

Lakeitha Shana Wilson, MA English
English and Humanities
lakeitha.wilson@hccs.edu

EDUCATION

PhD (ABD) in Humanities with a concentration in English, Clark Atlanta University
MA in English, Clark Atlanta University May 2011
BA in English and History, University of Memphis August 2005

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Adjunct Instructor

English Department, Clark Atlanta University

Developmental Writing, College Composition I and II 2011-2016

- Planned and taught face-to-face, hybrid, and online writing courses.
- Developed writing assignments focused on current issues.

Advanced Grammar and Composition

- Used sentence diagramming to help students better understand grammar skills.

Humanities Department, Clark Atlanta University

Early Period to 1914 2013-2014

- Taught comparative analysis to discuss similarities between creation stories.

English Department, Georgia Piedmont Technical College

Remedial Reading, Business English, and College Composition 2011

- Applied a common core syllabus administered by the department.
- Integrated online learning resources to allow students opportunities to practice and test their reading and writing skills.

UNIVERSITY SERVICE

Coordinating Group Member

2011-2013

Writing Center, Clark Atlanta University

- Planned and facilitated weekly grammar and writing workshops for undergraduate students.

Coordinating Group Leader

2015-2016

Department of English, Clark Atlanta University

- Organized and led Cengage training sessions for new composition and literature teachers.

MEMBERSHIPS

Sigma Tau Delta
Phi Kappa Phi