Instructional Methods

RTVB 1321 is a required course for all Filmmaking majors. The class is comprised of a variety of instructional methods including lectures, class discussions, lab assignments, and hands-on demonstrations. As a student wanting to learn about the field of filmmaking, it is your responsibility to do the assigned readings, submit assignments, labs and projects in a timely fashion, study for exams, participate in classroom activities, and attend class.

Student Assignments

Students will be required to complete the following assignments during the semester:

Assigned Readings

Readings will be assigned for the weeks following quiz. It is important to read the textbook to reinforce what we talk about in class.

In-class Quizzes

Quizzes will be given at the beginning of class. These quizzes will include multiple choice, true/false, and short answer questions. They will cover material from all previous class periods and assigned reading.

Film Reviews

Students will view and evaluate 4 films of their choosing throughout the semester.

Midterm Exam

Multiple-choice questions covering class lectures and assigned readings. You will NOT need a Scantron card to complete the test.

Final Exam

Multiple-choice questions covering class lectures and assigned readings. You will NOT need a Scantron card to complete the test.

Extra Credit

Students have the opportunity for Extra Credit by turning in two additional film reviews. Each analysis can earn up to 5 grade points. Other extra credit opportunities at the instructor's discretion.

Student Group Projects

Working in small groups (3 – 6 students) the students will complete the following projects:

- Project 1 – Create a movie using the principles of coverage
- Project 2 – Create a short film with no dialogue
- Project 3 – Script and shoot a 3 - 5 minute short film using the 4 narrative basics

The student will be evaluated on the basis of production quality, participation and completion of required elements. The instructor will supply specific requirements for each scene and segment, as needed. Note: Professionalism is one of the criteria for each project and students turn in peer assessments. Your behavior on set and as part of a team will effect your overall grade!

Late Assignments & Absences

Assignments are due at the beginning of class.

If you are unable to be present in class on the date an assignment is due, you can always email me your assignment by 9:00am the day of class and I will count it as on time.

If you are unable to be present in class for a quiz, you can make-up the quiz the NEXT week by arriving at 8:45am to take the quiz.

If you are unable to turn in the assignment on time, 10 points will be deducted from the final grade of the assignment for each week that it is late. Projects that are granted extensions are exempt.

Instructional Materials

- VOICE & VISION: A CREATIVE APPROACH TO NARRATIVE FILM AND DV by Mick Hurbis-Cherrier (Focal Press, 07/2011) ISBN 978-0240811581 *required
- THE BARE BONES CAMERA COURSE FOR FILM AND VIDEO by Tom Schroepel *optional
- Digital media (SD cards) and other materials as needed for projects. (Please note that all final projects become the property of Houston Community College and will not be returned.)
- All lecture materials will be posted after the class on the Learning Web: <http://learning.hccs.edu/>

Equipment Use Orientation

The Filmmaking department requires that any student who wished to check out equipment (which you will need to pass this class) will need to take an equipment use orientation. Please ensure that you take part in one of the offered equipment use orientations.

Instructor Requirements

For each assignment, the instructions will define what the Instructor expects from the student in order to earn a "C" grade. This will give the student an idea of what the instructor considers the “average”. The instructor will give higher grades based on demonstration of knowledge and understanding and even higher grades based on innovation and creativity related to the topic. This class should showcase your enthusiasm and demonstrate your skills/knowledge and ability to perform in the workforce.

HCC Grading Scale

A = 100- 90	4 points per semester hour
B = 89 - 80:	3 points per semester hour
C = 79 - 70:	2 points per semester hour
D = 69 - 60:	1 point per semester hour
59 and below = F	0 points per semester hour
W (Withdrawn)	0 points per semester hour

I (Incomplete) 0 points per semester hour

*To compute grade point average (GPA), divide the total grade points by the total number of semester hours attempted. The grades "IP," "COM" and "I" do not affect GPA.

Grading Criteria

Your final grade will be based on the following proportions:

1. Attendance and Participation – 10%
2. Quizzes – 20%
3. Class Project 1: 10%
4. Class Project 2: 10%
5. Class Project 3: 20%
6. Film Reviews: 10%
7. Midterm Exam – 10%
8. Final Exam – 10%

- Student Attendance
- 3-peaters
- Withdrawal deadline = October 28, 2016

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 requires that institutions have policies and procedures that protect students' rights with regard to sex/gender discrimination. Information regarding these rights is on the HCC Website under Students-Anti-discrimination. Students who are pregnant and require accommodations should contact any of the ADA Counselors for assistance. It is important that every student understands and conforms to respectful behavior while at HCC. Sexual misconduct is not condoned and will be addressed promptly. Know your rights and how to avoid these difficult situations.

Access HCC Online Policies on their Web site

All students are responsible for reading and understanding the HCC Online Student Handbook, which contains policies, information about conduct, and other important information. For the HCC Online Student Handbook click on the link below or go to the HCC Online page on the HCC website.

The HCC Online Student Handbook contains policies and procedures unique to the DE student. Students should have reviewed the handbook as part of the mandatory orientation. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the handbook's contents. The handbook contains valuable information, answers, and resources, such as HCC Online contacts, policies and procedures (how to drop, attendance requirements, etc.), student services (ADA, financial aid, degree planning, etc.), course information, testing procedures, technical support, and academic calendars. Refer to the HCC Online Student Handbook by visiting this link:
