

Myrtle Dillon-Rogers

Creative, resourceful with 37 successful years teaching Mathematics high school and college courses with proven ability to enhance and encourage higher-order students' performance. Possess skills in technology, positive and effective teaching styles. I believe that every student can learn and teach because I care!

5223 W. Harrow Dr
Houston, Texas 77084
(713) 542-1092
rogersglenn@att.net

EXPERIENCE

Cypress Fairbanks ISD, Houston — Mathematics Teacher

Aug 1992 - Dec 2016 Retired ---Returned as a Substitute Jan 2017

Alg. I, Tech Alg., Math Model, Algebraic Reasoning and Alg. I intervention

HCCS, Houston — Adjust Developmental Math Instructor

Aug 2000 - Dec 2016 Retired --- Returned Jan 2017

Intermediate Alg., Introductory to Alg., and Basic Math
Math 0314, 0310, 0309, and 0106

HISD, Houston — Mathematics Teacher

Aug 1983 - May 1992

Algebra I, Computer Programming, Computer aid instruction, Business Math, and Geometry

Texas Southern, Houston — Adjust Math Instructor

Aug 1989 - 1990

College Algebra and Basic Alg.

Other, Louisiana - Math teacher for Orleans Parish 1980-82, Instructor at Southern Univ. A & M in Baton Rouge, Tester at Xavier Univ

EDUCATION

Southern University in New Orleans, Louisiana — BS

Jan 1977 - May 1980

Southern University A & M in Baton Rouge, Louisiana — MED in Secondary Mathematic

Jan 1980 - July 1985

Riverdale High School, Louisiana — Diploma

Sept 197 - May 1977

SKILLS

Prepared lesson plans

Team Leader

Create technology driven lessons

Intervention teacher for high risk students

Discipline, motivate, lecture, discuss and evaluate students