

John F. Templeton

SUMMARY

Accounting Instructor with over 15 years teaching experience in private and public teaching environments.

EDUCATION

Master of Business Administration; Finance concentration; 1985
Bachelor of Arts; Journalism concentration; 1973
University of Houston

Accounting coursework; 18 graduate hours

CERTIFICATES/

Outstanding Accounting Educator of the Year Award, TSCPA, 2010
Stan and Margaret Voelkel Education Award, TSCPA Houston, 2009
SW Education and Leadership Award, Houston Community College, 2008
Basic/Advanced Certificates in Technology, Houston Community College, 2006
Nominated Teacher of the Year, West Houston Chamber of Commerce, 2006
NISOD, University of Texas, 2003
Certified Public Accountant, 1998
Certificate of General Insurance: 1977; Insurance Institute of America

EXPERIENCE

Houston Community College/Bradford School

Instructor (Fall, 1992 to present)

Full-time load lecturing/online distance education in introduction, financial, managerial, intermediate, cooperative education, Peachtree/Quickbooks.

Austin Community College

Instructor (Summer, 2006 to Summer, 2007)

Financial (2301) and Managerial (2302) at Northridge, Pinnacle and Riverside Campuses.

Pogo Producing Company (Pennzoil Spin-off)

Assistant Treasurer (Oct, 1981 to June, 1991)

Managed investor relations, corporate risk and insurance management, joint venture credit and cash management areas.

Pennzoil Company

Risk Manager (Oct, 1974 to Oct, 1981)

Managed corporate self insurance and liability/marine insurance program.

ACTIVITIES

Student Auxiliary, Houston Chapter, TSCPA.

CPAs Helping Schools Committee, Houston Chapter, TSCPA.