Instructional Methods

Face to Face

Web-enhanced (49% or less)

A variety of instructional methods are used throughout the semester. Examples may include class discussions, lectures, readings, group projects, video/DVD, internet searches, and presentations.

As an instructor, I want my students to be successful. I feel that it is my responsibility to provide you with knowledge and opportunities for critical thinking and applications as appropriate.

As a student wanting to succeed at your academic and career endeavors, it is your responsibility to do the assigned readings, submit assignments on time, participate in discussion forums and other activities, attend class (face-to-face, and online portions), and enjoy this learning experience as you learn how to use tools for success.

Student Assignments

Assignments have been developed that will enhance your learning. You will be required to successfully complete these assignments. Please see page six for more information.

Student Assessment(s)

Knowledge checks are given in most of the online topics sections.(Student Success Lab) Knowledge checks are given in most of the online topics sections. In addition, a mid-term and final exam will be administered.

Instructor's Requirements

As your instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived.

- Facilitate an effective learning environment through class activities, discussions, and lectures or other forms of presenting materials.
- Provide the course outline and class calendar, which will include a description of any special projects or assignments.
- Arrange to meet with individual students before and after class as required.
- Inform students of policies, such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness and make up.

To be successful in this class, it is the student’s responsibility to:

- Attend class and participate in class discussions and activities.
- Read and comprehend the textbook.
- Complete the required assignments and exams:
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem.
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments.
- Complete the course with a passing score.

Program/Discipline Requirements: If applicable

You will be required to complete the Financial Literacy & Capabilities Survey, declare your major, populate your student planner with the appropriate courses, and meet with your assigned advisor during this course.

HCC Grading Scale

A = 100- 90	4 points per semester hour
B = 89 - 80:	3 points per semester hour
C = 79 - 70:	2 points per semester hour
D = 69 - 60:	1 point per semester hour
59 and below = F	0 points per semester hour
IP (In Progress)	0 points per semester hour
W(Withdrawn)	0 points per semester hour
I (Incomplete)	0 points per semester hour
AUD (Audit)	0 points per semester hour
FX(Failing due to non-attendance)	0 points per semester hour

IP (In Progress) is given only in certain developmental courses. The student must re-enroll to receive credit. COM (Completed) is given in non-credit and continuing education courses. To compute grade point average (GPA), divide the total grade points by the total number of semester hours attempted. The grades "IP," "COM" and "I" do not affect GPA.

EGLS3 – Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System

At Houston Community College, professors believe that thoughtful student feedback is necessary to improve teaching and learning. During a designated time, you will be asked to answer a short online survey of research-based questions related to instruction. The anonymous results of the survey will be made available to your professors and division chairs for continual improvement of instruction. Look for the survey as part of the Houston Community College Student System online near the end of the term.

HCC Policy Statement:Access Student Services Policies on their Web site:

<http://www.hccs.edu/district/about-us/policies/d-student-services/>

Attendance Policy: Although it is your responsibility to drop a course for non-attendance, the instructor has the authority to drop you for excessive absences. You may be dropped from a course after accumulating absences in excess of 12.5 percent of the total hours of instruction (lecture and lab) For a 3 credit-hour lecture class meeting 3 hours per week (48 hours of instruction), you can be dropped after 6 hours of absence. The 6 hours includes accumulated minutes for arriving late to class and leaving class early.

Distance Education and/or Continuing Education Policies

Access DE Policies on their Web site:

All students are responsible for reading and understanding the DE Student Handbook, which contains policies, information about conduct, and other important information. For the DE Student Handbook click on the link below or go to the DE page on the HCC website.

The Distance Education Student Handbook contains policies and procedures unique to the DE student. Students should have reviewed the handbook as part of the mandatory orientation. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the handbook's contents. The handbook contains valuable information, answers, and resources, such as DE contacts, policies and procedures (how to drop, attendance requirements, etc.), student services (ADA, financial aid, degree planning, etc.), course information, testing procedures, technical support, and academic calendars. Refer to the DE Student Handbook by visiting this link:

Advising

A Senior Advisor is connected to this class section and will meet with the class within the first two weeks of class. The Sr. Advisor will review the advising syllabus and the ways in which you can communicate with them. Students are required to meet with their advisor at least twice within the semester. Participation in these advising sessions is required and will be a part of the grade in this success class.

Discrimination

Students should be aware that discrimination and/or other harassment based on race, sex, gender identity and gender expression, national origin, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, color or veteran status is prohibited by HCC Policy G.1 Discrimination and Harassment and D.1.1 Equal Educational Opportunities. Any student who feels they have been discriminated against or harassed on the basis of race, sex, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, color or veteran status including sexual harassment, has the opportunity to seek informal or formal resolution of the matter. All complaints/concerns should be directed to the Office of Institutional Equity, 713 718-8271 or oiie@hccs.edu. Additional information may be obtained online. Visit

<http://www.hccs.edu/district/departments/institutionalequity/>

Complaints involving sexual misconduct to include but not limited to: sexual assault, stalking, dating violence, sexual harassment or domestic violence should be directed to the HCC Title IX Coordinator, Renée Mack at 713 718-8272 or renee.mack@hccs.edu

TITLE IX OF THE EDUCATION AMENDMENTS OF 1972, 20 U.S.C. A§ 1681 ET. SEQ. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 requires that institutions have policies and procedures that protect students' rights with regard to sex/gender discrimination. Information regarding these rights are on the HCC website under Students-Anti-discrimination. Students who are pregnant and require accommodations should contact any of the ADA

Counselors for assistance. It is important that every student understands and conforms to respectful behavior while at HCC. Sexual misconduct is not condoned and will be addressed promptly. Know your rights and how to avoid these difficult situations. Log in to: www.edurisksolutions.org. Sign in using your HCC student e-mail account, then go to the button at the top right that says Login and enter your student number.

HCC is committed to providing a learning and working environment that is free from discrimination on the basis of sex which includes all forms of sexual misconduct. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 requires that when a complaint is filed, a prompt and thorough investigation is initiated. Complaints may be filed with the HCC Title IX Coordinator available at 713 718-8271 or email at oie@hccs.edu.
