What's Exciting About This Course

The Department of English helps students find and develop their authentic voices, establish political power, and create social capital. We teach critical thinking, close reading, and analysis. We coach students on the rhetoric of messaging with consideration of purpose and audience. We support them as they craft their own narratives. We turn thoughts into words, ideas into interpretations, ambiguity into translation, and silence into voice.

My Personal Welcome

Hello All! I am so glad that you are choosing to expand your horizons and further your education. I am here to help you every step of the way. This class will be innovative, thought-provoking and extremely special. I want this trip of your journey to not only make you think, but take action. YOU are the future and WE need you to be successful, therefore, no excuses on my end and there should be none on yours. We are in the together!!!

Preferred Method of Contact

Please contact me with questions or concerns via email at ronique.hinchen@hccs.edu or Canvas Inbox (Most Preferred). I will respond to emails within 24 hours Monday through Friday; I will reply to weekend messages on Monday mornings.

Office Hours

I am available to meet with you via appointment. Please contact me through Canvas Inbox if you are interested in scheduling a virtual meeting.

Course Overview

Course Description

ENGL 1301 is an intensive study of and practice in writing processes, from invention and researching to drafting, revising, and editing, both individually and collaboratively. Emphasis on effective rhetorical choices, including audience, purpose, arrangement, and style. Focus on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communicating, and critical analysis. Core curriculum course.

Requisites

Appropriate score on TSI/ACT/SAT/STAAR, INRW 0420, Grade C or better in ELA College Prep course from participating ISDs. Successful completion of INRW 0300 corequisite course. Please carefully read and consider the repeater policy in the HCCS Student Handbook.

English Website

Core Curriculum Objectives (CCOs)

English courses satisfy three (3) hours of the communication requirement in the HCCS core curriculum. The HCCS English Discipline Committee has specified that courses address the following core objectives:

- Critical Thinking: Students will demonstrate creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
- Communication: Students will demonstrate effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
- Personal Responsibility: Students will demonstrate the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.
- Teamwork: Students will demonstrate the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
  - Composition I, Composition II, Creative Writing, Introduction to Technical Writing, and Technical & Business Writing only

- Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate intercultural competency, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
  - Literature courses only

Student Learning Outcomes and Objectives

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs)

Can be found at:

<https://www.hccs.edu/programs/areas-of-study/liberal-arts--humanities/english/> (<https://www.hccs.edu/programs/areas-of-study/liberal-arts--humanities/english/>)

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs)

Upon successful completion of ENGL 1301, the student will be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative writing processes.
- Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution.
- Write in a style appropriate to audience and purpose
- Read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts.
- Use Edited American English in academic essays.

Word Count Requirement

Students will write a minimum of 5,000 words over the course of the semester.

Departmental Practices and Procedures

Department-Specific Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be calculated
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through class activities, discussions, and lectures
- Provide a description of any assignments
- Inform students of policies
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class and participate in class discussions and activities
- Read and comprehend the texts
- Complete the required assignments
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all documents, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies, including plagiarism, in the HCCS Student Handbook

Program-Specific Student Success Information

As with any three-hour course, expect to spend at least six hours per week outside of class reading and studying the material. I will provide assignments to help you use those six hours per week wisely. Additional time will be required for written assignments. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of reading the textbook, attending class, completing assignments in Eagle Online, and participating in class discussions. There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as your guide.

Instructional Materials and Resources

Instructional Materials

Everything necessary for the course will be posted as required reading material on our course page with access to them directly in the learning web. All of these readings are mandatory and are meant to assist you in the course.

Assignments, Exams, and Activities

Type	Weight	Topic	Notes
Start Here Activities	10		Details available in the relevant course module as well as thru lecture. Complete the Introduction Presentation and Syllabus Quiz.
Online Minor Assignments/Major Essay #3	20		If classes do meet in person, we will have lecture and discussion. The majority of our "in-class" activities will be in the form of additional online discussions and shorter writing assignments. There will also be activities to supplement the learning process. Two types of minor assignments in our class are: Discussion Board Posts- You will interact with your peers often in this class. For most discussion posts, you will respond to a discussion question or questions and then respond to posts written by two of your peers. You WILL NOT be able to see any of your peers responses until you have written your own and in order to get credit, you must respond to at least 2 peers. Writing Peer Reviews Posts- In order to further build a sense of community in our class and to develop and revise essays, we will use a form of online peer review. To do this, you will be assigned a peer review to help your peer further develop their essays in the rough draft stage. Make sure you follow the directions given on the assignment.
Major Essay #1	20	Compare/Contrast	Details available in the relevant course module as well as thru lecture.
Major Essay #2	20	Narration Essay	Details available in the relevant course module as well as thru lecture.
Exams/Quizzes	20		There will be a couple exams/quizzes in this class. Exams will be done in Canvas unless otherwise specified. The quizzes will be multiple choice with no more than 50 questions consisting of the information from the assigned reading. Each exam/quiz will be timed in some capacity and will count as a total of 10% of your total grade. Make-up exams are at my discretion and you will only get one attempt.
Final Exam Essay	10		Details available in the relevant course module as well as thru lecture.

