HCC Policy Statement: Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA):

Any student with a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, psychiatric, vision, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the Disability Services Office at the respective college at the beginning of each semester. Faculty is authorized to provide only the accommodations requested by the Disability Support Services Office.

If you have any questions, please contact the Disability Counselor at your college, or the District Disability Office at 713-718-5165.

HCC Policy Statement: Academic Honesty:

You are expected to be familiar with the College's Policy on Academic Honesty, found in the catalog and student handbook. Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College System officials against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty.

"Scholastic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion.

Cheating on a test includes:

- Copying from another student's test paper;
- Using materials during a test that are not authorized by the person giving the test;
- Collaborating with another student during a test without authority;
- Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of a test that has not been administered;
- Bribing another person to obtain a test that is to be administered.

Plagiarism means the appropriation of another's work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one's own written work offered for credit.

Collusion means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.

Violations: Possible punishments for academic dishonesty may include a grade of "0" or "F" on the particular assignment, failure in the course, and/or recommendation for probation or dismissal from the College System. A recommendation for suspension or expulsion will be referred to the College Dean of Student Development for disciplinary disposition.

Students who wish to appeal a grade penalty should notify the instructional supervisor within 30 working days of the incident. A standing committee appointed by the College Dean of Instruction (Academic or Workforce) will convene to sustain, reduce, or reverse the grade penalty. The committee will be composed of two students, two faculty members, and one instructional administrator. A majority vote will decide the grade appeal and is final.

Official HCC Attendance Policy:

Students are expected to attend classes regularly. Students are responsible for material covered during their absences, and it is the student's responsibility to consult with instructors for makeup assignments (if issued). Class attendance is checked daily by instructors.

Although it is the responsibility of the student to drop a course for non-attendance, the instructor has the authority to drop a student for excessive absences. For face-to-face courses, a student may be dropped from a course for absenteeism after the student has accumulated absences in excess of 12.5 percent of the hours of instruction (including lecture and laboratory time). For example: For a 3 credit lecture class (Art Appreciation & Art History) meeting 3 hours per week (48 total hours of instruction), a student may be dropped when their absence exceeds 6 hours.

In this Eagle Online Art 1301 course section, students are expected to actively participate with the course, as well as exhibit appropriate behavior conducive to an amicable learning environment. Active attendance and participation includes the following: logging into the course three times per week to access and read course materials; submitting completed assignments, within appropriately assigned drop boxes, by scheduled due dates; respectfully participating with all course discussions, as well as correspondence between peers and/or instructor; posting a self-portrait (photo) within your Eagle Online Profile; adhering to Netiquette, Academic Writing and Research Guidelines featured in this course; completing online Final Exam by scheduled due date.

Students will either be removed from and/or fail the course if they do not actively participate with the course. A student exhibiting inappropriate behavior, at any time during the semester, will either be removed from and/or fail the course. A student who plagiarizes material (review Research Guidelines located within course) will not earn points for an assignment and/or may be removed from, or fail, the course. A student who has not logged into and/or has not actively participated within the course prior to the Official Day of Record will automatically be withdrawn from the course (Unit #1 Assignment is due prior to this date). Any student not actively pursuing this course and/or exhibiting disrespectful behavior towards instructor, peers, or course material, may also be blocked from gaining access to course materials featured in Eagle Online.

All materials located within this Eagle Online Course are subject to copyright and trademark laws. A student who either intentionally or unintentionally copies, distributes, trades, plagiarizes, publishes, or sells course material will be prosecuted.

Students should plan on spending a minimum of 9 hours per week (dependent upon comprehension of course material, skills, use of computer technology) for readings, assignments, activities and discussions featured in this course. It is the student's responsibility to maintain good time-management skills, as well as actively participate with the course.

Due to the calendar schedule, as well as the nature of course material and delivery method, it is not recommended that students enroll in the course past the first week of this sixteen-week course. Late (or make-up) work is not accepted in this course. Incompletes are not issued in this course. Plan on posting/submitting assignments in advance of scheduled due dates/times. Please remember that sometimes problems arise with computer technology, therefore, it's advantageous not to wait until the last minute to submit assignments. If you are experiencing technical difficulties, it is highly suggested that you contact the Help Desk well in advance of scheduled due dates/times. Due to the nature of this course, accommodations are not awarded for human and/or computer errors, vacation or work schedules, personal issues or illnesses.

Administrative drops are at the discretion of the instructor. If you are doing poorly in the class, but you have not contacted your professor to ask for help, and you have not withdrawn by the official withdrawal date, it will result in you receiving a grade of “F” in the course

LAST DAY FOR STUDENT/ADMINISTRATIVE DROP/WITHDRAWALS THIS SEMESTER:

Monday, April 01, 2013 prior to 4:30 pm.

Course Withdrawals-First Time Freshmen Students-Fall 2007 and Later:

Effective 2007, section 51.907 of the Texas Education Code applies to first-time in college freshman students who enroll in a Texas public institution of higher education in the fall semester of 2007 or thereafter. High school students currently enrolled in HCC Dual Credit and Early College are waived from this requirement until they graduate from high school.

