- 5. Justify a sound philosophical position on a topic, or topics of contemporary human interest in the area of ethics, including its relation to freedom and human rights, that Integrates and Logically Demonstrates a Synthesis in thought.

Course Learning Objectives

Academic Honesty

The pressure to earn high grades and belief that a good end can justify any means whatsoever leads many students to try cutting corners by resorting to less than honest methods. Do yourself a favor by avoiding that trap. The HCC Student Handbook lists cheating, plagiarism, and collusion as scholastic dishonesty. It defines plagiarism as "the appropriation of another's work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one's own written work offered for credit." It defines collusion as "the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing work for credit." Work submitted for this course that is determined to be the result of either cheating, plagiarism, or collusion will earn a "0" for that assignment, and may cause the student to receive either an "F", or "I" in the course depending on your professor's stated requirements for the assignment and the weight it carries in determining your course grade. Students receiving an "I" for a course are ineligible for graduation until the "I" has been removed from a student's transcript. Probation or dismissal from HCC and ALL its several colleges may also result. See Student Handbook.

Attendance and Withdrawal Policies

HCC Students are expected to attend class regularly. A daily record of absences will be maintained throughout the semester. NOTE: IT IS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE STUDENT TO DROP, OR OFFICIALLY WITHDRAW FROM THIS COURSE IF, FOR ANY REASON, THAT STUDENT IS NO LONGER ATTENDING. NEW RULES ARE IN EFFECT THAT GREATLY CHANGE HOW AND WHEN THAT CAN BE DONE. YOU WILL NOT BE WITHDRAWN FROM THIS COURSE BY YOUR PROFESSOR. FURTHERMORE, THERE ARE POSSIBLE PENALTIES OTHER THAN LOSING ONE'S PAID TUITION THAT EVERY STUDENT MUST CONSIDER CAREFULLY BEFORE WITHDRAWING. THESE INCLUDE:

- (1) Students who repeat a course for a third, or more times, may face a significant tuition/fee increase at HCC and other Texas public colleges and universities.
- (2) The Texas Legislature passed a law limiting new students (those starting college in Fall 2007) to no more than six total course withdrawals throughout their academic career in obtaining a baccalaureate degree. There may be future penalties imposed.
- (3) No student may withdraw from a course following the set "last date to withdraw", which for Fall 2010 is Thursday, November 18, 2010 at 4:30 pm. After that date and time, a student can only be given a grade earned, or an "I" for incomplete. Incompletes must be made up by the end of the following long semester, after which they will automatically change to a grade of "F". Your instructor will not withdraw you for non-attendance and will withdraw a student if and only if provided a written request from that student.

EARLY ALERT: HCC has instituted an Early Alert process by which your professor will “alert” you through counselors of concerns that you might fail a class because of excessive absences and/or poor academic performance.

ALL STUDENTS ARE ADVISED: Contact your professor/counselor about opportunities for private tutoring and other assistance prior to considering withdrawal, or if you are not receiving passing grades. There are many opportunities available to assure your success!

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS: Receiving either a “W”, or “I” in a course may affect the status of your student Visa. Once a W is given for the course (after you have formally submitted a withdrawal form), it will not be changed to an F because of the visa consideration. An “I” does convert to an “F”, but only after six months have passed from the end of the term it was received. Please contact the International Student Office at 713-718-8520, if you have any questions about your visa status and other transfer issues.

Grading Components and Weights

- Discussion Forum Participation – 20 % (200 points) – Five BLACKBOARD discussion topics adhering to a two-phase format of threaded discussions and complying to announced minimum length and entry requirements for each phase. Each topic will require an initial reply to the topic question, plus five subsequent replies to fellow student posts. All Points will be awarded for completed topics. No points are awarded for missing, or partial entries. Each completed topic will earn 40 points, or 4 % of your total semester grade. Learning Outcomes 2 and 3.
- Examinations - 20 % (Two exams, each worth 100 points, for a total of 200 points) These are graded assignments, e.g. A, A-, B+, B, B-. C+. C. C-, D+, D, D-, and F. Learning Outcome 1.
- Midterm Essay – 30 % (300 points) An essay on an assigned question to be completed at home and turned at class-time. This is a graded assignment, e.g. A, A-, B+, B, B-. C+. C. C-, D+, D, D-, and F. Learning Outcome 4.
- Major Essay – 30 % (300 points) Due on the scheduled Final Exam Date. This is a graded assignment, e.g. A, A-, B+, B, B-. C+. C. C-, D+, D, D-, and F. Learning Outcomes 2, 3, and 5.

