

Ayorinde Idowu

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Ayorinde Idowu

Work Address: Natural Sciences Central College, 1300 Holman Street, Houston, TX 77004

Office Telephone Number: 713-718-6050

Email: Ayorinde.idowu@hccs.edu

Education

- M.S. Geology, Wright State University, Dayton, Ohio 45435, 1977
- B.S. Geology University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon 97403, 1975
- Basic and Advanced Certification in Instructional Technology (2004); Diploma in Teaching & Learning Excellence (TLE) HCCS, 2007.

Teaching Experience:

- Instructor: Year 2000 – Present
Houston Community College
Courses: Physical Geology, Environmental Science, Solar System Astronomy, Meteorology
- Lecturer: 2005 – Present
University of Houston-Downtown
Courses: Meteorology, Oceanography

Professional, technical, and Work-related Experience and skills

- Exploration Geologist/Geophysicist, Oil and Gas Industry, 1977 – Year 2000
- Over 20 years petroleum development experience as Chief Geologist/Geophysicist working for EXXON Mobil, Nigerian National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC), and Baker Hughes International in Houston respectively

Professional Achievements and Publications

- AAPG Certified Petroleum Geologist, Division of Professional Affairs (DPA # 4800), 1992
- Fellow Nigerian Association of Petroleum Explorationists (FNAPE), 1997
- 1990 To Date: Published over 24 Technical Papers in International Journals on Exploration and Production of oil and gas; production economics; and academic research projects at the University of Houston-Downtown involving various presentations at the Annual Conferences of geological, geophysical, and meteorological professional meetings from 2007 to date.