What's Exciting About This Course

The Department of English helps students find and develop their authentic voices, establish political power, and create social capital. We teach critical thinking, close reading, and analysis. We coach students on the rhetoric of messaging with consideration of purpose and audience. We support them as they craft their own narratives. We turn thoughts into words, ideas into interpretations, ambiguity into translation, and silence into voice.

My Personal Welcome

Welcome to Composition II. I'm glad you decided to take this class. One of my passions is breaking down English language into smaller parts, and I am looking forward to passing a little of that on to you; when you look at language in this way, you begin to see how it all fits together and how important clear written and verbal expression is in your life. One of our focuses is developing effective inquiry, so as you read about new and challenging ideas, remember that I am available to support you. The fastest way to reach me is through Canvas Inbox; I'm also available by appointment for an online meeting to discuss any questions you might have. Please contact me whenever you have a question.

Preferred Method of Contact

Please contact me with questions or concerns at Canvas Inbox. I will respond to emails within 24 hours Monday through Friday; I will reply to messages sent after 5pm on Friday or over the weekend on Monday morning.

Office Hours

I am available to meet with you via appointment. Please contact me through Canvas Inbox if you are interested in scheduling a virtual meeting.

☰ Departmental Practices and Procedures

Department-Specific Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be calculated
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through class activities, discussions, and lectures
- Provide a description of any assignments
- Inform students of policies
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class and participate in class discussions and activities
- Read and comprehend the texts
- Complete the required assignments
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all documents, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies, including plagiarism, in the HCCS Student Handbook

Program-Specific Student Success Information

As with any three-hour course, expect to spend at least six hours per week outside of class reading and studying the material. I will provide assignments to help you use those six hours per week wisely. Additional time will be required for written assignments. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of reading the textbook, attending class, completing assignments in Eagle Online, and participating in class discussions. There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as your guide.

☰ Instructional Materials and Resources

Instructional Materials

Everything necessary for the course will be posted as required reading material on our course page. All of these readings are mandatory and are meant to assist you in the course.

✓ Course Requirements

Assignments, Exams, and Activities

Type	Weight	Topic	Notes
Online Minor Assignments	15%		Because our class is completely online, our “in-class” activities will take the form of online discussions and shorter writing assignments. There will also be additional activities to supplement the learning process. Two types of minor assignments in our class are: Discussion Board Posts- You will interact with your peers often in this class. For most discussion posts, you will respond to a writing prompt and then respond to posts written by your peers. Occasionally, there will be individual postings that do not require responses, so always make sure to follow the directions in the assignment directions. Writing Studio Posts –In order to further build a sense of community in our classroom and to develop and revise essays, we will use a form of online peer review. To do this, you will interact with your peers in studio groups. Studio posts require you to meet deadlines for rough drafts and for responses to your peers. Make sure to follow the directions in the assignment directions.

Type	Weight	Topic	Notes
Major Essay 1	25%	Practical Proposal Argument	Details available in the relevant course module.
Major Essay 2	30%	Definitional Argument	Details available in the relevant course module.
Major Essay 3	30%	Causal Argument	Details available in the relevant course module.

* Instructor's Practices and Procedures

Incomplete Policy

An Incomplete is rarely given in a course like this and only in extremely extenuating circumstances. A student must have also completed at least 85% of course work. In all cases, the instructor reserves the right to decline a student's request to receive a grade of Incomplete.

Missed Assignments/Make-Up Policy

Plan ahead. Because our course is always available, there are no acceptable reasons for late work. Missed deadlines come with consequences.

Late studio drafts and feedback posts are not eligible for credit; successful studios hinge on meeting deadlines, and submitting late work is disrespectful to your group.

Major Essays 1, 2, and 3 will lose ten points for each day they are late until they reach an F (50) for a base score. They will not be accepted for credit after more than five days. Late essays will not receive feedback.

Final essays submitted without relevant rough draft work in the Writing Studio will not be graded; you will receive a zero for the final copy. No exception.

Online Discussions and Writing Studios cannot be made up after the final deadlines have passed.

Standard Deductions on Essays:

- 10: late final copy (points deducted each day for up to five days / after that, automatic zero)
- 10: final copy not meeting length requirement
- 5: incorrect format
- 5: per source missing from final essay (for essays requiring sources)

Academic Integrity

In this course, the first violation of academic integrity, including but not limited to collusion and plagiarism, will result in a 0 for the assignment. The second violation will result in an F for the course and a referral to the appropriate Dean of Student Services.

Plagiarism and / or collusion is unethical; when you plagiarize, you are stealing someone else's words or ideas and passing them off as your own. If you plagiarized something in the workplace, you would likely be fired, so don't do it in the classroom.

For the purposes of our class, turning in work that you submitted elsewhere is also considered plagiarism.

Here's the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance):

<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>
\(https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/\)

Attendance Procedures

HCC policy states that a student may not miss more than 12.5% of class, which would be four class meetings in a regular, 16-week semester. Because of the timeline and nature of our online course, if you fail to log in and complete work for more than three days, you will be dropped from the course for failure to participate. If you have not logged into our course at all before the Official Day of Record (September 7, 2021), you will be dropped.

In addition, you will have three assignments (the Diagnostic Essay, Discussion Post One, Discussion Post Two) to complete before the deadline of September 6, 2021, 11:59pm. All three are found on our course page at Canvas. Failure to complete these three assignments by the deadlines will result in automatic withdrawal from the course. Plagiarizing any of these assignments will count as failure to complete and will lead to automatic withdrawal from the course.

Student Conduct

Our shared responsibility is to develop and maintain a positive learning environment. I take this responsibility seriously and will inform members of the class if their behavior makes it difficult for me to carry out this task. As a fellow learner, you are asked to respect the learning needs of your classmates and to help me achieve this critical goal. You will be engaging with your peers in discussion forums and other mediums. As such, you might encounter ideas different from yours. I expect you to be courteous and respectful to your peers at all times. Failure to do so will result in a referral to the appropriate Dean of Student Services and possible dismissal from the course.

Since this is an online course, you will be communicating with me frequently via Canvas Inbox. Please include a relevant subject line for your message in all communications, along with an appropriate greeting and correct spelling. These are the basics of written communication but are often lost in online writing. I cannot respond to emails sent via outside email addresses.

Faculty-Specific Information Regarding Canvas

This course section will use Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu> (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>)) to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities.

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. For best performance, Canvas should be used on the current or first previous major release of Chrome, Firefox, Edge, or Safari. Because it's built using web standards, Canvas runs on Windows, Mac, Linux, iOS, Android, or any other device with a modern web browser.

Canvas only requires an operating system that can run the latest compatible web browsers. Your computer operating system should be kept up to date with the latest recommended security updates and upgrades.

HCC Policies and Information

HCC Grading System

HCC uses the following standard grading system:

Excellent (90-100)	4
Good (80-89)	3
Fair (70-79)	2
Passing (60-69), except in developmental courses.	1
Failing (59 and below)	0
FX - failing due to non-attendance / inactive participation	0
Withdrawn	0
Incomplete	0

Grade of FX

Review HCC Online and class policies for the terms of "active participation" -- an FX will be assigned if you simply log in but do not complete work.

An FX has significant effects on your educational opportunities. It may affect your financial aid award, your ability to enroll in courses next semester, your GPA, and your ability to stay in your current program. It can also affect transfer applications. If you are an international student, it can also affect your visa status. This is not intended to be an exhaustive list of the effects of an FX. For specific information on your circumstances, please reach out to student services and / or your advisor.
