

NANCY M. HARRELL

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

Bachelor of Science in Education, December 1981

Majors:

Elementary Education

Special Education

Texas Teaching Certification:

Physical Education

Mental Retardation

Physically Handicapped

EXPERIENCE

Katy Independent School District

Adapted Physical Education Teacher 2006-Present

- Collaborate with PE teachers on strategies for individual student success
- Supply specialized equipment for special needs students in general physical education classes
- Team teaching within large general physical education classes across the district
- Task analysis of gross motor skills for the purpose of diversified teaching
- Provide general education PE teachers and campus staff with suggested accommodations and modifications to ensure all students' success
- Administer assessments used to gather data to develop and implement Individualized Education Plans (IEP)
- Record data for students' progress reports/report cards
- Keep service logs for adapted physical education students
- Attend and report in Admission/Review/Dismissal meetings
- Train and collaborate with paraprofessionals in PE setting
- Maintain campus behavioral expectations within PE setting

Hazel S. Pattison Elementary School

- Special Education Resource-Intermediate (2004-2006)

Houston Community College

- Northwest College-Katy Campus (1997-Present)
- Adjunct Professor of Integrated Reading and Writing-College Readiness 0410, 0420
- Develop student centered course curriculum, syllabus, tests based on required college textbook, and manage computer lab component of the course
- Establish a rapport and teach traditional and non-traditional students alike
- Differentiate instruction based on the needs of the students and/or class
- Meet departmental deadlines, attend meetings and on-line trainings

REFERENCES

Furnished upon request

