for oral presentations.
3. Recognize how to communicate within diverse environments in a socially and personally responsible manner.
4. Demonstrate critical thinking in both written and oral communication.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs)

Upon completion of SPCH 1315, the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the foundational models of communication.
2. Apply elements of audience analysis.
3. Demonstrate ethical speaking and listening skills by analyzing presentations for evidence and logic.
4. Research, develop, and deliver extemporaneous speeches with effective verbal and nonverbal techniques.
5. Demonstrate effective usage of technology when researching and/or presenting speeches.

6. Identify how culture, ethnicity, and gender influence communication.
7. Develop proficiency in presenting a variety of speeches as an individual or group (e.g., narrative, informative, or persuasive).

Learning Objectives

1. Conduct discussions and exercises to help students evaluate diverse issues, human interactions, and topics while using the tool critical thinking.
2. Employ exercises and assignments that will train students to properly structure oral presentations for formal and informal settings.
3. Identify the primary speech categories, explain how to organize different kinds of speeches, write goals and claims, write a thesis and points for discussion, and learn to reason as well as to entertain.
4. Introduce various types of listening and assist students with fostering their skill set.
5. Provide opportunities for students to learn about various types of group and team work, and to collaborate in presenting useable events.

Departmental Practices and Procedures

Department Specific Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class in person and/or online
- Participate actively by reviewing course material, interacting with classmates, and responding promptly in your communication with me
- Read and comprehend the textbook
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Attain a raw score of at least 50% on the departmental final exam
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook

Program-Specific Student Success Information

Expect to spend at least three hours per week completing assignments. Additional time will be required for written assignments. The assignments provided will help you use your study hours wisely. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Reading the textbook
- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading and studying the material using the course objectives as your guide.

Incomplete Policy

In order to receive a grade of Incomplete ("I"), a student must have completed at least 85% of the work in the course. In all cases, the instructor reserves the right to decline a student's request to receive a grade of Incomplete.

Missed Assignments/Make-Up Policy

- Quizzes and exams will be timed and available to open for a 24 hour period.
- Quizzes and Exams will only be reopened, at the professor's discretion, for one of the following reasons: Instructor error, Mechanical error attributed to HCC's platforms, or, student submitted, dated, medical or legal documentation of inability to log in to Canvas during the 24 hour period due to illness, summons, or detainment.

Assignments submitted after their due date will incur a 10 point deduction per calendar day. Please discuss makeup submission procedures with your instructor before attempting to submit makeup work.

Attendance Procedures

You have enrolled in a HYBRID section of SPCH 1315. This modality requires face to face attendance in class and significant assignment interaction via Canvas.

- Our class Activities Schedule will contain all assignment due dates and optional live Webex opportunities.
- You have enrolled in a hybrid section which is largely synchronous. This means the course is designed to run with timed and scheduled online and live interactions.
- All assignments are NOT open at the course's start; your activity schedule displays all assignment due dates.
- Every effort will be made to post video recordings of completed Webexes which feature lectures of the week's instructional goals.
- ADA accommodations will be honored immediately upon receipt of notice.
- Quizzes and exams will be timed and available to open for a 24 hour period.

Student Conduct

This is a safe space to learn. Classroom incivility will not be tolerated. Language used to slur, malign, misgender, mis-pronoun, bully, harm or alienate is not appropriate for class. Please put phones and electronics on silent and close laptops during your classmates' speeches. Please do not enter or exit the room during a classmates' speech. Speech class is usually a fun experience! Help us to form a community by keeping your camera on, talking with your classmates, and giving the content a chance to become part of your every day life.

Grading and Feedback

Speeches will be graded with feedback and grades will be posted within a week of performance. Quiz and Exam grades will populate automatically upon submission.

Faculty-Specific Information Regarding Canvas

This course section will use Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu> (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>)) to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities.

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. For best performance, Canvas should be used on the current or first previous major release of Chrome, Firefox, Edge, or Safari. Because it's built using web standards, Canvas runs on Windows, Mac, Linux, iOS, Android, or any other device with a modern web browser.

Canvas only requires an operating system that can run the latest compatible web browsers. Your computer operating system should be kept up to date with the latest recommended security updates and upgrades.

Social Justice Statement

Houston Community College is committed to furthering the cause of social justice in our community and beyond. HCC does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity and expression, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status. I fully support that commitment and, as such, will work to maintain a positive learning environment based upon open communication, mutual respect, and non-discrimination. In this course, we share in the creation and maintenance of a positive and safe learning environment. Part of this process includes acknowledging and embracing the differences among us in order to establish and reinforce that each one of us matters. I appreciate your suggestions about how to best maintain this environment of respect. If you experience any type of discrimination, please contact me and/or the Office of Institutional Equity at 713-718-8271.

Housing and Food Assistance for Students

Any student who faces challenges securing their foods or housing and believes this may affect their performance in the course is urged to contact the Dean of Students at their college for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so.

This will enable HCC to provide any resources that HCC may possess.

Student Resources

Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment and on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services \(https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/tutoring/\) website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <https://library.hccs.edu> (<https://library.hccs.edu>).

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/> (<https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/>).
