Please feel free to contact me concerning any problems that you are experiencing in this course. Your performance in my class is very important to me. I am available to hear your concerns, clarify any misunderstandings, or just to discuss course topics in greater depth.

Instructor's Preferred Method of Contact

College policy requires instructors and students to communicate through the HCCS email system. If you have not activated your HCCS student email account please do so. You can reach me by email at pamela.norwoodtodd@hccs.edu. You can also use the Canvas Inbox to communicate with me. I will respond to emails within 48 hours Monday through Friday; I will reply to weekend messages on Monday mornings. If I am not available, please feel free to leave a message on my phone or contact our department's administrative assistant, Ms. Debbie Pinnock at 713-718-6303 or debbie.pinnock@hccs.edu.

What's Exciting About This Course

Every child is an artist. The problem is how to remain an artist once he grows up. Pablo Picasso

The creative arts are a powerful addition to the early childhood curriculum. According to Angela Eckhoff (2018), it is important for all early childhood educators to create an environment where the arts are a consistent and valued component of daily classroom life. The arts serve as a way for children to experience and express their sense of wonder, imagination, and creative thinking skills. This course is specifically designed to provide current and future early childhood professionals with the arts content knowledge, teaching practices, and lesson ideas that they can use to offer rich early learning experiences integrating the visual and performing arts. You will make use of a variety of tools, media, and materials that will invite the use of your own artistic and aesthetic ideas. We won't just talk about art-making, music, and dance, we'll do it!

My Personal Welcome

Welcome to CDEC 1358!—Creative Arts for Early Childhood. You are probably taking this class because it is a requirement for the completion of your certificate or your degree. I sincerely hope however, that by the end of the semester you will find that it was worth your time. You will have a better understanding of the ways that early childhood educators can help support young children's artistic development. I intend to present the information in ways that allow you to be an active, collaborative, and engaged learner so that you can grasp the concepts and apply them now and hopefully throughout your professional life. I hope that you will be willing to participate in our class discussions and activities and also make use of the learning resources that are provided through Eagle Online (Canvas).

Prerequisites and/or Co-Requisites

CDEC 1358 requires the completion of CDEC 1313 and CDEC 1323 as prerequisites. This course is also a prerequisite for the next early childhood curriculum course, CDEC 1356. Please carefully read and consider the repeater policy in the HCCS Student Handbook.

Canvas Learning Management System

This section of CDEC 1358 will use Canvas \(https://eagleonline.hccs.edu\) to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities. You will be taught how to access your mandatory weekly quizzes and additional resources that have been provided (if any) during one of our in-class sessions. HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. USE FIREFOX OR CHROME AS THE INTERNET BROWSER.

Instructional Materials

The textbook listed below is required for this course.

Mayesky, M. (2015). Creative Activities and Curriculum (11th ed.). Stamford, CT: Cengage Learning.

Order your book here: HCC Bookstore

Other Instructional Resources

Please see your instructor for additional instructional resources that may be distributed in class or via Canvas.

Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment and on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <http://library.hccs.edu>.

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/>.

Course Overview

CDEC 1358 is an exploration of principles, methods and materials for teaching young children music, movement, visual arts and dramatic play through process-oriented experiences to support divergent thinking. Requires students to participate in laboratory experiences with children from infancy through age 8 in a variety of settings with varied and diverse populations

Core Curriculum Objectives (CCOs)

CDEC 1358 is not a Core Curriculum course and as such does not address core curriculum objectives.

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs)

NAEYC Standard 1	Develop an understanding of child development and learning.
NAEYC Standard 2	Examine family and community relationships.
NAEYC Standard 3	Explain the observation, documentation, and assessment process needed to support young children and their families.
NAEYC Standard 4	Know, understand, and use a wide array of developmentally effective approaches, instructional strategies and tools to connect with children and families and positively influence each child's development and learning.
NAEYC Standard 5	Know, understand, and use the essential concepts, inquiry tools, and structure of content areas along with other resources to design, implement and evaluate meaningful curriculum for each child.
NAEYC Standard 6	Identify and conduct themselves as members of the early childhood profession.

