Course Objectives

History 1302 surveys American History from the end of Reconstruction to the present day. This class examines the political, social, economic, and cultural trends of the United States inside a larger global context. Students will rely on and enhance their critical thinking and analytical skills, be able to relate past and present events, and further develop their writing abilities.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLO's)

(what we will do in the class)

1. Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
2. Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
3. Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural and global forces on this period of United States history.
4. Understand the importance of chronology and how earlier ideas and events shaped later events

1302 Student Learning Objectives (SLO's)

(what you will learn in the class)

1. Explain the features of the Gilded Age and the issues on society, culture, and politics
2. Summarize Industrialism and Urbanization
3. Analyze the New South and Jim Crow
4. Explain Populism and Progressivism
5. Identify the causes and effects of WWI and the US
6. Discuss America between the wars
7. Identify the causes of WW2 and the Cold War
8. Discuss Post-war America at home
9. Discuss Post-modern America

Note: In accordance with HCC guidelines a student must have passed ENGL 1301 (Composition I) or be co-enrolled in ENGL 1301 to attend HIST 1301 or HIST 1302.

Course Structure

1. Classes will be held Tuesday and Thursday from 12:30pm until 1:50pm.
2. Attendance: While attendance is not mandatory, regular attendance will be taken. Arrive on time and stay until the class is finished. Please Note: There will be periodic discussions held concerning the readings. There is a grade associated with this discussion. Therefore, if you are absent on these days you will not receive credit.
3. Learning Web: All weblinks and supplements will be handled via Learning Web.

4. Reading Assignments: There will be periodic reading assignments. Usually, these will be due on Tuesdays. Most the readings will come from the Pearson eReader and the OpenStax textbook. There will be an in-class quiz over the readings on their due date.
5. Research Paper: Each student will be required to turn in one 5+ page paper (double spaced, 12point font, with citations) over a particular subject. The subject for the Fall 2017 semester is “Natural Disasters in US History.” The deadline for this paper will be Thursday, October 5th. While many students may wish to work individually, this can also be a group project. If up to four students wish to do a group project they will jointly give an in-class presentation. Individual scores will be given based on the quality of the work and the amount of work done by the individual to the project. If you wish to do a group project, please see the instructor before the end of September.
6. Exams Materials: Please bring a bluebook and a pen to the scheduled exam.

Grading

1. There will be a total of two exam scores: Exam I & Exam II. These are each worth 20% of your grade.
2. Your quiz score, coming from the assigned readings, make up another 20% of your final grade.
3. The research paper makes up another 20%.
4. There will also be two essays due in the class: Essay I and the Monograph Essay. These are each worth 20% of your grade.
5. The mathematically inclined will notice that equals 120%. At the end of the semester, the lowest score will be removed and the five highest will constitute the final average.

Grade Breakdown:

A= 100-90
B= 89-80
C= 79-70
D= 69-60 F=
59-0

Administrative Notes

1. Scholastic Dishonesty: Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion. These offenses are serious and are not taken lightly by the instructor or HCC. Punishment for scholastic dishonesty will be failure of the course, and that student's name will be forwarded to the administration office with a recommendation for dismissal from HCC. Please refer to the Student Handbook for additional information.
2. Services for Students with Disabilities: Any student with a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, psychiatric, vision, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the Disability Services Office at the respective college at the beginning of each semester. Faculty members are authorized to provide only the accommodations requested by the Disability Services Office. You can reach the Northwest College ADA Counselor at (713) 718-5708.

3. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. A§ 1681 ET. SEQ.

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 requires that institutions have policies and procedures that protect students' rights with regard to sex/gender discrimination. Information regarding these rights are on the HCC website under Students-Antidiscrimination. Students who are pregnant and require accommodations should contact any of the ADA Counselors for assistance.

It is important that every student understands and conforms to respectful behavior while at HCC. Sexual misconduct is not condoned and will be addressed promptly. Know your rights and how to avoid these difficult situations. Log in to: www.edurisksolutions.org . Sign in using your HCC student e-mail account, then go to the button at the top right that says Login and enter your student number.

4. Campus Carry

At HCC the safety of our students, staff, and faculty is our first priority. As of August 1, 2017, Houston Community College is subject to the Campus Carry Law (SB11 2015). For more information, visit the HCC Campus Carry web page at <http://www.hccs.edu/district/departments/police/campus-carry/>

Miscellaneous

1. Houston Community College (HCC) is an open-admission, public institution of higher education offering academic preparation, and lifelong learning opportunities that prepare individuals in our diverse communities for life and work in an increasingly international and technical society. The Northwest History Department will provide an environment conducive to learning and encourages academic excellence. Furthermore, the History faculty will encourage the development of the following competencies: Reading, Writing, Speaking, Listening, Critical Thinking, and Computer Literacy.

2. Notice: Students who repeat a course for a third time or more now will face significant tuition and fee increases at HCC and other Texas public colleges and universities. At HCC, the tuition increases for “three eaters” amounts to $150 for each 3-hour course and $200 for each 4-hour course ($50 per credit hour). Please ask your professor or counselor about opportunities for tutoring or other assistance before withdrawing from a course or if you are not receiving a passing grade.

3. Notice: New Houston Community College Course Withdrawal Policy: The Texas State Legislature recently passed legislation that imposes new penalties on students who drop courses excessively (see above). In 2007, the legislature passed a law limiting new students (those starting college in the Fall 2007) to no more than a total of six (6) course withdrawals throughout their academic career in obtaining a baccalaureate degree. Future penalties will be imposed on students who exceed this number. To help students avoid having to drop/withdraw from any class, HCC has instituted an Early Alert process by which your professor will “alert” you and HCC Student Services of the chance that a student might fail a class because of excessive absences and/or poor academic performance. Please visit with your professor, an HCC counselor, or HCC Online Student Services to learn about what, if any, HCC interventions might be offered to assist you-tutoring, child care, financial aid, job placement, etc.-- to stay in class and improve your academic performance.

Effective immediately, students must visit with a faculty advisor, a counselor, or Online Student Services in order to obtain a signature prior to withdrawing from a course and this must be done before the official withdrawal date. Individual HCC faculty members are no longer permitted to assign students a “W” once the official withdrawal date has passed. Please Note: This rule does not only apply to this course, but all course offered at HCC, including all campus-bound courses, Hybrid, and Distance Education courses.

4. HARVEY - I am revising the calendar for the Fall 2017 semester due to Hurricane Harvey. Harvey affected many students and their families throughout Houston. To facilitate these hardships we will have a very flexible class schedule. I am willing to do what I can to help each individual student while still keeping the rigors of the coursework intact. If you have a problem/concern, do not hesitate in contacting me! The sooner I know of a problem the better able I will be to work to fix it. Any student who faces challenges securing their food or housing and believes this may affect their performance in the course is urged to contact the Dean of Students for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so.
