What's Exciting About This Course

I am glad you are here, and hope you will find this a rewarding course. This course is exciting because:

- Business law touches on many areas of our lives, making it an exciting and versatile course.
- A career in business law can take many different forms. Indeed.com reports that there are thousands of search results for business law and, with many different positions offering great salaries in business law.
- This course makes you both a better entrepreneur as well as a better consumer. Knowing the law behind contracts, goods and services gives you an advantage.

Over the semester, we will explore the foundations of the American legal system and contracts in a business context, with emphasis on our current business environment. We will delve into real-world legal scenarios, where you will often be presented with legal questions and ethical dilemmas. The fun part is applying the law to these scenarios to find out the best outcomes. You'll find that, as with a chocolate or vanilla cake batter, if you leave out some legal "ingredients," ultimately your cake "judgment" may not turn out in your favor. More about this in class!

My Personal Welcome

Welcome!

Beyond your hard work and intelligence, there are two keys to a successful experience in this online course:

First, you must keep up with the work. Self-discipline is the key. Set up a schedule and stick with it.

Second, ASK QUESTIONS. I try to anticipate and provide good information, but there will be things that you are not sure you understand about an assignment or some other matter. DO NOT HESITATE TO ASK ME ABOUT IT.

Be advised that this course can be challenging. We will cover many chapters in just 16 weeks. If you are not committed, you will struggle. This course is not meant to turn you into an attorney. But it is meant to teach you the basics of American (and some international) law, while helping develop your ability as an entrepreneur or consumer to recognize your legal rights and obligations. So while the course is rigorous, hopefully you will have fun learning how the law benefits you or your business!

I am here to help you through this course. I do not want you to become misdirected or frustrated because you do not understand something. My contact information is listed above or you may send me a quick email. My office hours are by appointment only. But do not wait to call if you have a question.

Houston Community College is committed to furthering the cause of social justice in our community and beyond. HCC does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity and expression, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status. I fully support that commitment and, as such, will work to maintain a positive learning environment based upon open communication, mutual respect, and non-discrimination. In this course, we share in the creation and maintenance of a positive and safe learning environment. Part of this process includes acknowledging and embracing the differences among us in order to establish and reinforce that each one of us matters. I appreciate your suggestions about how to best maintain this environment of respect. If you experience any type of discrimination, please contact me and/or the Office of Institutional Equity at 713-718-8271.

Preferred Method of Contact

You should contact me through Canvas email. I will respond to emails within 24 to 48 hours Monday through Friday; I will reply to weekend messages on the following Monday.

* Instructor's Practices and Procedures

Incomplete Policy

A student receiving an "I" must arrange with the instructor to complete the course work within six months of the end of the incomplete term. After the deadline, the "I" becomes an "F". Upon completion of the coursework, the grade will be entered as I/grade on the student transcript. All "I" s must be changed to grades prior to graduation.

In order to receive a grade of Incomplete ("I"), a student must have completed at least 85% of the work in the course. In all cases, the instructor reserves the right to decline a student's request to receive a grade of Incomplete.

Missed Assignments/Make-Up Policy

Assignments and exams are due as stated in Canvas. For makeup exams, which are approved by me, the professor, in emergency situations and extraordinary situations only, there is a 1% point deduction for each hour past the due date that you submit your late exam. Please note, a make-up exam is not a retake. That is, make-up exams are allowed only for missed exams.

Academic Integrity

Scholastic dishonesty policy. I expect that students will conduct themselves in all aspects of the academic process according to this policy. Any form of academic dishonesty will be penalized with a failing grade (i.e., zero points) for the assignment, quiz, or examination in which the infringement occurred. Academic Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating on a test, plagiarism and collusion.

Here's the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance):

<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>
\(https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/\)

Attendance Procedures

As stated in the HCC Catalog, all students are expected to attend classes regularly. Students in DE courses must log into their Canvas class weekly, or they will be counted as absent. Just like an on-campus class, your regular participation is required. The participation requirement is given below. Although it is the responsibility of the student to withdraw officially from a course, the instructor also has the authority to block a student from accessing Eagle Online Canvas, and/or to drop a student for excessive absences or failure to participate or log in regularly. DE students who do not log into their Canvas class before the Official Day of Record will be AUTOMATICALLY dropped for nonattendance. Completing the DE online orientation does not count as attendance. Logging into a DE course without active participation is regarded as non-attending.

Participation Requirement: Students must complete the entire Syllabus & Orientation Section in the Canvas-Eagle Online course by the Official Day of Record.

Distance Education Student Handbook: The Distance Education Student Handbook contains policies and procedures unique to the DE student. Students should have reviewed the handbook as part of the mandatory orientation. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with the handbook's contents. The handbook contains valuable information, answers, and resources, such as DE contacts, policies and procedures (how to drop, attendance requirements, etc.), student services (ADA, financial aid, degree planning, etc.), course information, testing procedures, technical support, and academic calendars. Refer to the DE Student Handbook.