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs)

Upon completion of CDEC 1358, the student will be able to:

1. Define the creative process.
2. Describe concepts taught through the creative arts and components of creative environments.
3. Analyze teacher roles in enhancing creativity.
4. Describe the role of play in a child's growth and development and developmental sequences for creative arts.
5. Plan, implement, and assess child-centered activities for music, movement, visual arts, and dramatic play.

Learning Objectives

Define the creative process

1.1 Compare process-oriented experience to product-oriented experiences.

Describe concepts taught through the creative arts and components of creative environments.

2.1 Explain how play affects the development of children in all domains.

2.2 Contrast different types of play.

Analyze teacher roles in enhancing creativity.

3.1 Describe teacher roles in providing visual arts, music, movement, and dramatic play activities.

Describe the role of play in a child's growth and development and developmental sequences for creative arts.

4.1 Summarize the role of visual arts, music, movement, and creative drama in the overall development of children.

4.2 Describe strategies for infusing culture through the creative arts curriculum.

Plan, implement, and assess child-centered activities for music, movement, visual arts, and dramatic play.

5.1 Develop child centered activities for music, movement, visual arts, and dramatic play.

5.2 Implement meaningful, integrated learning experiences in the arts, music, drama and movement with other curriculum areas.

5.3 Discuss how to use assessment information to plan and provide child centered learning activities.

Student Success

Expect to spend at least twice as many hours per week outside of class as you do in class studying the course content. Additional time will be required for written assignments. The assignments provided will help you use your study hours wisely. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Reading the textbook
- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.

Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class in person and/or online
- Participate actively by reviewing course material, interacting with classmates, and responding promptly in your communication with me
- Read and comprehend the textbook
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Attain a raw score of at least 50% on the departmental final exam
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook

Assignments, Exams, and Activities

Written Assignments and Projects

The assignments in this course include an Article Summary, Art Appreciation Display, a Children's Literature and the Arts project, Program Observation Report, Two Micro-Teaching Activities (Art and Music/Movement), Activity Notebook, and Practicum Experience.

Exams

Weekly chapter quizzes for the course are in the Eagle Online Canvas component of the course. There will also be a midterm which is worth 100 points. The midterm will consist of at least 50 questions (multiple choice, true/false, fill in the blank, and/or short answer) with at least 5 short answer/essay application questions. Please check the course calendar included here for the exam dates.

Final Exam

The final exam will consist of at least 50 questions (multiple choice, true/false, and fill in the blank). Your final exam will be administered on the last day of the course and will last for a maximum of two hours.

In-Class Activities

Routinely, there will be a variety of in-class activities provided in various formats (large group, small group, individual). The purpose of these activities is to enhance your understanding of the course material. No points or grades are given but full participation is expected.

Required Components

This course includes a required component of a laboratory assignment (Practicum Level 1). To successfully complete this assignment, the student must visit an NAEYC accredited school or center, or a Texas Rising Star (TRS) 4 star school or center. The student will observe at the school or center for at least three hours, complete an observation form to document the observation, and write a one-page summary of the observation. If this assignment is not completed with 70% of possible points, the student will not receive a passing grade in this class.

This course also includes a required component of an Activity Notebook. Specific instructions for this assignment will be provided by your instructor. If this assignment is not completed with 70% of possible points, you will not receive a passing grade in this class.

Grading Formula

The total possible points that can be earned in this course is 900. Below you will find the grading scale:

Grade	Total Points
A	810-900
B	720-809

C	630-719
D	540-629
F	539 or below

Incomplete Policy:

Required component assignments/Key Assessments Revision Policy

Only one revision is allowed on key assessments and required component assignments. The maximum grade you can earn on a revised assignment is 70% of the possible points. If you use any tutoring service, you must take/send assignment description or directions with the first draft. IF you do not pass the assignment the first time, any one or all of the following will be required:

- a. Conference with professor
- b. Take an APA and/or Plagiarism online tutorial and pass the quiz (upon instructor's request)
- c. See an in-person tutor at professor's discretion

The grade of "I" (Incomplete) is conditional. Incompletes are at the discretion of the professor and aligned with departmental guidelines. The grade of "I" may be earned if a student is passing the course with a D or higher AND has completed at least half of the required components for the course. Additionally, the student must have a justifiable and documented reason for not completing the work on schedule.

