What's Exciting About This Course

The Department of English helps students find and develop their authentic voices, establish political power, and create social capital. We teach critical thinking, close reading, and analysis. We coach students on the rhetoric of messaging with consideration of purpose and audience. We support them as they craft their own narratives. We turn thoughts into words, ideas into interpretations, ambiguity into translation, and silence into voice.

My Personal Welcome

Welcome to English 1301. I look forward to getting to know you this semester and to working with you to improve your writing and reading skills. I hope you enjoy the course and find it intellectually stimulating.

Preferred Method of Contact

Please contact me with questions or concerns via email at james.langston@hccs.edu or at Canvas Inbox. I will respond to emails within 24 hours Monday through Friday; I will reply to weekend messages on Monday mornings. You can leave voicemail on my office phone, but I only check that twice a week when I am in my office. By far, the best way to reach me is via email.

The English Department Administrative assistant can be reached at aaron.henry@hccs.edu or 713 718-7597

- Facilitate an effective learning environment through class activities, discussions, and lectures
- Provide a description of any assignments
- Inform students of policies

Program-Specific Student Success Information

As with any three-hour course, expect to spend at least six hours per week outside of class reading and studying the material. I will provide assignments to help you use those six hours per week wisely. Additional time will be required for written assignments. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of reading the textbook, attending class, completing assignments in Eagle Online, and participating in class discussions. There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as your guide.

Incomplete Policy

In order to receive a grade of Incomplete ("I"), a student must have completed at least 85% of the work in the course. In all cases, the instructor reserves the right to decline a student's request to receive a grade of Incomplete.

Missed Assignments/Make-Up Policy

Exams are open for multiple days, allowing plenty of time to complete them. There are no make-ups for missed exams. If you have a connectivity problem, it is your responsibility to find a place to complete the exam. HCC has computers with Internet available for student use. Other assignments are generally open for a few days after the deadline, and late work will still be accepted. Please attempt to get work in on time.

Academic Integrity

Here's the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance):

<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>
(<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>)

In this course, the first violation of academic integrity, including but not limited to collusion and plagiarism, will result in a 0 for the assignment. The second violation will result in an F for the course and a referral to the appropriate Dean of Student Services. All violations of academic integrity are recorded in the HCC Early Alert system (Maxient). There is a definition of plagiarism provided in the course shell that is required reading, and all students are accountable for knowing the definition of plagiarism and the plagiarism policy. Essays will be submitted to Turnitin for plagiarism scores. You may not use work you wrote for other classes.

Attendance Procedures

HCC policy states that a student may not miss more than 12.5% of class, or four class sessions. Students must also actively participate. Description of "active participation": Turning in assigned work. Essentially, if you miss more than four assignments, you will be dropped.

Before withdrawing from the course, it is important to communicate with your professor and counselors to discuss your options for succeeding in the course. If all other options have been exhausted, you may withdraw yourself, but the last date to withdraw this semester is October 29, 2021. Please remember that it is the student's responsibility to withdraw from a course. If you stop attending the class and don't withdraw by this date, you are subject to the FX grading policy.

Student Conduct

Our shared responsibility is to develop and maintain a positive learning environment for everyone. I take this responsibility seriously and will inform members of the class if their behavior makes it difficult for me to carry out this task. As a fellow learner, you are asked to respect the learning needs of your classmates and to help me achieve this critical goal.

You will be engaging with your peers in the discussion forums. You might encounter ideas that are different from yours. I expect you to be courteous and respectful to your peers at all times. Failure to do so will result in a referral to the appropriate Dean of Student Services and possible dismissal from the course.

Instructor's Course-Specific Information

Grades and feedback will always be available to students before their next assignment is due. Forums are generally graded the day they are due.

Devices

Please put your phones on silence or vibrate and put them away during class. If you have to take a call for an emergency, please do so in the hall. You may have a laptop on for taking notes or for accessing our Canvas shell, but do not surf the Internet during class.

Faculty-Specific Information Regarding Canvas

This course section will use Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu> (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>)) to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities.

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. For best performance, Canvas should be used on the current or first previous major release of Chrome, Firefox, Edge, or Safari. Because it's built using web standards, Canvas runs on Windows, Mac, Linux, iOS, Android, or any other device with a modern web browser.

Canvas only requires an operating system that can run the latest compatible web browsers. Your computer operating system should be kept up to date with the latest recommended security updates and upgrades.

Faculty Statement about Student Success

To give yourself the best chance of success, please carefully review all instructions. If you have questions, please ask. Much of the instruction is given in class, so class participation matters. Try not to wait until the last minute to write your essays. Use the HCC Tutors at Upswing for help on your essays as well.

Social Justice Statement

Houston Community College is committed to furthering the cause of social justice in our community and beyond. HCC does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity and expression, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status. I fully support that commitment and, as such, will work to maintain a positive learning environment based upon open communication, mutual respect, and non-discrimination. In this course, we share in the creation and maintenance of a positive and safe learning environment. Part of this process includes acknowledging and embracing the differences among us in order to establish and reinforce that each one of us matters. I appreciate your suggestions about how to best maintain this environment of respect. If you experience any type of discrimination, please contact me and/or the Office of Institutional Equity at 713-718-8271.
