

Janet Moseley Sanders

Objective

An instructional position in higher education related to improving student achievement, knowledge, and understanding in science.

Experience

Present University of Phoenix Online/Ground UOP
Online/Ground Instructor
Taught Life Science classes

Present Various Campuses Houston Community College
Adjunct Biology Instructor
Taught General Biology and Anatomy and Physiology classes
Submitted several course objectives for biology used to form standards

Jack Yates High School Houston ISD
Science Teacher
Taught classes in biology, AP Biology, IPC, and chemistry
Wrote curriculum for biology classes in the Master Teacher Academy

M. C. Williams Middle School Houston ISD

Principal
Directed and managed the instructional program
Coordinated the supervision and evaluation of building personnel
Prepared district, state, and federal reports
Directed the implementation of district policies
Managed the operation of campus activities

FM Black Middle School Houston ISD

Dean of Instruction/Interim Principal
Coordinated the acquisition of instructional material
Planned staff development programs
Coordinated the analysis of available test data and develops action plans
Coordinated the development of the School Improvement Plan
Implemented Goal Night, Active Parenting Classes, and College Planning Day
Wrote the "Texas After-School Initiative for Middle School Grant" for our school
Co-authored the "Improving Teaching and Learning Grant" for our school
Established a math and reading computer lab
Solicited and received over $100,000 from a business partner

Provided individual assistance for teachers
 Developed plans for summer school and tutorials
 Coordinated master scheduling
 Provided direction and support for substitute teacher
 Conferred with students and parents on problems of underachievement
 Provided ongoing assistance with classroom management and lesson plans
 Provided assistance with varied instructional strategies
 Implemented the overall plan of the school to maintain discipline
 Completed Model-netics
 Completed the Principal's Academy (Houston ISD)
 Participated in the Principal's Institute II (Texas A & M University)
 Participated in Conflict Resolution Training
 Completed SASI Computer Training
 Completed SASI Scheduling Computer Training
 Completed SAP Training
 Completed People Soft Training

Sharpstown High School Houston ISD
 Science Teacher
 Taught biology and physical science classes
 Selected Teacher of the Year
 Selected as one of ten finalists in HISD's Teacher of the Year Competition
 Presented several workshops for teachers
 Assigned to Career Ladder III
 Selected to Serve on the Task Force for Educational Excellence for HISD

Education	Texas Southern University	Houston, Texas
	B.A., Biology M.S., Biology Mid-Management Certification Member of the Houston Honor's Program Member of Beta Beta Beta Biological Honor Society Received the Nation Science Foundation Grant Posted in Who's Who among American College Students
	University of California Los Angles, California Awarded the Crown Zellerbach Scholarship Exchange Student
Professional Organizations	Science Teachers Association of Texas (STAT), Texas Association of Biology Teachers

