PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am an IT professional with experience working in the Integrated Supply and Trading (IST) business segment. I have designed and delivered solutions for the various commodity trading markets. During these roles I have gained valuable experience working closely with highly technical people and business subject matter experts. For each set of stakeholders, I have engaged in stakeholder management, and successfully translated business requirements to technical concepts used to create high value solutions for business and IT users (IT4IT). I continue to set myself apart by embodying excellence in my work, and by valuing team work. My exposure to large scale IT programs, smaller RAD projects, as well as working in agile teams has given me a variety of skills to thrive in different contexts. My goal is to focus on growth as an all-round skilled IT professional, while gaining and exerting expert knowledge in the field of business analysis, cyber security and enterprise architecture.
