Please feel free to contact me concerning any problems that you are experiencing in this course. Your performance in the class is very important to me. I am available to hear your concerns and to discuss course topics. If you have a question about an assignment, please contact me well-in-advance of assignment due date so that I can be of assistance, to you, in a timely manner. Note: Due to Pandemic, HCCS Campuses are currently closed, therefore, I will not "meet" with students "in-person". Instead, I will correspond with students through Eagle Online (Canvas) "In-Box", HCCS e-mail, public classroom "chat", or announced public "classroom" meetings through WebEx (located within online course).

Instructor's Preferred Method of Contact

Please contact me with questions or concerns via email at gina.miceli-hoffman@hccs.edu or at Canvas Inbox. I prefer that you contact me by using the "In-Box" located within Eagle Online Canvas (for course archival purposes). You can also contact me by HCCS "e-mail" (gina.miceli-hoffman@hccs.edu) when experiencing problems with Canvas, or if you want to submit an "attachment" with your correspondence. I will reply to your message, by e-mail, within 24-48 hours; Monday – Thursday (not on weekends & holidays). I will reply to weekend messages during weekdays.

Students are required to use their HCCS e-mail account when corresponding with HCCS instructors, as well as within the online course. Include the Course Name, Number, CRN (HUMA 1311-14254 and key word (i.e. Mod. #1 Assignment, Mod. #2 DF, Mod. #2 Content ...) within the Subject Line of each e-mail correspondence, along with official first and last name. Due to security issues, messages received from an e-mail address other than that of HCCS, or missing this pertinent required information, will be deleted - thus not read by your instructor. Once the course has ended, send any correspondence directly to my HCCS e-mail address (not through the Canvas "In-Box" since course will be "closed").

Instructional Materials

Textbook Information

A textbook is not required for this course; materials are featured in the online course environment (OER's, Websites, Instructor Materials...). Students will also perform online research and cite sources to discourage plagiarism.

Other Instructional Resources

Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment and on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <http://library.hccs.edu>.

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/>.

Course Overview

Student Success

As with any three-hour course, expect to spend at least six hours, per week, outside of class reading and studying the material. I will provide assignments to help you use those six hours per week wisely. Additional time will be required for written assignments. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of reading course material, attending class, completing assignments in Eagle Online, and participating in class discussions. Warning: This course contains 16 weeks of "content" condensed into a short five-week summer term thus requires very good time-management skills, dedication, and active participation to successfully pass this class. It is highly suggested that students begin readings, discussions & assignments well-in-advance of listed scheduled due dates/times since late work is not accepted in this course. Students are expected to "collaborate" with peers within the Discussion Forum, thus realize that your actions can result in a positive or negative impact on a peer's "grade".

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as your guide. Expect to spend at least three hours logged into the class, each week, examining course content. Additional time will be required (dependent upon your knowledge & skill-set) to complete assignments and activities featured within each Module.

Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Weekly Attendance (Log-In a minimum of 2x per week; once early during the week)
- Frequently Viewing E-Mail Messages, Course Announcements & Course Calendar
- Be Familiar With "Start Here" Module Contents & Completing "Start Here" Quiz
- Reading Course Module Content, Textbook and/or Online Sources
- Creating, Researching, Writing About, and Discussing the Visual & Performing Arts
- Be familiar with Academic Writing and Research methods, as well as use formal writing to complete assignments, discuss course topics, and to correspond with students or instructor (i.e.: do not use texting language, encryptions, slang, foreign language...)
- Submitting Assignments (in requested format & required location) By Due Dates/Times
- Actively Participating With Discussion Forums
- Using the public "Chat" room to seek assistance from peers and/or Instructor (if and when necessary)
- Contacting Instructor Well-In-Advance of Scheduled Assignment Due Dates/Times (if and when necessary)
- Monitor Individual Course Progress & Keep Copies Of All Material Related to Course
- Maintain a Good Attitude & Time-Management Skills!

Since this is a short five-week online project-based course, assignments and discussion forums are designed to facilitate learning and application of course material. You will demonstrate what you have learned by completing assignments, as well as participating with discussion forums. There isn't a short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (as well as researching) course material. You are expected to learn concepts featured in this course so that you can successfully complete assignments, as well as effectively participate with discussion forums.

