What's Exciting About This Course

The Department of English helps students find and develop their authentic voices, establish political power, and create social capital. We teach critical thinking, close reading, and analysis. We coach students on the rhetoric of messaging with consideration of purpose and audience. We support them as they craft their own narratives. We turn thoughts into words, ideas into interpretations, ambiguity into translation, and silence into voice.

Personal Welcome

Your online course will consist of reading written lectures and files in the Canvas Modules (written by your professor) and textbook materials, discussion, group discussion, written essays (and making use of research), and an oral video (giving you practice in oral communications). You will have numerous files to read in your online course (assignment instructions, tips on writing, etc.), in addition to readings in your text. You will be analyzing works of literature, learning to think critically, and learning about research methods and MLA documentation.

Prerequisites and/or Co-Requisites

Successful completion of ENGL 1301 or satisfactory score on the CLEP exam. Please carefully read and consider the repeater policy in the HCCS Student Handbook.

Learning Management System

This section of ENGL 1302 will use Fagle Online Canvas for notes, lectures, and assessments. Each student must maintain Internet access throughout this course. Additionally, students are expected to maintain a state of technical compliance, including (but not limited to): upto-date software; a stable Internet connection; and use of the recommended Firefoxbrowser when using Eagle Online Canvas. You are expected to contact HCC TechnicalSupport [713-718-5275, option 3 (8 am-11 pm M-F, 9 am-11 pm S-S)] when you have problems IN ADVANCE of due dates for assignments. HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access Eagle Online Canvas or the Learning Web.

When accessing the course on Canvas, it is recommended that you use FIREFOX or CHROME.

This semester, there are three modalities for English courses: Online Anytime, Online on a Schedule, and Flex Campus. Online Anytime classes are traditional online courses; coursework is online, and there are no meetings at specific times. Online on a Schedule classes are online courses with traditional meeting components; coursework is online, and there are specific times to log in for scheduled class meetings. Flex Campus are in-person classes; coursework is online, and students have the choice to come to campus or to participate online during scheduled class meetings.

This section of ENGL 1302 is Online Anytime. Office hours will be available through Canvas Conferences, arranged via Canvas Inbox messaging.

Other Instructional Resources

Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the hCC Tutoring Services website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at http://library.hccs.edu.

Supplemental Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peerassisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/.

Course Overview for ENGL 1302

English 1302 is an intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Emphasis is on effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions. Core curriculum course.

Core Curriculum Objectives (CCOs) for all ENGL Core Courses

ENGL 1302 satisfies three (3) hours of the communication requirement in the HCCS core curriculum. The HCCS English Discipline Committee has specified that the course address the following core objectives:

- Critical Thinking: Students will demonstrate creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
- Communication: Students will demonstrate effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
- Personal Responsibility: Students will demonstrate the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.
- Teamwork: Students will demonstrate the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs) for all ENGL courses

Can be found at:

https://www.hccs.edu/programs/areas-of-study/liberal-arts-humanities--education/english/

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs) for ENGL 1302

Upon successful completion of ENGL 1302, the student will be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes.
- Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays.
- Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.
- Write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.
- Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.)

Student Success in ENGL

As with any three-hour course, expect to spend at least six hours per week outside of class reading and studying the material. I will provide assignments to help you use those six hours per week wisely. Additional time will be required for written assignments. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of reading the textbook, participating online, completing assignments in Eagle Online, and participating in class discussions. There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as your guide.

Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be calculated
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through class activities, discussions, and lectures
- Provide a description of any assignments
- Inform students of policies
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students as required

- Read and comprehend the texts
- Complete the required assignments
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all documents, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies, including plagiarism, in the HCCS Student Handbook

Syllabus Modifications

The instructor reserves the right to modify the syllabus at any time during the semester and will promptly notify students in writing, typically by e-mail, of any such changes.

Instructor's Policies

Academic Integrity

Here's the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance): http://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/

Academic Honesty: A student who is academically dishonest is, by definition, not showing that the coursework has been learned, and that student is claiming an advantage not available to other students. The instructor is responsible for measuring each student's individual achievements and also for ensuring that all students compete on a level playing field. Thus, in our system, the instructor has teaching, grading, and enforcing roles. You are expected to be familiar with the HCC's policy on Academic Honesty found in the catalogue. What that means is that if you are charged with an offense, pleading ignorance of the rules will not help you.