If you receive an "I" you must arrange with the instructor to complete the coursework within six months. After the deadline, the "I" becomes an "F". All "I" designations must be changed to grades prior to graduation. The changed grade will appear on your record as "I"/Grade (example: "I/A").

HCC Grading Scale can be found on this site under Academic Information:
<http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/student-handbook/>

Syllabus Modifications

The instructor reserves the right to modify the syllabus at any time during the semester and will promptly notify students in writing, typically by e-mail, of any such changes.

Instructor's Practices and Procedures

Missed Assignments

If you have a documented, college approved excuse for missing an assignment, you may make it up without any grade reduction or penalty. Approved excuses include personal illness, a death in the immediate family, and participation in official college functions. If you are unable to attend class on a scheduled midterm examination day, you should contact me as soon as possible to reschedule but within two weeks of the original date. There is no "make-up" for the final exam.

Academic Integrity

HCC expects all students to conduct themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Proceedings may be initiated by instructors, department chairs, and/or instructional deans against a student accused of a violation of academic integrity. "Scholastic Dishonesty" includes but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Discretion is given to the instructor as to the administration of consequences for academic integrity violations at the classroom level, subject to any rules imposed by the relevant program/division/center of excellence. Consequences might include such penalties as a 0 on the particular assignment, a mandatory retaking or redoing of the assignment in question, a significant deduction from the final overall course grade, dismissal from the course (if prior to the date of last withdrawal) or failure of the entire course.

Attendance Procedures

You are expected to attend each class session. Research has shown that regular class attendance correlates with good grades. Please be on time and plan to attend the entire class period. If you must be absent, know that you will still be held responsible for the material covered in class. Make sure that you ask for the handouts or other supplemental information that may have been distributed in the missed session. Please be advised that instructors may drop students who fail to attend class by the official date of enrollment or who miss more than six hours of classroom time.

Student Conduct

"According to its policy on student conduct, the Houston Community College views college-level students as adults who subscribe to a basic standard of conduct...Moreover, a student's membership in the community of scholars is a privilege and carries with it obligations to participate in and contribute to the educational mission of the college and to avoid any behavior that is contrary to that mission. Therefore, no student may disrupt or otherwise interfere with any educational activity being performed by a member of the college district. In addition, no student may interfere with his/her fellow students' right to pursue their academic goals to the fullest in an atmosphere appropriate to a community of scholars."

<https://www.hccs.edu/media/houston-community-college/district/pdf/2018-2019-Student-Code-of-Conduct.pdf>

Instructor's Course-Specific Information

Students who are not absent more than twice during the semester will be eligible for 25 extra credit points that will be applied towards the final grade. These students will also be eligible to submit one (1) additional extra credit assignment form a list that will be provided. Late assignments are accepted but 5 points per class session will be deducted from the original grade if they are submitted within two weeks of the due date. After that, the grade will be reduced by 25%. The last date to submit any assignment is the week before the final exam. Please be sure to make backup copies of all submitted work and keep all graded assignments until final course grades are posted.

Electronic Devices

Most technological devices are considered distracting in the classroom. Please turn your cell phone OFF or on VIBRATE before coming to class. Please refrain from answering or responding to any calls or text messages during class. Leaving the class to respond to a call should be done only in the case of a verifiable emergency. Repeated violations of this policy will result in you being asked to leave the class session and an appointment for a personal conference.

Child Development Program Information

The A.A.S. Child Development Program at Houston Community College is accredited by the Commission on the Accreditation of Early Childhood Higher Education Programs of the National Association for the Education of Young Children. Accreditation is awarded to programs that demonstrate evidence of excellence by meeting the NAEYC Professional Preparation Standards. There are currently 204 institutions in 40 states with NAEYC accredited programs. HCC is one of the 11 in Texas. The accreditation term runs from beginning date March, 2017 through March, 2024.

NOTICE This course of study would not be appropriate for anyone who falls into the following category as noted by the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services. "No person with a conviction or who is under indictment for, or is the subject of an official criminal complaint alleging violation of any of the crimes listed as a felony against the person or felony violation of the Texas Controlled Substance Act may be present while children are in care."

Orientation Students who are completing lab, practicum, or field experience components at the YMCA Children's Academy at the HCC Central Campus must complete a mandatory orientation. Contact the department at 713-718-5470 or 713-718-6303 for more details about the orientation.