Good time-management skills are also imperative for successful completion of any course; particularly within an online course format. Due to the nature of this course format, I do not accept late work; instead, an extra-credit opportunity is offered at the beginning of the semester (refer to online course content materials for details).

I also take plagiarism very seriously—submit your own, original ideas, in your own words, or you will receive a zero on projects, discussion forums, and/or possibly even fail the course. I can't tell what you've learned if you use someone else's work. Tip: Never copy and paste information, from online, directly into your document. Take research notes and then use this material to compose a typed document using your own words, thoughts, and ideas, then appropriately cite your sources. Use quotations, sparingly, in order to enhance your document. Refer to this online course, as well as the following HCCS Library Link, for further details: http://library.hccs.edu/research_writing/plagiarism

The HCC Online website at www.hccs.edu/online provides some unique procedures for HCC online students. Online students should thoroughly review the website before each semester for updates and changes. The HCC Online website has specific sections for Advising Services, Counseling Services, Ability Services, Tutoring Services, Proctoring Services, Career Services, Student Support, and Technical Support for Eagle Online (Canvas). Note: Due to Pandemic, HCCS campuses are currently closed, therefore, refer to HCCS Student Resources located at the HCCS website homepage: <https://www.hccs.edu/> or <https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/communicable-diseases/resources-for-students/>

Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class in person and/or online
- Participate actively by reviewing course material, interacting with classmates, and responding promptly in your communication with me
- Read and comprehend the course textbook (or supplemental materials)
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook

Assignments, Exams, and Activities

Written Assignment

Since this is a project-based course, most of the class will be completed through written assignments. You will complete at least 2000 words in a combination of written assignments over the course of the semester. Your grammar and spelling are important therefore obtain assistance from an HCCS tutor if needed. Once an assignment is submitted within designated Module drop box, it is graded as is. Due to the short length of this course, students are not granted assignment or discussion forum "extensions" or an opportunity to re-submit an assignment.

Additional requirements for Honors students:

Honors students will write an additional 2,000 words. They will complete a project or oral presentation that shows a higher level of analytical thinking and satisfies the requirement of the honors contract

Exams

Since this short five-week summer course is project-based, only one exam is featured – the "Start Here Quiz". This required multiple-choice online quiz is featured in the "Start Here" section of the course and due prior to 11:00 pm (Central Time Zone), June 10, 2020 in order to remain in the course. Refer to details about this quiz within the online course located at Eagle Online Canvas.

Methods of Assessment/Evaluation may include: hands-on art projects; tests and quizzes which may include: definitions, matching, multiple choice, true/false, short answer, essay, lists; writing assignments, discussions and/or critiques; written papers including critiques, essays, analyses, reviews, research, comparing and contrasting art and historical perspectives; formal analysis; presentations; group and/or individual projects; other methods as may be determined by individual instructors.

Class Activities

There are 2 Modules located within this course (not including the "Start Here" section at the beginning of the course). Each Module contains learning objectives, course content, assignment and/or activities (along with instructions & rubrics), as well as discussion forums.

Throughout the five-weeks, you will work independently, as well as collaboratively, to complete assignments and activities. Students are expected to provide a "selfie" (self-portrait) at the beginning of the term (Eagle Online Account), digital photos for particular assignments, complete a "digital" project, as well as discuss course content with peers during this term. Since this course requires "collaboration" (in this course, within DF's) please take into consideration that your actions can result in a negative or positive effect on a peer's grade.

You are expected to complete Modules sequentially ("Start Here" then Module's 1 & 2) during assigned weeks of the term so that you can learn course content and submit assignments by scheduled due dates/times. Since Module One content is necessary to complete assignments for Module Two (and so on and so forth) it is highly suggested that you don't attempt to "skip" Modules. By doing so, you will have a very hard time completing particular assignments, as well as lose points.

Missed assignments/activities/discussions do not receive points. Assignments, quizzes, and discussions are not accepted late! Refer to the Course Calendar, as well as online course, for details. For successful time-management, plan on completing and/or submitting assignments prior to designated due dates. If you choose to submit an assignment on scheduled due dates, I highly suggest submitting no later than 9:00 pm.