* Instructor's Practices and Procedures

Incomplete Policy

In order to receive a grade of Incomplete ("I"), a student must have completed at least 85% of the work in the course. In all cases, the instructor reserves the right to decline a student's request to receive a grade of Incomplete

Missed Assignments/Make-Up Policy

Plan ahead. Because our course is always available, there are no acceptable reasons for late work. Missed deadlines come with consequences.

Late discussion question posts and/or peer reviews will not be graded after final deadlines have passed.

Major Essays 1, 2 and 3 will lose ten points for each day they are late until they reach an F (50) for a base score. They will not be accepted for credit after more than five days.

Final Exam Essay will not be accepted late.

Final essays submitted without relevant rough draft work will not be graded. No exception.

Standard Deductions on Essays:

-10: late final copy (points deducted each day for up to five days / after that, automatic zero)

-10: final copy not meeting length requirement

-5: incorrect format

-5: per source missing from final essay (for essays requiring sources)

Please note: Documentation is required for an emergency to allow a make up. A make-up exam is not a retake. That is, make-up exams are allowed only for missed exams, but at my discretion.

Academic Integrity

Just so there is no misunderstanding, plagiarism (using another's ideas or words without giving credit), collusion (unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit), and other forms of cheating will not be tolerated. To be accepted, all papers require proof of their development. Students, who plagiarize, collude, or cheat may face disciplinary action including the grade of 0 for the assignment, an F for the course, and/or dismissal from the college. (See Student Handbook)

In this course, the first violation of academic integrity, including but not limited to collusion and plagiarism, will result in a 0 for the assignment. The second violation will result in an F for the course and a referral to the appropriate Dean of Student Services.

Plagiarism and / or collusion is unethical; when you plagiarize, you are stealing someone else's words or ideas and passing them off as your own. If you plagiarized something in the workplace, you would likely be fired, so don't do it in the classroom.

For the purposes of our class, turning in work that you submitted elsewhere is also considered plagiarism.

Here's the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance):

<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>
(<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>)

Attendance Procedures

HCC policy states that a student may not miss more than 12.5% of class, which would be four class meetings in a regular, 16-week semester. Therefore, if you fail to log in and complete work for more than three days, you will be dropped from the course for failure to participate. If you have not logged into our course at all before the Official Day of Record (September 6, 2022), you will be dropped.

In addition, you will have four assignments (the Diagnostic Essay, Introduction Presentation, Assigned Readings and Syllabus Quiz) to complete before the deadline of September 7, 2022, 11:59 pm. All four are found on our course page at Canvas. Failure to complete these three assignments by the deadlines will result in automatic withdrawal from the course. Plagiarizing any of these assignments will count as failure to complete and will lead to automatic withdrawal from the course.

Student Conduct

Our shared responsibility is to develop and maintain a positive learning environment. I take this responsibility seriously and will inform members of the class if their behavior makes it difficult for me to carry out this task. As a fellow learner, you are asked to respect the learning needs of your classmates and to help me achieve this critical goal. You will be engaging with your peers in discussion forums and other mediums.

As such, you might encounter ideas different from yours. I expect you to be courteous and respectful to your peers at all times. Failure to do so will result in a referral to the appropriate Dean of Student Services and possible dismissal from the course. Since this is an online course, you will be communicating with me frequently via Canvas Inbox. Please include a relevant subject line for your message in all communications, along with an appropriate greeting and correct spelling. These are the basics of written communication but are often lost in online writing. I cannot respond to emails sent via outside email addresses.

Faculty-Specific Information Regarding Canvas

This course section will use Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu> (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>)) to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities.

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. For best performance, Canvas should be used on the current or first previous major release of Chrome, Firefox, Edge, or Safari. Because it's built using web standards, Canvas runs on Windows, Mac, Linux, iOS, Android, or any other device with a modern web browser.

Canvas only requires an operating system that can run the latest compatible web browsers. Your computer operating system should be kept up to date with the latest recommended security updates and upgrades.

Social Justice Statement

Houston Community College is committed to furthering the cause of social justice in our community and beyond. HCC does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, gender identity and expression, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status. I fully support that commitment and, as such, will work to maintain a positive learning environment based upon open communication, mutual respect, and non-discrimination. In this course, we share in the creation and maintenance of a positive and safe learning environment. Part of this process includes acknowledging and embracing the differences among us in order to establish and reinforce that each one of us matters. I appreciate your suggestions about how to best maintain this environment of respect. If you experience any type of discrimination, please contact me and/or the Office of Institutional Equity at 713-718-8271.

