

Dawlele Myint Dawlele.myint@hccs.edu

EXPERIENCE

Houston Community College, *Biology Adjunct Faculty; Central Campus September/2020 – Present

- Evaluate course materials for instruction in Human Anatomy/ Physiology
- Active professional development i.e., Canvas LMS shells to assess student core competencies, DE Online
- Share instructional materials, provide course assistance to department faculty in request from Chair
- Attend upcoming Adjunct Academy, other training times for updates in general campus policy and course objectives on variety in instructional methodologies to improve delivery techniques of subject matter
- Mentor graduated students and provide tutoring, guidance in professional school courses
- Build relationships with full time/ adjunct HCC colleagues to model exemplary professional practices

Biology/Anatomy and Physiology/APES Teacher October 2007 – Present
Northbrook High School, Spring Branch ISD, Houston, TX

- Implemented student-centered lessons focused on STAAR, TASK and school curriculum
- Analyzed student data from standardized tests to provide student interventions
- Collaborated with the Biology team to design lesson plans and assessments

Biology Teacher June 1986 – May 2001
Myanmar Academic Center Private School (Myanmar, South East Asia)

Developed and use syllabus and use variety of teaching methods and materials taught students with different educational background.

Author and Publisher January 1990 - 2001

Published High School Biology Test Preparation Books in English and Burmese.

Skill

- Fluent in English and Burmese
- Computer Skills: Microsoft Office

EDUCATION/CERTIFICATION

M.Sc., Biology Minor: English

B.Sc. (Honors), Zoology Minor English, Botany and Chemistry

Texas Educator Certificate, Life Science Grades 8-12

AP and GT Certificate, Grades 8-12