Please feel free to talk to me during your lessons concerning any problems that you are experiencing in this course. Since we will be working with your sound on a one-to-one basis, please write down any questions you may have and/or bring a recording of any performances you would like evaluated. Your vocal growth and performance are very important to me. I am happy to address your concerns and to discuss them during your lessons. Also, since we are dealing with sound, email questions are not usually an effective way to address your concerns.

Instructional Methods

MUAP 1180 is the co-requisite for MUAP 1178.

As an instructor, I want my students to be successful. I feel that it is my responsibility to provide you with knowledge concerning singing and healthy vocal production.

As a student wanting to progress, you should come to each lesson prepared. This means having two copies of your assigned music, a pencil and paper for notating techniques and pronunciation, and a recording device.

Student Assignments

Music will be assigned according to your developmental needs. Memorization is one of the first steps in learning to sing any piece of music well. You may be asked to perform during the semester, if possible. These assignments will not be burdensome or conflict with any student's work schedule. These assignments will be considered extra credit.

We now have access to the Online Groves Dictionary, and you need to use this resource. Here is the link:

HCC Policy Statement - ADA

HCC strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please meet with a campus Abilities Counselor as soon as possible in order to establish reasonable accommodations. Reasonable accommodations are established through an interactive process between you, your instructor(s) and Ability Services. It is the policy and practice of HCC to create inclusive and accessible learning environments consistent with federal and state law. For more information, please go to <http://www.hccs.edu/district/students/disability-services/>

HCC Policy Statement: Academic Honesty

A student who is academically dishonest is, by definition, not showing that the coursework has been learned, and that student is claiming an advantage not available to other students. The instructor is responsible for measuring each student's individual achievements and also for ensuring that all students compete on a level playing field. Thus, in our system, the instructor has teaching, grading, and enforcement roles. You are expected to be familiar with the University's Policy on Academic Honesty, found in the catalog. What that means is: If you are charged with an offense, pleading ignorance of the rules will not help you. Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College System officials against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty. "Scholastic dishonesty": includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion.

Cheating on a test includes:

- Copying from another students' test paper;
- Using materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
- Collaborating with another student during a test without authorization;
- Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of a test that has not been administered;
- Bribing another person to obtain a test that is to be administered.

Plagiarism means the appropriation of another's work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one's own written work offered for credit.

Collusion mean the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.

Since the mid-term paper and the vocal performance report papers are individual, the only applicable part of this statement is the section dealing with plagiarism.

Possible punishments for academic dishonesty may include a grade of 0 or F in the particular assignment, failure in the course, and/or recommendation for probation or dismissal from the College System. (See the Student Handbook)

HCC Policy Statements

Class Attendance - It is important that you come to class! Attending class regularly is the best way to succeed in this class. Research has shown that the single most important factor in student success is attendance. This is especially true in learning to sing. Attendance is checked at each lesson. Although it is your responsibility to drop a course for nonattendance, the instructor has the authority to drop you for excessive absences.

Students may be dropped from a course after accumulating absences in excess of 12.5% hours of instruction. The six hours of class time would include any total classes missed or for excessive tardiness or leaving class early.

You may decide NOT to come to class for whatever reason. As an adult making the decision not to attend, you do not have to notify the instructor prior to missing a class. However, if this happens too many times, you may suddenly find that you have “lost” the class. The instructor is not obligated to “make-up” lessons you may miss for any reason. In the case of instructor absence, these lessons will be made up.

Attendance equals success.

HCC Course Withdrawal Policy

If you feel that you cannot complete this course, you will need to withdraw from the course prior to the final date of withdrawal. Before, you withdraw from your course; please take the time to meet with the instructor to discuss why you feel it is necessary to do so. The instructor may be able to provide you with suggestions that would enable you to complete the course. Your success is very important. Beginning in fall 2007, the Texas Legislature passed a law limiting first time entering freshmen to no more than SIX total course withdrawals throughout their educational career in obtaining a certificate and/or degree.

To help students avoid having to drop/withdraw from any class, HCC has instituted an Early Alert process by which your professor may “alert” you and HCC counselors that you might fail a class because of excessive absences and/or poor academic performance. It is your responsibility to visit with your professor or a counselor to learn about what, if any, HCC interventions might be available to assist you – online tutoring, child care, financial aid, job placement, etc. – to stay in class and improve your academic performance.

If you plan on withdrawing from your class, you MUST contact a HCC counselor or your professor prior to withdrawing (dropping) the class for approval and this must be done PRIOR to the withdrawal deadline to receive a “W” on your transcript. Final withdrawal deadlines vary each semester and/or depending on class length, please visit the online registration calendars, HCC schedule of classes and catalog, any HCC Registration Office, or any HCC counselor to determine class withdrawal deadlines. Remember to allow a 24-hour response time when communicating via email and/or telephone with a professor and/or counselor. Do not submit a request to discuss withdrawal options less than a day before the deadline. If you do not withdraw before the deadline, you will receive the grade that you are making in the class as your final grade.

Repeat Course Fee

The State of Texas encourages students to complete college without having to repeat failed classes. To increase student success, students who repeat the same course more than twice, are required to pay extra tuition. The purpose of this extra tuition fee is to encourage students to pass their courses and to graduate. Effective fall 2006, HCC will charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. If you are considering course withdrawal because you are not earning passing grades, confer with your instructor/counselor as early as possible about your study habits, reading and writing homework, test taking skills, attendance, course participation, and opportunities for tutoring or other assistance that might be available. These fees MAY be waived in the case of private lessons.

Classroom Behavior

As your instructor and as a student in this class, it is our shared responsibility to develop and maintain a positive learning environment. Your instructor takes this responsibility very seriously and will discuss any behavior which makes it difficult for you to learn effectively.

Use of Cell Phone in Class

As a student, it is your responsibility to be respectful of the learning atmosphere in your classroom. To show respect, you will turn off your phone and will not use this device in the classroom unless you receive permission from the instructor.

Instructor Requirements

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment
- Description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness and make up
- Provide the course outline and class calendar which will include a description of any special projects or assignments

To be successful in this class, it is the student's responsibility to:

- Attend class
- Practice 10 hours per week.
- Memorize the assigned repertoire
- Submit the required paper and concert report
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem

EGLS3 -- Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System

This year, HCC with the help of the Faculty Senate is implementing the online EGLS3 -- Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System to replace the paper SEOI, Student Evaluation of Instruction.

At Houston Community College, professors believe that thoughtful student feedback is necessary to improve teaching and learning. During a designated time, you will be asked to answer a short online survey of research-based questions related to instruction. The anonymous results of the survey will be made available to your professors and division chairs for continual improvement of instruction. Look for the survey as part of the Houston Community College Student System online near the end of the term.

Please complete this report on time. Thank you!
