Writing Workshop Guide

1. One group member reads his/her essay out loud to the rest of the group.
2. The group listens, making no comments. Make a few initial notes on your first reactions.
3. Once he/she is finished, the essay is read aloud a second time.
4. Group members jot notes, phrases, ideas, and comments down. These comments should revolve around what is good (+), what is not so great (-), and what needs clarification (?).
5. After the second read, each group member should share comments with the reader.
6. The reader should take notes based on the comments. These notes will be your guide to revising for the final draft.