* Essays – will be completed out of class and submitted at the time specified on the course calendar. Please note, these examinations are essays in answer to a specific question that seeks your understanding of the course content. These essays are not to be construed as being research papers and all questions are to be addressed as asked. The grading of exams follows established standards of critical thinking and philosophical argumentation. All references to texts and other copyrighted sources are to follow MLA, APS, or APA style guides, including a “Work’s Cited” page if and only if they are not included on the list of required texts for this course. Links to these online style-guides can be found in the “Student Resources” folder on your Blackboard Homepage. Plagiarism on either essay will result in a “0” for the assignment; plagiarized assignments MUST be rewritten to the satisfaction of the instructor and will then be eligible to be awarded 50% credit. Plagiarism on the Final Essay will result in an “I” being awarded for the course until either the deficit is made up, or the “I” turns into an “F” at the end of the established six months following the term’s end.

* Point Recovery – Students who are disappointed in their performance on the first two exams may “recover” up to one-half the points missed by completing a thorough prescribed review of all questions missed, or in the case of the Midterm Essay, a total rewrite. This opportunity applies only to exams and the Midterm Essay, NOT the final Major Essay

Minimum Writing Requirement (Per Philosophy Discipline)

4,000 Words (Required discussions, blogs, essays, exams)

Grading Policy

All grades will be figured according to a percentage of total points. The total number of points for this term is 1000. The term grade legend and analysis are as follows:

- A = 90% to 100% (900 to 1000 point)
- B = 80% to 89.9% (800 to 899 points)
- C = 70% to 79.9% (700 to 799 points)
- D = 60% to 69.9% (600 to 699 points)
- F = 0% to 59.9% (000 to 599 points)

Make-up policy

Students are responsible for materials covered in-class and online during their absences, and it is the student's responsibility to contact and consult with the instructor for make-up assignments (AFTER CHECKING THE ONLINE BLACKBOARD COURSE CALENDAR). In addition, any student who is absent on posted exam dates should be prepared to schedule the make-up of missed examinations on the first day of returning to class. Make-up examinations are taken by appointment at the campus Testing Center. This scheduling cannot occur during classtime. Any other assignments not turned in on time (due to absences) must also be either turned in, or scheduled for late submission on the first day of returning to class. Finally, there will be no extension of due dates and/or make-ups for Online Requirements. Except for a medical excuse or documented family or personal emergency, there is no exemption from these rules.

Course Content

This is a course about the origins of philosophical discourse and history of ideas, including the formalization of logic and sound argument, and their relation to our concept of knowledge and learning, particularly as that concept impacts on our judgment involving values and morality. The standards of thinking and expression found in philosophy embrace every principle and method found in core critical thinking competencies. Readings are taken from a range of primary sources beginning with ancient philosophers, then to the medieval period, the moderns, and finally to thinkers on the contemporary scene. Selected readings must include works by women and non-western thinkers and are assessed by exams, quizzes, presentations, and discussions. Students must write at least 4,000 words during this course. This number is achieved in a variety of ways, including online submissions for required Blackboard Vista discussion forum posts and essay examinations. The evaluation of written work adheres to the professional teaching standards of philosophy for content and correct grammar. Students are advised that computer knowledge, word processing skills, and data base learning and research skills are necessary to complete this course. Help is available for students who lack these skills.

Tutoring Information

Limited face-to-face tutoring is available from the course instructor during office hours, or by appointment. In addition, all PHILOSOPHY students are encouraged to use HCC's online tutoring system for help with any philosophy class. Questions submitted to the ASK queue will be answered within 24 hours – and usually much before that. Tutors are on duty 7 days a week, 365 days a year. Online tutors will not do homework for you, but they will guide you in the right direction. To maximize the effectiveness of the system, be specific when you ask questions, and let the tutor know what class you are taking. You will receive two responses – one from an English tutor and one from a philosophy tutor.

Registering for online tutoring is easy. Go to www.hccs.askonline.net. Select a user name and password that you will remember. Use any e-mail address, and add your student ID number (W number). It will probably take five minutes to set up your Askonline account. After that, you can submit questions in seconds. Tutor responses are not e-mailed to you. To see the answers, log back in to the system and click the bright yellow NEW button.

Online tutoring is also available for accounting, history, government, chemistry, physics, biology, math, English, and papers in all disciplines.
