

Luis Ospina

1900 Pressler Street, Ste 520 Houston, TX 77030
713-718-7350| luis.ospina@hccs.edu

Education

Specialist in Advanced Education in General Dentistry (I&II/Special Needs Dentistry),
NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY, Fort Lauderdale, FL, 2011
Doctor of Dental Surgery, SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY,
UNIVERSIDAD DEL VALLE, Colombia, 1996

Experience

Provided comprehensive dental care to adults and special needs patients, including dental treatment in hospital settings in Miami and Fort Lauderdale.
Delivered general dentistry treatments to adults and children for HMO beneficiaries.
Participated in outreach community programs as a health educator at Nova Southeastern University mentoring and coaching health advocates at public health centers in South Florida.
Taught didactics and supervised clinical activities of dental students on restorative dentistry and removable partial dentures.
Trained senior pre-doctoral students in the area of special needs dentistry.

Skills

Dental College Professor for the areas of clinic management, didactics, and clinical training
Experienced in the implementation of lesson plans, assessment of class performance, and hands-on training in dental programs
Bilingual in English and Spanish.

Publications and Presentations

Dental Management of Patients Who Have Epilepsy
2010, Resident Rounds at Nova Southeastern University
Mandibular Two-Implant Retained Overdentures
2009, Nova Southeastern University

Professional Associations

Academy of General Dentistry

Licenses and certifications

Dentist License Number 36865 State of Texas
Advanced Education in General dentistry Specialist. Nova Southeastern University, FL
Certified Dental Assistant. Certification Number 254479, Dental Assisting National Board
Texas Registered Dental Assistant. Registration Number 106121