Canvas Learning Management System

This section of PHIL 1301 will use Eagle Online Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>) and/or the Learning Web to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities.

NOTE ABOUT ONLINE COURSES:

This is an ONLINE ANYTIME course that uses Eagle Online Canvas. THERE ARE NO REQUIRED SYNCHRONOUS MEETINGS.

Here is a word of caution for those of you who are taking your first online course. This course will require you to spend at least the same amount of time as a class that meets three hours a week in a classroom, plus three additional hours of homework per week, for a total of six (6) hours a week. This is not a self-paced course. You must meet the established deadlines for completing the assignments and tests. The flexibility of an online course allows you to choose the time of day or night to "enter" the virtual classroom.

HCC Online Login, Information and Policies

The Eagle Online Canvas login page is: <https://eagleonline.hccs.edu/>

Your Eagle Online username is your full HCC email address (Wstudent #@student.hccs.edu). Your password is the same password you use to log in to PeopleSoft, HCC Webmail, and Active Directory (computer terminal login). For any questions about your Eagle ID or password, please go check online www.hccs.edu/district/students/student-e-maileagle-id/.

NOTE: Eagle Online works best with the latest version of Mozilla Firefox. Download it free, www.mozilla.org/en-US/firefox/new/.

TECHNICAL SUPPORT: <http://www.hccs.edu/online/technical-support/> or 713-718-5275

The HCC Online Student Handbook (<http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/studenthandbook/>) contains policies and procedures unique to the online student. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the handbook's contents.

Scoring Rubrics, Sample Assignments, etc.

Refer to your course website for the scoring rubrics for assignments, samples of class assignments, and other information to assist you in the course.

WELCOME TO PHILOSOPHY!

I am excited to introduce you to some of the most thought-provoking topics that philosophers have grappled with. My role in this online course is to guide you through the material I have provided on Canvas, answer any questions you have, and give you feedback on your work. I look forward to getting to know you and to get started with the course.

Instructional Materials

The required text for this course is: Stich & Donaldson. 2019. Philosophy: Asking questions- seeking answers. Oxford U Press.

The text is available online at the HCC Bookstore <http://hccs.bncollege.com>.

You will not be able to pass the class without the textbook.

One of the most important professional development skills you will achieve in college is reading comprehension and your ability to evaluate arguments and reinterpret them in your own words. Please embrace this challenge! You are expected to carefully read the assigned material each week. Since this is an online class it is absolutely crucial that you read all assigned materials. It helps to take notes when you are reading, and to formulate argument outlines and objections. The reading material will also fulfill background information, and aid in the quality of informed discussions in the discussion assignments.

Other Instructional Resources

Tutoring

Philosophy Tutoring is available at <https://hccs.upswing.io> Please use it if you need it. HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment and on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <http://library.hccs.edu>.

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/>.

As with any three-hour course, expect to spend at least six hours per week outside of class reading and studying the material. I will provide assignments to help you use those six hours per week wisely. Additional time will be required for written assignments. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of reading the textbook, attending class, completing assignments in Eagle Online, and participating in class discussions. There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as your guide.

Assignments, Exams, and Activities

All assignments, schedule, and extra readings can be found in CANVAS: MODULES: "Schedule and Readings"

There are two types of assessments:

Writing Exercises including Discussion Assignments and Essays

Reading Quizzes and Unit Quizzes

Weekly Writing exercises

Writing exercises will consist of discussions and other activities. Discussion with your classmates is a vital part of learning online and doing philosophy. Some weeks may have more than one assignment or discussion. These discussions are an imperative portion of the course as they intend to replicate the discussions in a face-to-face classroom. Discussions will include an initial post, which will typically be due on Tuesdays by 11:59 pm and two comments on your classmates posts typically due Thursdays by 11:59 pm.

Late posts will be penalized 10% for up to one week. Assignments close after a week.

Essays involve summarizing an argument from a philosopher or other thinker and developing your own arguments in response. Each essay will be approximately 1-2 double-spaced pages. Topics, instructions, tips, and due dates will be posted on Canvas.

Essays can be turned in late with 10% late penalty. No essays will be accepted after a week late.

Quizzes

Quizzes assess your knowledge of the week's assigned reading. Read the material carefully before attempting the weekly Quiz. Weekly Quizzes will typically be due Thursdays by 11:59 pm.

Late quizzes will be penalized 10% per week late.

See the Modules: "Schedule and Reading" pages for each week to get that week's reading assignments.

The last day to submit late assignments is December 7.

Grading Formula

HCC Grading Scale can be found on this site under Academic Information:

<http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/student-handbook/>

Incomplete Policy:

No student may withdraw from a course following the last date to withdraw. Incompletes are only granted with 80% completion of the course, passing grade, with permission from the department chair, and only in cases of emergency. Incompletes must be made up by the end of the following semester, after which they will automatically change to a grade of "F".

Academic Integrity

Turnitin plagiarism detection software will be used to detect plagiarism (http://turnitin.com/en\_us/higher-education).

You may use the APA manual online at: <http://www.apastyle.org/> or <http://PurdueOwl.org>. For proper grammar, use the Elements of Style by Strunk and White, online at: <http://www.bartleby.com/141/>

See the following for additional information for what counts as plagiarism:

<http://plagiarism.org/> and <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/589/1/>

Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. A student who is academically dishonest is claiming an advantage not available to other students. You are expected to be familiar with HCC's policy on Academic Dishonesty located at <http://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/> Pleading ignorance of the rules, including improper documentation (MLA, APA, etc.) is no justification for academic dishonesty.

Do not use the internet unless indicated in the assignment instructions. Use your Stich & Donaldson textbook only. Assignments copied from the internet in part or whole will receive a 0.

Students who plagiarize, collude, or cheat may or may not have an opportunity to resubmit their work and may receive a grade of 0 for the first assignment, an F in the course for a second assignment, and a report in our Maxient system which could lead to dismissal from the college. Scholastic Dishonesty will result in a referral to the Dean of Student Services.

Here's the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance):

Attendance Procedures

This is not a self-paced class. There will be weekly deadlines for assignments and quizzes.

All students are expected to attend classes regularly, thus online students must login to their course(s) on a regular basis. HCC Online students who do not login and actively participate (see description below) before the Official Day of Record may be dropped for non-attendance.

Active participation can be accomplished by a student's response to any of the following:

- quiz/test on either the syllabus or another assignment (e.g. early reading assignment, self-assessment)- graded or not
- essay response to an instructor's prompt - diagnostic or graded
- discussion response to an instructor's question (e.g. asking students to identify themselves and explain expectations for the course) - graded or not
