Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment and on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <http://library.hccs.edu>.

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/>.

Course Overview

Study of word origin and structure through the introduction of prefixes, suffixes, root words, plurals, abbreviations, and symbols; surgical procedures, medical specialties, and diagnostic procedures.

- Personal Responsibility – ability to connect choices, actions and consequences to ethical decision-making

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs)

Can be found at:

<https://learning.hccs.edu/programs/health-information-technology>

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs)

Upon completion of course, the student will be able to:

1. Define and identify basic medical terminology.

Learning Objectives

Learning Objectives for each CSLO can be found at Learning Objectives.

Student Success

Expect to spend at least twice as many hours per week outside of class as you do in class studying the course content. Additional time will be required for assignments. The assignments provided will help you use your study hours wisely. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Reading the textbook
- Completing assignments
- Attending GoToMeetings or listening to recordings
- Participating in GoToMeeting discussion

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.

Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend GoToMeetings or listen to recordings
- Participate actively by reviewing course material, interacting with classmates, and responding promptly in your communication with me
- Read and comprehend the textbook
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Attain a total score of at least 60% on the assignments, exams and final exam
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook

Assignments, Exams, and Activities

Written Assignment

Assignments are online within Canvas. Assignments close the same Sunday as the corresponding exam. No make-up assignments will be given. In the textbook, students should complete the assignments at the end of each chapter as assigned each week. These are not graded by the professor however, completion of assignments is necessary to assure course comprehension.

Exams

Exams are online within Canvas using Respondus. Exams open on Monday and close on Sunday. No make-up exams will be given.

Final Exam

All students will be required to take the online final exam on campus using Respondus. Remote students who are unable to come to campus must obtain a professor approved proctor at least 3 weeks prior to the final exam date. Failure to do so may result in the student not being able to take their final exam. No make-up final exams will be administered.
