Student Learning Outcomes and Objectives

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs)

After completing the Intensive English program, the student will:

1. Produce an oral presentation exhibiting level-appropriate pronunciation and fluency
2. Demonstrate comprehension of a level-appropriate listening passage.
3. Transform simple sentences into complex ones using a variety of grammatical structures appropriate to the level
4. Compose a composition that is appropriate to the level in terms of fluency, organization, and grammatical accuracy;
5. Read and summarize a level-appropriate text.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs)

After completing ESOL 0356, Advanced Conversation students should be able to:

1. Produce spoken discourse which is accurate enough to be comprehended with effort by those unaccustomed to interacting with non-native English speakers.
2. Demonstrate ease in participating in paired, small group, and large group discussions on a variety of topics.
3. Make three to four presentations involving a variety of visual resources on researched topics commonly found in academic or workforce settings.
4. Demonstrate the ability to take notes of key points of a spoken lecture.
5. Summarize a written or oral text on an academic topic

Learning Objectives

Students will:

- 1.1 Produce spoken discourse with few errors in pronouncing the English sounds;
- 1.2 Produce sentences with accurate stress and intonation patterns.
- 2.1 Discuss a variety of academic or workforce topics in pairs, small groups, and large groups, including in response to recorded academic lectures;
- 2.2 Participate in classroom panel discussions or debates regarding academic topics.

- 3.1 Select a topic of interest to the student and the class and research the topic from different sources;
 - 3.2 Organize a presentation of 5-7 minutes on that topic;
 - 3.3 Combine a variety of audio and visual resources to supplement the presentation;
 - 3.4 Deliver the presentation to the class, and answer questions that may arise.
- 4.1 Outline the content of an academic presentation or lecture.
 - 4.2 Utilize notes to participate in discussions or complete a variety of tasks relevant to academic or workplace contexts.
- 5.1 Explain the main ideas and important details of written or oral texts, using notes taken as the source of information.

Departmental Practices and Procedures

Department Specific Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class in person and/or online
- Participate actively by reviewing course material, interacting with classmates, and responding promptly in your communication with me
- Read and comprehend the textbook
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Attain a raw score of at least 50% on the departmental final exam

Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook

Program-Specific Student Success Information : Student Success

Expect to spend at least twice as many hours per week outside of class as you do in class studying the course content. Additional time will be required for written assignments. The assignments provided will help you use your study hours wisely. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Reading the textbook
- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.

Attendance Procedures

Class starts at the specified time. If you are not present when class starts, you are considered late or absent if you arrive more than 15 minutes late to class. Three tardies will be counted as one absence. If you are absent from more than 4 classes, you may be dropped for poor attendance.

Devices

All cellphones and electronic devices should be turned off in class.

Faculty-Specific Information Regarding Canvas

This course section will use Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu> (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>)) to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities.

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. For best performance, Canvas should be used on the current or first previous major release of Chrome, Firefox, Edge, or Safari. Because it's built using web standards, Canvas runs on Windows, Mac, Linux, iOS, Android, or any other device with a modern web browser.

Canvas only requires an operating system that can run the latest compatible web browsers. Your computer operating system should be kept up to date with the latest recommended security updates and upgrades.

Sensitive or Mature Course Content

In this college-level course, we may occasionally discuss sensitive or mature content. All members of the classroom environment, from your instructor to your fellow students, are expected to handle potentially controversial subjects with respect and consideration for one another's varied experiences and values.

EGLS3

The EGLS³ (Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System (<https://www.hccs.edu/egls3>)) will be available for most courses near the end of the term until finals start. This brief survey will give invaluable information to your faculty about their teaching. Results are anonymous and will be available to faculty and division chairs after the end of the term. EGLS³ surveys are only available for the Fall and Spring semesters. -EGLS3 surveys are not offered during the Summer semester due to logistical constraints.

Housing and Food Assistance for Students

Any student who faces challenges securing their foods or housing and believes this may affect their performance in the course is urged to contact the Dean of Students at their college for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so.

This will enable HCC to provide any resources that HCC may possess.

Student Resources

Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment and on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services (<https://www.hccs.edu/tutoring>) website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <https://library.hccs.edu> (<https://library.hccs.edu/>).

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <https://www.hccs.edu/supplemental-instruction> (<https://www.hccs.edu/supplemental-instruction>)