If you are experiencing technical difficulties, it is highly suggested that you contact the HCCS Help Desk well-in-advance of assignment scheduled due dates/times. Due to the nature of this course, accommodations are not granted for human and/or computer errors, vacation or work schedules, personal issues or illnesses. A student requesting an extension or Incomplete in the course must contact the Dean of Humanities for approval due to certain school regulations and/or official documentation that must be filed. Please note that not all Modules may be released at the beginning of the term, usually due to Instructor or program "maintenance".

Final Exam

Since this course is project-based, there isn't a Final Exam. Instead, students are issued a final project featured in Module 2. Refer to Course Calendar as well as Module 2 online course contents for details.

Important Legal Notice:

1. Grades are manually recorded, as well as digitally recorded within the "Canvas" online course gradebook. Individual grades are accessible to students, during the term, via the course online gradebook. It is a student's responsibility to monitor their course progress throughout the term.
2. All "Canvas" online course contents are permanently recorded, archived for future reference by instructor and/or HCCS Administration, and remains the legal property of HCCS, as well as instructor of the course.
3. Late work is not accepted in this course. Instead, Instructor offers an extra credit opportunity ("Start Here" Quiz located in the online course) at the beginning of the term. Completion of online "Start Here" quiz (by designated due date) is required to earn extra-credit points, as well as remain in the course. "Start Here Quiz" is worth up to a total of 50 extra-credit points that are added to cumulative total points earned.

Incomplete Policy:

An "I" (Incomplete) is conditional. In order to receive a grade of Incomplete ("I"), a student must have completed at least 85% of the work in the course. A student must contact the Instructor to request an Incomplete, and the request must be approved by the Dean of Visual Arts Department. A student receiving an "I" must arrange with the instructor to complete the course work within six months of the end of the incomplete term. After the deadline, the "I" becomes an "F." Upon completion of the coursework, the grade will be entered as I/grade on the student transcript. All "I"s must be changed to grades prior to graduation. In all cases, the instructor reserves the right to decline a student's request to receive a grade of Incomplete.

Instructor's Practices and Procedures

Missed Assignments

In order to maintain Academic Integrity, as well as remain on schedule, late or make-up work is not accepted in this short SU1 five-week course!

It's the student's responsibility to ensure that exams, assignments, activities, and discussion forums are completed and submitted (within designated assignment drop box and/or discussion forum locations) by scheduled due dates & designated times. It's also the student's responsibility to contact instructor, well-in-advance of scheduled due dates, if they don't understand what is expected of them for an exam, assignment, activity, or discussion forum featured in this course. Students who do not submit assignments in appropriate format, designated drop boxes, and/or by scheduled due dates & time will not earn points - which can result in a lower point total, being withdrawn from, or failing the course. Once an Assignment and/or DF is submitted, this is the item graded by Instructor, therefore, it is the student's responsibility to ensure that the intended and appropriate document is submitted or posted.

Student must provide instructor with official documentation from the HCCS Ability Support Service Office (prior to 11:00 pm, June 10th, 2020) for an extension or modification of an assignment or exam. Instructor approval of documentation must be granted prior to issuing or accepting an extension or modification of an assignment. All work must be completed prior to end of term. If you are experiencing a serious issue that inhibits you from actively participating with this course, it's best to discuss your situation with the Dean of the Humanities Department. Dependent upon circumstances, you might be able to obtain either a "W" or Incomplete in the course - but be aware that there are strict rules concerning this chosen course of action, often requiring official documentation and approval by the Dean.

File Format Requirements:

For all attached documents submitted with assignments, students are expected to adhere to the following requirements:

1. Eagle Online/Canvas accepts only the following file formats:
 - a. .pdf, .rtf, .doc or docx, .ppt or .pptx , .jpeg
 - b. Documents submitted in an alternate format are not accepted due to program constraints. Students will be notified if, and when, Canvas accepts alternate file formats.
2. If I can't open your assignment document, or it is not the accurate document, you will not earn points! Please review your submissions immediately upon upload.
3. Upload PDF files: You should create pdf documents for uniformity, accessibility and security purposes. Since you can't change pdf files once created, it's best to first create your documents in a text editor (such as Microsoft Office Word), then convert to a .pdf file.