HCC Policies and Information

Ability Services

HCC strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including long and short term conditions, mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please meet with a campus Abilities Counselor as soon as possible in order to establish reasonable accommodations. Reasonable accommodations are established through an interactive process between you, your instructor(s) and Ability Services. It is the policy and practice of HCC to create inclusive and accessible learning environments consistent with federal and state law. For more information, please go to <https://www.hccs.edu/accessibility> (<https://www.hccs.edu/accessibility>)

Title IX

Houston Community College is committed to cultivating an environment free from inappropriate conduct of a sexual or gender-based nature including sex discrimination, sexual assault, sexual harassment, and sexual violence. Sex discrimination includes all forms of sexual and gender-based misconduct and violates an individual's fundamental rights and personal dignity. Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex-including pregnancy and parental status in educational programs and activities. If you require an accommodation due to pregnancy please contact an Abilities Services Counselor. The Director of EEO/Compliance is designated as the Title IX Coordinator and Section 504 Coordinator. All inquiries concerning HCC policies, compliance with applicable laws, statutes, and regulations (such as Title VI, Title IX, and Section 504), and complaints may be directed to:

Student Success

Expect to spend at least twice as many hours per week outside of class as you do in class studying the course content. Additional time will be required for written assignments. The assignments provided will help you use your study hours wisely. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

- Reading the textbook
- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.

Canvas Learning Management System

Canvas is HCC's Learning Management System (LMS), and can be accessed at the following URL:

<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu> (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>)

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. For best performance, Canvas should be used on the current or first previous major release of Chrome, Firefox, Edge, or Safari. Because it's built using web standards, Canvas runs on Windows, Mac, Linux, iOS, Android, or any other device with a modern web browser.

Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students during office hours, and before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class in person and/or online
- Participate actively by reviewing course material, interacting with classmates, and responding promptly in your communication with me
- Read and comprehend the textbook
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook (<https://www.hccs.edu/studenthandbook>)

Copyright Statement

In order to uphold the integrity of the academic environment and protect and foster a cohesive learning environment for all, HCC prohibits unauthorized use of course materials. Materials shared in this course are based on my professional knowledge and experience and are presented in an educational context for the students in the course. Authorized use of course materials is limited to personal study or educational uses. Material should not be shared, distributed, or sold outside the course without permission. Students are also explicitly forbidden in all circumstances from plagiarizing or appropriating course materials. This includes but is not limited to publically posting quizzes, essays, or other materials. This prohibition extends not only during this course, but after. Sharing of the materials in any context will be a violation of the HCC Student Code of Conduct and may subject the student to discipline, as well as any applicable civil or criminal liability. Consequences for unauthorized sharing, plagiarizing, or other methods of academic dishonesty may range from a 0 on the specified assignment and/or up to expulsion from Houston Community College. Questions about this policy may be directed to me or to the Manager of Student Conduct and Academic Integrity.

Sensitive or Mature Course Content

In this college-level course, we may occasionally discuss sensitive or mature content. All members of the classroom environment, from your instructor to your fellow students, are expected to handle potentially controversial subjects with respect and consideration for one another's varied experiences and values.

EGLS3

The EGLS<sup>3</sup> (Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System \(https://www.hccs.edu/egls3\)) will be available for most courses near the end of the term until finals start. This brief survey will give invaluable information to your faculty about their teaching. Results are anonymous and will be available to faculty and division chairs after the end of the term. EGLS<sup>3</sup> surveys are only available for the Fall and Spring semesters. -EGLS3 surveys are not offered during the Summer semester due to logistical constraints.

<https://www.hccs.edu/egls3> (<https://www.hccs.edu/egls3>)

Housing and Food Assistance for Students

If you are experiencing any hardship related to food, shelter, mental health, or other basic needs areas, please visit the Basic Needs page for resources (<https://www.hccs.edu/cares> (<https://www.hccs.edu/cares>)). You have the option to take the Basic Needs Questionnaire and ask to be contacted by a counselor for additional assistance or support (<https://www.hccs.edu/basicneeds> (<https://www.hccs.edu/basicneeds>)). Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable doing so.

Student Resources

Tutoring

HCC provides free and convenient academic support, in a large variety of subjects, to HCC students in both an online environment and in-person on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services website for more information at <https://hccs.edu/tutoring> (<https://hccs.edu/tutoring>).

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <https://library.hccs.edu> (<https://library.hccs.edu/>).

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <https://www.hccs.edu/supplemental-instruction> (<https://www.hccs.edu/supplemental-instruction>).
