

Shyama Mishra

Email: shyama.mishra@hccs.edu, Ph. – 281-237-3763

Education

- University of Houston, Victoria: Texas teacher Certification (Curriculum and Instruction)
 - MA in Communication, St. Louis University, 2000-2002
 - Bachelor of Education, India, 1997-1998
 - MA in English Literature, India, 1995-1997
 - BA in English Literature, India, 1992 – 1995
-

Teaching Experience:

- August 2013 – Current: Seven lakes High School - Classroom teacher,
 - English 3
 - PreAP English 2 (2014-2016)
 - Dual Credit 1301-1302 (2019 onwards)
 - Teach students literary analysis with focus on the language and style of the text. Introduce students to authors from different literary time periods and a variety of genre. Teach writing skills focused on STAAR based skill sets (PreAP) and college readiness (English 3) based on curriculum designed around the reviewed SAT format.
 - Team Lead for the English 3 to build grade level appropriate curriculum. Part of KatyISD district curriculum team representing SLHS during 20117-2018 and 2019-2020
 - Build the dual credit writing and composition curriculum for SLHS, teach a variety of writing styles based on a variety of texts – fiction, non – fiction and poetry.
- August 2009- May 2013: Classroom Teacher, English 4 (British Literature) and AP English Literature and Composition, Stafford High School
 - Formatting the AP and English 4 (British Literature) curriculum, training students in college bound reading and writing skills focusing on literary analysis and evaluation of different genres and different literary periods, training students to develop an understanding of correct conventions of writing, teaching students to actively conduct research on interdisciplinary topics following the APA format. Regularly recommend and guide outgoing students in their college application process.
- August 2007 – May 2008, August 2009 – 2013, Adjunct Faculty, Houston Community College, Dual Credit 1301 &1302
 - Teaching analytical writing skills and literary criticism, formatting curriculum for the courses, evaluation and feedback, having students conduct extensive research on assigned topics following the MLA format, develop a thorough understanding of various genres of English literature, with special focus on analyzing non-fiction from different perspectives like social, interpersonal, cultural and so on.
- August 2007- June 2008: Classroom teacher, English 2, Stafford MSD
- January 2007–April 2007: Student teacher, English 2, Taylor High School, Katy ISD.
- August 2006 - May 2007: Substitute teacher – Katy ISD

Awards and accomplishments:

- Research assistantship – St. Louis University – 2001-2002
 - University Merit Scholarship – Visva Bharati University, India – 1998
 - National Merit Scholarship – Ministry of Education – India – 1995
 - University Merit Scholarship – Visva Bharati University – 1995
 - Founder of Visions and Voices – the school’s literary magazine – 2010-2012.
 - Head coach for UIL writing and spelling and vocabulary – 2012 – currently serving
 - Junior NHS sponsor – 2014 – 2017
 - Member of the katyISD 11th grade curriculum building team.
 - One of the primary references for college bound seniors
-

Professional Training and workshops Certification:

- Standard Texas Teacher certification Generalist EC-4
- Standard Texas Teacher Certification ELA 8-12
- ESL supplemental (Ec-4) (8-12)
- AP Summer Institute – Rice University
- Up to date with all state and district mandated trainings in technology, curriculum and instructions and other required fields.

Technical skills:

- MS-Outlook, Lotus, MS-PowerPoint, MS Word, MS-Excel, Photoshop and Illustrator, Publisher