

Joella Robinson Curriculum Vitae

Name: Joella Robinson

Office Telephone Number: Home Office Phone 281-580-6182

College Email joella.robinson@hccs.edu

Education

- Bachelor of Arts in Teaching in History and Geography, Sam Houston State University. 1989
- Lifetime Texas Certification in Secondary Education in History and Geography 1989
- Faculty Fellow Sam Houston State University History Department
- Master of Arts in History with 18-hour Geography Minor 1991
- Additional 12 Graduate Hours in Educational Technology Sam Houston State University

Teaching Experience

- Instructor, 1991 – Present
Houston Community College District
Courses: American History 1301, American History 1302, Texas History, Physical Geography, World Regional Geography, Fundamentals of Geography. Lecturer and Distance Education Instruction.

University of St. Thomas 2015 - 2020

Courses: World Regional Geography, Lecturer and Distance Education Instruction.

Adjunct Teaching Assignments – Lone Star College, American History 1301, American History 1302, Fundamentals of Geography, and World Regional Geography.

Professional Achievements and Publications

- Geography Discipline Chair for Houston Community College System.
- Participation in the Virtual College of Texas.
- Editor of four American History readers

“The Special Covenant”, Volumes 1 & 2

“What’s Past is Prologue”, Volumes 1 & 2

- Travel Fellowships to SE Asia and China via The World Affairs Council
- Specialization in online course development and educational technology.
- Conducts Seminars and Webinars on online instruction.