Office hours: Monday – Thursday, by appointment

Course Description:

Introduction to the study of ideas and their logical structure, including arguments and investigations about abstract and real phenomena. Includes introduction to the history, theories, and methods of reasoning (Texas ACGM). A general introduction to critical and reflective thinking that emphasizes the philosophy of knowledge across the curriculum. Prepares students for postgraduate testing, such as the Graduate Record Examination analytical writing section or the Law School Admissions Test.

Fulfills – unless otherwise noted – the HCC CORE Humanities Area credit. May fulfill Ethics requirement for various academic and professional four-year college majors and Philosophy AA-degree Plan. Students who are in doubt about their enrollment in this course should immediately see an HCC academic counselor who can review his or her AA-degree plan.

Course Goals:

While incorporating the general aims and purposes of Introduction to Philosophy, this course will provide a general introduction to logic, correct reasoning, and critical thinking, with a focus on the philosophy of religion, philosophy of mind, the metaphysical problem of free will, and the foundations of morality. The context of this inquiry is derived from the perspective of logic's practical applications in everyday language and problem solving.

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Recall and Identify the major thinkers, schools of knowledge, core philosophical questions, terms and concepts found in the history of ideas cross-culturally construed, from ancient times to the contemporary world.
2. Interpret and Explain core questions of knowing and concepts of human understanding in terms that illustrate a comprehensive grasp of each.
3. Apply core questions of knowing and concepts of human understanding to contemporary issues and personal experience.
4. Compare and Contrast related core questions of knowing and concepts of human understanding, and the correlative thinkers and schools with which they are commonly associated.
5. Justify a sound philosophical position on a topic, or topics of contemporary interest in the philosophy of knowledge that Integrates and Logically Demonstrates a Synthesis in thought.

Learning Objectives:

- 1.1 Acquire a broad familiarity with the names of major thinkers, the schools of knowledge they represent, geographic location, and historical periods.
- 1.2 Learn historically significant questions of knowing, definitions of special terms, the rules of logic, fallacies, correct reasoning, and critical thinking.
 - 2.1 Cultivate comprehension of the rules of definition, deductive and inductive inferences, language analysis, and scientific inquiry.
 - 2.2 Distinguish various approaches to interpretation, including conceptual analysis, testing for validity, and determining if sound or not sound.
- 3.1 Articulate the relevance of philosophical questioning and critical thinking to everyday life.
- 3.2 Consider how philosophy may or may not apply to differing ways of human understanding and cultural influences.
- 4.1 Inventory, Summarize, and Assess correlative questions, concepts, and schools of thought found in the philosophy of knowledge.
- 5.1 Create and cultivate alternative philosophical positions on presented course content.
 - 5.2 Develop coherent arguments for chosen positions, bringing to bear the rules of logic, written expression and disciplined thinking.
 - 5.3 Critique chosen positions and adequately Defend against possible objections, both theoretical and applied.

Grading Components and Weights:

Assignments (x2), 50 points each – The first assignment will be a written response to the questions, "What is Philosophy?" The second assignment will require you to identify arguments as strong, valid, weak, or invalid. You will download a file with a set of arguments, write answers in the file, and then reattach it to the assignment page.

Team Project 100 points – Your team is responsible for preparing a web page that provides a comprehensive review of the topic you are working on. You will be graded based on your participation in a group discussion forum and the amount of material that you contribute to the web page. Preparing for SLOs 1, 2, 3, and 4

Written Final Exam, 200 points – The final exam will consist of glossary terms, short answer questions, and two essay questions. You will define philosophical terms and concepts; explain core concepts and arguments from assigned readings; apply concepts to personal experience and contemporary issues; evaluate arguments and positions in ethics; compare, contrast, and critique ethical theories and arguments; and justify a position on ethical issues.