4. Requested File Format for Assignments (Due to Course Record Management Issues):
 - a. HUMA1311-14254_Last Name, First Name_Mod.#Assignment.pdf (or rtf, doc, docx, ppt, pptx...)
 - b. Example for Module Assignment: HUMA1311- 14254_Rivera, J. Mod#1 Assignment.pdf (or rtf, doc, docx, ppt, pptx)
 - c. Example for Module Assignment: HUMA1311-14254_Jones,S_ Mod#2 Assignment.pdf (or rtf, doc, docx, ppt, pptx).
 - d. Example for Discussion Forum: Art 1301-14254_Rivera,J. Mod#1DF.pdf (or rtf, doc, docx, ppt, pptx)
 - e. Example for Discussion Forum: Art 1301-14254_Jones,S._Mod#2DF.pdf (or rtf, doc, docx, ppt, pptx)
 - f. Include a Header (Class Number, Your Name, Mod. Number & Assignment Title, Date) and Page Numbers
5. Create typed documents with 10, 11, or 12 Point Times New Roman Font/Font Size & 1" margins max. (College Required)
6. Use MLA Style parenthetical citations within document and/or MLA Footnote or Endnote format with all assignments (MLA is an easier format and discourages plagiarism). Include MLA Style Bibliography with all assignments - can be placed at the end of your document and should contain academic resource information, along with activated URL addresses, so that you don't plagiarize and everyone can access your research materials! Resource: http://library.hccs.edu/research_writing/plagiarism
7. Include clearly identified visual images for each visual example presented in your document: identify artist/culture, title, date, media, location, and activated URL address where you found each visual image - so you don't plagiarize and everyone can view your examples! If using the Canvas "Flickr" stock images, program allows user to type information under "attributes" when opening chosen image. Even if you find an image in a course textbook, you must include the identified image within your typed or posted document.
8. When attaching digital photographs within an Eagle Online Canvas text box, be certain to only attach formats that Canvas allows within its program.
9. If I can't access an activated (hyperlinked) URL Address and/or visual imagery, you will lose, or not earn, points on an assignment.

Additional Course Requirements:

1. Art Supplies: For this short SU 1 term, the project is "digital".
2. Digital or Cell Phone Camera: Students are responsible for electronically uploading digital images and/or original photographs (inserted into requested format file documents (pdf, rtf, doc, docx, ppt, pptx...) or attached as jpeg files within assignment drop box. Students may need access to an electronic scanner, program, or service to scan imagery and convert images into a digital format for this course - often available at HCCS computer or library labs.
3. PDF File Reader: Instructor files (as well as student postings) are in the .pdf format; therefore, students will need access to a .pdf file reader (such as Adobe Acrobat Reader).

4. File Compression Program: Extremely large files, 501 MB+, are not accepted in this course. Students may need access to a digital file compression/decompression program (such as WinZip) at the beginning of the Semester, if creating a file that is too large to be uploaded in Eagle Online.
Note: Canvas only accepts certain file formats, therefore, please participate with the HCCS Canvas tutorials for further information.
5. Internet Browser: This course utilizes online materials, accessible only with access to an Internet Browser. For HCCS "Canvas" we highly recommend using Firefox or Google Chrome as your browser.
6. Microsoft Office Software: Currently, HCCS campuses (as well as instructor) are installed with Microsoft Office Software. You will need access to Microsoft Office Software and a PC or convert your MAC files to an accessible PC format; pdf and .rtf files are the most accessible file formats. Note: Due to Pandemic, campus offices are currently closed, therefore, refer to the following sites for available resources: <https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-tudents/communicable-diseases/resources-for-students/>
7. Review HCCS Eagle Online (Canvas) Tutorials & Resources for additional information about computer technology requirements.

Lab Requirements Disclaimer: Students can expect to incur the cost of their own art supplies, approximating $10.00 to $20.00 (more or less) over the course of the semester. Most supplies can be found at discount or department stores (Walmart, Target, Dollar General...). Examples of art supplies that may be necessary for this course: glue, scissors, tape, craft paper, poster board, markers, colored pencils, modeling clay, drawing pencils, water color set...supply list to be distributed prior to assignments. Note: In this short 5-week course the project is, instead, "digital".