Student Conduct

Course Expectations

- Be sure that you understand your teacher's expectations for the online course. Read the course syllabus and getting started pages very carefully, noting due dates of activities, quizzes, and assignments, and printing materials if desired. If you have any questions about what you are expected to do in the course, contact your instructor immediately by Canvas email, chat, or by using the other contact information given on the course information pages. Do not contact your instructor for technical support that is unrelated to course content (see below).

Some common activities that you may be expected to do in your online course are as follows:

- - reading and taking notes on course material,
  - participating in online discussions,
  - taking online quizzes,
  - submitting online assignments
  - communicating with your teacher/professor and/or classmates by email.
- When taking an online course, you should expect
  - to have access to your course one week prior to the beginning of the semester (online classes only),
  - to receive timely responses to your email from your teacher/professor,
  - to be aware of your standing in the course by the midterm notification deadline,
  - to have the opportunity to withdraw from the course before the deadline to withdraw and receive a grade of "W". (You are responsible for knowing the deadline to withdraw, and initiating your own withdrawal from the course) .

Students have the right to express themselves and participate freely in an online class. However, they are expected to treat each other and the instructor with courtesy and respect. Offensive or inappropriate language is not to be used in any form of communication e.g., emails, discussion postings, group projects, submitted assignments. Students are allowed to disagree with each other or the instructor but must do so in a civil manner.

The discussion area of the course is reserved for postings related to course work only. Postings of a personal or non academic nature are not permitted and may be removed by the instructor should they appear. Grades and personal issues should be handled by private email or chat to the instructor.

Emails or chats to the instructor that are considered offensive or inappropriate will be sent back to the writer with a request to rewrite and resubmit. If the emails continue to be unacceptable, the student will be referred to the Dean of Student Services and denied access to the course until proper approval has been granted to the student. If students receive inappropriate emails from others in the class they should notify the instructor and appropriate action will be taken.

Devices

Applies to In-Person:

Laptops and tablets (provided the latter can function as a computer) are welcome and even encouraged in class so that we can better work together on activities and readings. Phones, however, are not permitted. Learning how to resist our phones is a challenge. Everyone should silence and stow their phones for the duration of class. When you surreptitiously use your phone on your lap, flat on the desk, or furtively in your bag, both I and your classmates can see what you're doing -- it distracts all of us and will result in gentle (and if it is necessary repeatedly stern) admonishment.

You are welcome to use a laptop or tablet in this class as long as it contributes to your learning. This class, once again, is discussion based. This means that all students are expected to actively listen to one another in order to participate in classroom activities. If you are unable to contribute to the discussion or are otherwise distracted by your computer or tablet, I will ask that you refrain from using it in class. There will be some class sessions where we will use technology together, and in those instances, all students should make arrangements to bring a laptop or tablet to class. If you have any questions or concerns, please be in touch with me.

Failure to abide by this policy will lower your participation grade.

Faculty Statement about Student Success

Second, ASK QUESTIONS. I try to anticipate and provide good information, but there will be things that you are not sure you understand about an assignment or some other matter. DO NOT HESITATE TO ASK ME ABOUT IT.

- Reading the textbook
- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.

Additional Information

Expect to spend at least twice as many hours per week outside of class as you do in class studying the course content. Additional time will be required for written assignments. The assignments provided will help you use your study hours wisely. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Reading the textbook
- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.

Departmental/Program Information

The Business program provides distinctive learning that actively engages students, faculty, and the business community in developing knowledge and skills relevant for success in a complex global economy. The majority of Americans make their living in business, regardless of their academic major. The job market is opening up for individuals with an associate degree in business. The program offers an AA and AAS degrees with certificates in several specializations.

To be eligible for an Associate in Arts (AA), an Associate of Arts in Teaching (AAT), or an Associate in Science (AS) degree from HCC, a student must successfully:

Complete at least 60 semester hours of credit as follows: (a) for the AA degree, 43 hours of required core courses and 17 hours of transferable electives, usually focusing on the student's transfer major (b) for the AAT degree, 44 hours of required core courses plus 16-18 hours of required pre-teaching courses (c) for the AS degree, 43 hours of required core courses plus six additional hours of mathematics, four additional hours of natural science, and 7 hours of transferable electives, usually focusing on the student's transfer major

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board (THECB) has designated the Field of Study Curriculum courses as "fully transferable" to other public colleges and universities in Texas. Students planning on transferring to either private or out-of-state institutions should direct transfer questions to that college or university.

For more information, refer to the HCC Catalog (<https://www.hccs.edu/programs/catalog/>) and Field of Study Curricula Approved by the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board www.thecb.state.tx.us/institutional-resources-programs/public-universities-health-related-institutions/transfer-resources/field-of-study-curricula/