Assessing SLOs 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5

Paper 1, 100 points – This paper will be 2-3 pages in length and will provide a detailed interpretation and discussion of the topic you have selected to work on with your team. You should demonstrate an understanding of the core concepts, positions, arguments, and criticisms; you will engage with specific passages from the reading; you will provide examples that apply these concepts to your life or to contemporary issues; and you will distinguish views and provide original commentary on the positions presented. Preparing for SLOs 2, 3, 4, and 5

Paper 2, 100 points – This paper assignment is identical to Paper 1, but will focus on a different topic than the one that you worked on with your group. Assessing SLOs 2, 3, and 4

Grading Policy:

All grades will be calculated according to a percentage of total points. The total number of points for this term is 600. The term grade legend follows:

|--------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| A = 90% to 100% (540 to 600 point) | 4 points per semester hour |
| B = 80% to 89.9% (480 to 539 points) | 3 points per semester hour |
| C = 70% to 79.9% (420 to 479 points) | 2 points per semester hour |
| D = 60% to 69.9% (360 to 419 points) | 1 point per semester hour |
| F = 0% to 59.9% (000 to 359 points) | 0 points per semester hour |
| FX (Failure due to non-attendance) | 0 points per semester hour |
| IP (In Progress) | 0 points per semester hour |
| W (Withdrawn) | 0 points per semester hour |
| I (Incomplete) | 0 points per semester hour |
| AUD (Audit) | 0 points per semester hour |

IP (In Progress) is given only in certain developmental courses. The student must re-enroll to receive credit. COM (Completed) is given in non-credit and continuing education courses.

FINAL GRADE OF FX: Students who stop attending class and do not withdraw themselves prior to the withdrawal deadline may either be dropped by their professor for excessive absences or be assigned the final grade of "FX" at the end of the semester. Students who stop attending classes will receive a grade of "FX", compared to an earned grade of "F" which is due to poor performance. Logging into a DE course without active participation is seen as non-attending. Please note that HCC will not disperse financial aid funding for students who have never attended class.

Students who receive financial aid but fail to attend class will be reported to the Department of Education and may have to pay back their aid. A grade of "FX" is treated exactly the same as a grade of "F" in terms of GPA, probation, suspension, and satisfactory academic progress.

To compute grade point average (GPA), divide the total grade points by the total number of semester hours attempted. The grades "IP," "COM" and "I" do not affect GPA.

Late policy:

Late work will be accepted with penalty, unless I have received a valid excuse or the student has arranged for late submission prior to the deadline. I will deduct a minimum of 10% of the grade from the first day the assignment is late and an additional 10% of the grade for every week it is late after that.

Academic Honesty:

The pressure to earn high grades and belief that a good end can justify any means whatsoever leads many students to try cutting corners by resorting to less than honest methods. Do yourself a favor by avoiding that trap. The HCC Student Handbook lists cheating, plagiarism, and collusion as scholastic dishonesty. It defines plagiarism as "the appropriation of another's work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one's own written work offered for credit." It defines collusion as "the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing work for credit." Work submitted for this course that is determined to be the result of either cheating, plagiarism, or collusion will earn a "0" for that assignment; two instances of cheating, plagiarism, or collusion will result in an automatic "F." Probation or dismissal from HCC and ALL its several colleges may also result. See HCC Student Handbook.

Make-up Policy:

Students are responsible for materials covered in-class and online during their absences, and it is the student's responsibility to contact and consult with the instructor for make-up assignments. In addition, any student who is absent on posted exam dates should be prepared to schedule the make-up of missed examinations on the first day of returning to class. Make-up examinations are taken by appointment at the campus Testing Center. This scheduling cannot occur during class time. Any other assignments not turned in on time (due to absences) must also be either turned in, or scheduled for late submission on the first day of returning to class. Finally, there will be no extension of due dates and/or make-ups for Online Requirements. Except for a medical excuse or documented family or personal emergency, there is no exemption from these rules.

Attendance and Withdrawal Policy:

HCC Students are expected to attend class regularly. A daily record of absences will be maintained throughout the semester. NOTE: It is the responsibility of the student to drop, or officially withdraw from this course. Your instructor will withdraw a student if and only if provided a written request from that student. Additionally, system-wide rules affect withdrawals:

- (1) Students who repeat a course for a third, or more times, may face a significant tuition/fee increase at HCC and other Texas public colleges and universities.
- (2) The Texas Legislature passed a law limiting new students (those starting college in Fall 2007) to no more than six total course withdrawals throughout their academic career in obtaining a baccalaureate degree. There may be future penalties imposed.
- (3) No student may withdraw from a course following the set "last date to withdraw", which for Summer I 2014 is on June 23 at 4:30 pm. After that date and time, a student can only be given a grade earned, or an "I" for incomplete. Incompletes must be made up by the end of the following long semester, after which they will automatically change to a grade of "F". Students receiving an "I" for a course are ineligible for graduation until the "I" has been removed from a student's transcript.