Certain art forms contain chemicals that may be hazardous to one's health. It is strongly advised that if you are pregnant, have respiratory difficulties, sensitivity to chemicals or art media (such as acrylic or oil paint, charcoal, glue, clay, tape...) or have hand or wrist problems, you should not stay enrolled in this course. Enrollment in this course is up to your discretion. Note: In this short 5-week course the project is, instead, "digital".

Insurance Disclaimer: The Fine Arts Department at Central College strongly recommends that all HCCS students carry some form of medical insurance to cover illness and injury, both on and off campus. Information regarding low-cost health insurance for students is available in the Fine Arts office. Under Texas state statute, HCCS is immune to liability in the event of accident or injury.

Course Disclaimer: Due to the nature of course content, some controversial themes, as well as nudity, may be featured in this class. If you feel uncomfortable with the course subject matter, it's your responsibility to withdrawal from the course. Guests and/or children are not allowed in the online classroom environment unless approved by instructor.

If you are experiencing a serious issue that inhibits you from actively participating with this course, it's best to discuss your situation with the Dean of the Humanities Department. Dependent upon circumstances, you might be able to obtain either a "W" or Incomplete in the course – but be aware that there are strict rules concerning this chosen course of action, often requiring official documentation and approval by the Dean.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to be familiar with the College's Policy on Academic Honesty, found in the catalog and student handbook. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College System officials against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty. "Scholastic dishonesty" includes, but is not limited to: cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating on a test includes:

- Copying from another student's test paper;
- Using materials during a test that are not authorized by the person giving the test;
- Collaborating with another student during a test without authority;
- Knowingly using, buying, selling, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of a test that has not been administered;
- Bribing another person to obtain a test that is to be administered.

Plagiarism means the appropriation of another's work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one's own written work offered for credit. Collusion means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.

Violations: Possible punishments for academic dishonesty may include a grade of "0" or "F" on the assignment, failure in the course, and/or recommendation for probation or dismissal from the College System. A recommendation for suspension or expulsion will be referred to the College Dean of Student Development for disciplinary disposition.

Attendance Procedures

Log in a minimum of two times, per week. I highly suggest doing so at the beginning of the week in order to review Course Announcements, as well as course Module content – including assignment, quiz, and discussion forum directions. This way, if you have a question about the material or expectations, you'll have ample time to contact your instructor for clarification if necessary – prior to schedule due dates/times.

Although it's your responsibility to drop a course for non-attendance, the instructor has the authority to drop you for excessive lengths of time without attendance and/or participation and/or missing quizzes, assignments, activities, or discussion forums. Any student who does not complete the "Start Here Quiz" (featured within the course & due prior to the end of the first week of the term) will automatically be withdrawn from the course. Any student who is not actively pursuing the course, and/or doesn't submit assignments by scheduled due date/times, and/or doesn't complete assignments in their entirety, and/or doesn't submit assignments within appropriately designated drop boxes, and/or doesn't participate with discussion forums can be withdrawn from, receive a low grade, or fail the course.

Student Conduct

Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. This includes maintaining a professional demeanor while communicating and working with both your fellow students and instructor – on all assignments, discussions, and correspondence. Students are expected to adhere to Netiquette, Academic Writing, and Research guidelines featured in this Eagle Online version of the course - for all assignments and correspondence with instructor, as well as peers enrolled in the course. Failure to maintain a professional demeanor can result in receiving zero points on an assignment or withdrawal from the course.

Electronic Devices and Legal Policy

All materials located within this HCCS DE Online Course are subject to copyright and trademark laws. All HCCS online course contents are permanently recorded, archived for future reference by instructor and/or HCCS Administration, and remain the legal property of HCCS and the instructor of the course. Any student who intentionally or unintentionally copies, distributes, posts, plagiarizes, trades, publishes or sells any course material (including electronically or digitally), will be withdrawn from and/or fail the course, and can be formally prosecuted in a court of law.

EGLS³

The EGLS³ (Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System) will be available for most courses near the end of the term until finals start. This brief survey will give invaluable information to your faculty about their teaching. Results are anonymous and will be available to faculty and division chairs after the end of the term. EGLS³ surveys are available for the Fall and Spring semesters. EGLS³ surveys might not be offered during the Summer semester due to logistical constraints. <http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/egls3-evaluate-your-professors/>
