

JASON GREAVES

Houston ISD Teacher (CTE welding)

PROFILE

Houston ISD teacher at Madison Highschool and Adjunct welding Instructor at HCC. Self-motivated, goal orientated. Over 20,000 documented hours and over 20years welding experience, along with a passion for continuing education

CONTACT

PHONE:
832-305-6548

EMAIL:
Jason.greaves @hccs.org

HOBBIES

Golf
Billiards
Gym

SUMMARY

Experienced professional welder and Instructor with strong leadership and relation-building skills. Currently the lead welding Instructor for Madison Highschool and Adjunct welding Instructor at HCC. Self-motivated, goal orientated. Over 20,000 documented hours and over 20years welding experience, along with a passion for continuing education. Proficient in FCAW, GMAW, SMAW, GTAW and OFW welding processes. 10+ years as Highschool welding Instructor. Experienced with welding inspection, destructive testing and non-destructive testing

HIGHLIGHTS

- Certified Welder
- NCCER Certified craft Instructor
- NCCER Certified Welding Inspector
- NCCER Cert. Welding educator
- Excellent with students
- Extensive knowledge of various training techniques
- Excellent interpersonal and coaching skills
- Extensive fabrication and Blueprint experience
- Texas Teaching Certification

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Welding

- Certified in GMAW, SMAW, and FCAW per AWS D1.1 3G and 4G positions
- Certified in GMAW, SMAW, GTAW and FCAW per AWS D1.3

Training

- Designed curriculum to help integrate students to welding classes and programs
- Trained in Metal Fabricating
- Extensive hands-on work experiences at multiple job sites utilizing all process of welding with various types of materials