

Curriculum Vitae

Julie Janzer

1970-1975

University of Maryland/ College Park and Baltimore
Bachelor of Science in Nursing

1977-1978

Texas Woman's University/Houston Texas
Administrative Practicum- spatial and forecasting aspects of health planning. Advanced physical assessment

1979-1981

Catholic University/Washington, D.C.
Masters of Science in Nursing

1988-1990

University of Houston/Houston, Texas
Masters of Public Administration
Focus on health policy and budget/economic analysis
Have also completed 8 doctoral research hours in multivariate analysis/Time series. Assisted with development of questionnaires, statistical data collection and analysis of policy research projects.

1996-2020

Houston Community College- Instructor for government 2305/2306

Participating in interdepartmental meetings for best methods of presentation of curriculum.

Numerous workshops and seminars regarding student improvement strategies and community outreach.

Canvas instruction and numerous professional development seminars for online courses.