Just so there is no misunderstanding, plagiarism (using another's ideas or words without giving credit), collusion (unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit), and other forms of cheating will not be tolerated. To be accepted, all papers require proof of their development. Students who plagiarize, collude, or cheat may face disciplinary action including the grade of 0 for the assignment, an F for the course, and/or dismissal from the college. (See Student Handbook)

Attendance Procedure

Attendance, preparedness, and participation are essential for your success in this course. HCC does not differentiate between excused and unexcused absences. As stated in the HCC Catalog, all HCC students are expected to attend classes regularly. HCC Online Anytime students must show active participation in order to be counted as attending; active participation can be accomplished by a student's response to any of the following: (1) writing an essay, (2) taking a quiz/test, (3) posting a discussion response to an instructor's question, graded or not; or (4) sending an e-mail communication to the instructor. Students in HCC Online courses must NOT ONLY log in to their Eagle Online Canvas class, but they must participate, or they will be counted as absent. Just like an on-campus class, your regular participation is required.

HCC Policy states that you can miss up to but not exceeding 12.5% of class hours (two weeks in an online course). If you have not logged in and actively participated before the Official Day of Record (September 8, 2020), you may be AUTOMATICALLY withdrawn from the course. Completing the HCC Online orientation does not count towards attendance. For this class, completing the Syllabus Quiz is REQUIRED to establish active participation in the class, prior to the Official Date of Record.

Any student found to have quit participating actively (two weeks is typical) and whom the Professor is unable to contact is subject to being dropped without further warning, resulting in either a "W" or a "FX" grade, depending upon the time of the term at which the behavior is noted. Although it is the responsibility of the student to drop a course for non-attendance (prior to the last day to withdraw of October 30, 2020), the instructor also has the authority to block a student from accessing Eagle Online Canvas, and/or to drop a student for excessive absences or failure to participate regularly.

Student Conduct

- Classroom discussion (in online forums) should be relevant and respectful to everyone. Language and behavior that is not acceptable in the workplace is not acceptable in a college class.
- 2. Read the assignments listed on your course calendar EACH WEEK. Read all files in each module in Canvas and readings in the textbook. You are expected to work diligently on this course on a daily basis. Do NOT assume that an online course means less work.
- 3. Read all Canvas Inbox email messages sent by your professor. Your professor often emails the entire class with instructions, advice, and tips for the week

4. When you write an email that is class-related (to your professor or to another student), you are expected to write in formal English and to use the respectful tone found in academia and in the workplace.

Assignment/Late work/Course Policies

- 1. Late work: All work is due on time. Assignments may be turned in early.
  - a) IF you expect that you cannot submit an assignment when due AND you have a valid excuse (such as medical), you MUST request permission from your professor (in an email in Canvas that provides documentation) BEFORE the due date for the assignment; if permission is granted, you will have up to ONE WEEK of additional time to submit the assignment (points may be deducted for late work).
  - b) Do NOT wait until the time due to submit an assignment; your clock may not sync with the clock in Canvas or in Turnitin.
- 2. Assignments must meet ALL requirements as outlined in assignment instructions. Assignments that do not meet requirements (and that includes not fulfilling the Academic Honesty policy) will receive an automatic zero.
- 3. Assignments submitted in a file format that cannot be opened are considered as not submitted. Submitting a "wrong file" or "empty file" is not an acceptable method to gain extra time (often with an email sent hours later with a message "here is the correct file").
- 4. Grades will NOT be curved; there will be NO extra credit, NO makeups, and NO "redoing" of assignments that have been submitted and graded.
- 5. For ALL assignments, points will be deducted for errors in grammar, sentencing, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation.

EGLS<sub>3</sub>

The EGLS<sub>3</sub> (Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System) will be available for most courses near the end of the term until finals start. This brief survey will give invaluable information to your faculty about their teaching. Results are anonymous and will be available to faculty and division chairs after the end of the term. EGLS<sub>3</sub> surveys are only available for the Fall and Spring semesters. EGLS<sub>3</sub>surveys are not offered during the Summer semester due to logistical constraints.

HCC Email Policy

When communicating via email, HCC requires students to communicate only through the HCC email system to protect your privacy. If you have not activated your HCC student email account, you can go to HCC Eagle ID and activate it now. You may also use Canvas Inbox to communicate.