Based on this law, HCC or any other Texas Public institution of higher education may not permit students to drop after the official day of record more than six college level credit courses for unacceptable reasons during their entire undergraduate career.

Course Withdrawals:

Be sure you understand HCC policies about dropping a course. It is the student’s responsibility to withdraw officially from a course and prevent an “F” from appearing on the transcript. If you feel that you cannot complete this course, you will need to withdraw from the course prior to the final date of withdrawal. Before, you withdraw from your course; please take the time to meet with the instructor to discuss why you feel it is necessary to do so. The instructor may be able to provide you with suggestions that would enable you to complete the course. Your success is very important.

If you plan on withdrawing from your class, you MUST contact a HCC counselor or your professor prior to withdrawing (dropping) the class for approval and this must be done PRIOR to the withdrawal deadline to receive a “W” on your transcript. *Final withdrawal deadlines vary each semester and/or depending on class length, please visit the online registration calendars, HCC schedule of classes and catalog, any HCC Registration Office, or any HCC counselor to determine class withdrawal deadlines. *Remember to allow a 24-hour response time when communicating via email and/or telephone with a professor and/or counselor. Do not submit a request to discuss withdrawal options less than a day before the deadline. If you do not withdraw before the deadline, you will receive the grade that you are making in the class as your final grade

MENINGITIS IMMUNIZATION REQUIRED FOR REGISTRATION: Texas Senate Bill 1107 passed in May 2011, requires that new HCC students and former HCC students returning after an absence of at least one fall or spring semester who are under the age of 30 are required to present a physician-signed certificate showing they have been vaccinated against bacterial meningitis. Beginning with Spring registration, November 7, 2011, students will have to satisfy this requirement prior to enrollment. For more information and a list of exemptions please go to <http://www.hccs.edu/hccs/admissions-registration-center/new-student-general-admissions-steps/submit-meningitis-documentation>

EGLS₃ -- Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System:

At Houston Community College, professors believe that thoughtful student feedback is necessary to improve teaching and learning. During a designated time, you will be asked to answer a short online survey of research-based questions related to instruction. The anonymous results of the survey will be made available to your professors and division chairs for continual improvement of instruction. Look for the survey as part of the Houston Community College Student System online near the end of the term.

Early Alert Program:

To help students avoid having to drop/withdraw from any class, HCC has instituted an Early Alert process by which your professor may “alert” you and HCC counselors that you might fail a class because of excessive absences and/or poor academic performance. It is your responsibility to visit with your professor or a counselor to learn about what, if any, HCC interventions might be available to assist you – online tutoring, child care, financial aid, job placement, etc. – to stay in class and improve your academic performance.

Repeat Course Fee: The State of Texas encourages students to complete college without having to repeat failed classes. To increase student success, students who repeat the same course more than twice, are required to pay extra tuition. The purpose of this extra tuition fee is to encourage students to pass their courses and to graduate. Effective fall 2006, HCC will charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. If you are considering course withdrawal because you are not earning passing grades, confer with your instructor/counselor as early as possible about your study habits, reading and writing homework, test taking skills, attendance, course participation, and opportunities for tutoring or other assistance that might be available.

Distance Education Student Handbook: The Distance Education Student Handbook contains policies and procedures unique to the DE student. Students should have reviewed the handbook as part of the mandatory orientation. It is the student’s responsibility to be familiar with the handbook’s contents. The handbook contains valuable information, answers, and resources, such as DE contacts, policies and procedures (how to drop, attendance requirements, etc.), student services (ADA, financial aid, degree planning, etc.), course information, testing procedures, technical support, and academic calendars. Refer to the DE Student Handbook by visiting this link:
<http://de.hccs.edu/de/de-student-handbook>

HCC Grading Information:

Grading percentile: the official HCC grading rubric is as follows:

90–100 percent	A	Exceptionally fine work; superior in presentation, visual observation, comprehension and participation
80–89 percent	B	Above average work; superior in one or two areas
70–79 percent	C	Average work; good, unexceptional participation
60–69 percent	D	Below average work; noticeably weak with minimal participation
Below 60 percent	F	Clearly deficient in presentation, style and content with a lack of participation

The grade of "I" (Incomplete) is conditional. It will only be assigned if at least 80% of the course work is complete. Students receiving an "I," must make an arrangement with the instructor in writing to complete the course work within six months. After the deadline, the "I" becomes an "F." All "I" designations must be changed to grades prior to graduation. Changed grades will appear on student record as "I"/Grade (example: "I/A").

Note: In this online version of Art 1301, Incompletes are not issued. The grade of "W" (Withdrawal) appears on grade reports when students withdraw from a class by the drop deadline. Instructors have the option of dropping students up to the deadline. After the deadline, instructors do not have that option — not even when entering final grades.

Instructor Grading Criteria:

Unit Assignments, Discussion Forum, and any additional assignments (added or modified) will be evaluated according to the following criteria:
