

MARK W. TENGLER, M.S.

Email: mark.tengler@hccs.edu
832-526-2291 cell

Director Instructional Quality
Adjunct Professor Psychology

Summary

Over twenty-five years' experience in all facets of teaching, counseling, advising, administration, and testing, in educational development settings such as private practice, industry, community college, and university. Analyzed and developed a wide variety of creative approaches with excellent results.

Education and Certifications

National Certified Counselor (N.C.C.), 1993.

University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wisconsin
M.S. Educational Psychology & Counseling, 1979.

University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, Wisconsin
B.A. Western Culture, Philosophy, & Anthropology, 1978.

Academic Overview

Graduate Psychology Courses Completed

Statistical Methods
Essentials of Counseling
Psychological Counseling & Issues
Psychological Counseling, Poverty, & Urban Culture
Fieldwork in Psychological Counseling
Psychological Testing & Measurement
Foundations of Career Development
Human Lifespan Development
Counseling the Family
Advanced Independent Study--Abnormal Psychology

Total graduate hours completed in Psychology = 30 sem. hours

Undergraduate Psychology Courses Completed

Introduction to Psychology

Psychology of Adolescence

Total undergraduate hours completed in Psychology = 6 sem. hours

Undergraduate courses in Related Areas to Psychology

Introduction to Prehistoric Man (Anthropology)

Human Evolution (Anthropology)

Post-Pleistocene Pre-History (Anthropology)

Peoples of the Middle East (Anthropology)

Introduction to Philosophy

God and the Problem of Evil (Philosophy)

Anti-Semitism and Fascism (German)

Egyptian Mythology (Classics)

American Thought & Culture Since 1860 (History)

Religion in American Life (History)

Total undergraduate hours completed in related areas to Psychology = 30 sem. hours

Academic Awards

Dean's List, every semester of undergraduate & graduate work

Professional Teaching Experience

1998-present

Houston Community College System

Behavioral Statistics, Undergraduate PSYC 2317

1992-2016

University of Houston--Clear Lake

Life/Work Planning, Graduate PSYC 5335/FUTR 5234

Behavioral Statistics, Undergraduate PSYC 4730

Research Design, Undergraduate PSYC 4731

Child Psychology, Undergraduate PSYC 4134

Psychological Testing and Measurement, PSYC 4133

Vocational Psychology (World of Work), PSYC 3335

1998-2004

Houston Baptist University

Behavioral Statistics, Undergraduate PSYC 2301

Abnormal Psychology, Undergraduate PSYC 2364

Research Methods, Undergraduate PSYC 3303

Experimental Psychology, Undergraduate PSYC 3343

Mark W. Tengler, continued

- 1989-1993 Developed and taught development programs for college students, community organizations, and special interest groups in both profit and non-profit settings, including Developmental Growth, Career Directions, Wellness, Stress Management, Study Skills, Time Management, and Learning Styles.
- Developed a system of identifying and tracking at-risk students with interventions to facilitate student retention and academic progress.
- 1980-1989 Regularly taught several groups of community members in peer counseling techniques and crisis intervention, in addition to an extensive private practice involving teaching and training clients in all facets of life skills. Frequent community speaker on various popular psychological and spiritual topics.

Work History

- 1993-present Houston Community College System
Director Instructional Quality, Office of the Vice Chancellor Instruction
- 1992-2016 University of Houston - Clear Lake
Undergraduate and Graduate Adjunct Psychology Faculty
- 2004-present Houston Community College System
Undergraduate Adjunct Psychology Faculty
- 1998-2004 Houston Baptist University
Undergraduate Adjunct Psychology Faculty
- 1989-1993 San Jacinto College South
Counselor, Program Coordinator
- 1988-1989 Self-Employed Counseling Practitioner
Private Practice Family, Marriage, & Individual Counselor
- 1985-1988 Christian Lifestyle Counseling, Inc.
Director/Administrator/Counselor
- 1979-1985 New Life Resources Counseling Agency
Counselor, Wellness Speaker