COURSE DESCRIPTION

A more extensive study of the skills introduced in English 1301 with an emphasis on critical thinking, research, documentation techniques, and literary and rhetorical analysis. Credit: 3 semester hours (3 lecture hours)

PREREQUISITES

English 1301 or a satisfactory score on the CLEP Exam.

COURSE GOALS

In English 1302, we seek to provide writing instruction and practice that will help students master critical analysis of reading selections (both fiction and non-fiction) and the research process, as well as to continue to creatively implement persuasive/argumentative writing techniques. All elements of English 1302 require students to apply critical thinking and writing skill introduced in English 1301.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

- 1) Apply basic principles of rhetorical analysis.
- 2) Write essays that classify, explain, and evaluate rhetorical and literary strategies employed in argument, persuasion, and various forms of literature.
- 3) Identify, differentiate, integrate, and synthesize research materials into argumentative and/or analytical essays.
- 4) Employ appropriate documentation style and format across the spectrum of in-class and out-of-class written discourse.
- 5) Demonstrate library literacy.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- 1) Demonstrate the ability to coherently analyze: divide a text into rhetorical parts, name the parts, identify examples that illustrate each part, and evaluate the contribution of each in one or more essays.
- 2) Apply the basic principles of critical thinking—evaluation, analysis, and synthesis— in written essays that persuade or argue.
- 3) Distinguish fact from opinion in others' writings and evaluate whether they prove their points and/or whether they can be appropriately used as sources in documented papers.
- 4) Research and write documented paper(s) using proper MLA style.
- 5) Find and evaluate library books, journals, magazines, and/or data-bases to find information on a topic or issue.
- 6) Expand the scope, confidence, and creativity of written expression.

CORE CURRICULUM COMPETENCIES

This course stresses the HCC CORE Competencies of reading, writing, speaking, listening, critical thinking, and computer literacy.

MINIMUM WRITING REQUIREMENT

Minimum of 6000 words during the semester

TEXTS & MATERIALS

Please get your texts and materials by the first day of the semester.

- 1) Current Issues and Enduring Questions
by Sylvan Barnet and Hugo Bedau
9th edition. Bedford/St. Martin's: Boston. 2010

- 2) English 1302 Packet (Study Guide). Houston Community College Northwest
This Study Guide is published by the HCC Northwest College; go to Northwest campus bookstores (at Spring Branch or Katy) to get a copy or you can order it online from the HCC bookstore at <http://hccs.bncollege.com/>

- 3) A grammar & composition handbook such as The McGraw-Hill Handbook (OPTIONAL TEXT)
by Elaine Maimon, Janice Peritz, and Kathleen Yancey
2nd Edition. McGraw-Hill: New York 2010

You may use a different handbook such As Penguin or Little Brown, but you'll be responsible for finding corresponding pages.

- 4) At least 2 Blue Books for in class exams (required)

COMPUTER LITERACY

Access to a computer with an Internet connection is essential. Students are expected to be familiar with basic telecommunication skills, such as navigating the web, sending and receiving email, participating in threaded discussions, and posting and receiving electronic files. A "sick" or "broken" personal computer and/or personal internet connection problems are not excuses to delay or not do assignments. Computers are available at HCC computer labs and some public libraries.

INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS

During this course, I hope that you will become better, more confident writers, readers, and critical thinkers. In order to help you to improve your writing, reading, and critical thinking skills, various learning materials will be provided. For example, mini-assignments will be given to help you develop your major essays, some learning materials have been supplemented with visual and multimedia works, and discussion prompts will encourage you to think critically about our class readings.

Learning is not a one way process. Everyone in the class has some knowledge or perspective to share that is unique, and thus, everyone has some knowledge or perspective that she/he can learn. Learning involves sharing ideas as well as being receptive to other people's ideas. It is important to make learning your responsibility by carefully listening, carefully reading required materials, contributing your ideas to class discussions, completing assignments by the deadlines, checking emails often, and meeting other course requirements. Hopefully, you'll discover that learning involves exploration and sharing and that it can sometimes be enjoyable.

ASSIGNMENT DESCRIPTIONS

Overview

This summer course lasts five weeks. A regular HCC semester has sixteen weeks. We are squeezing content that would normally be covered in sixteen weeks into five weeks. I encourage you to complete the assigned readings before the beginning of each class and to turn in assignments on time. Carefully observe the assignment due dates on the calendar. You may access some notes, assignments, and the syllabus by going to the following webpage: <http://hccs1.mrooms3.net/login/index.php>. The following provides a brief overview of our major activities and assignments.

Participation & Discussions & Other Assignments

Your class participation is based on your involvement in the course. This is measured by your attendance and active contributions to discussions and activities. Throughout the semester, you will be given quizzes, presentation assignments, reading response assignments, and other assignments. Most of the quizzes will cover assigned readings. You will be asked to make some class presentations; the goal of these presentations is to help you practice sharing critical ideas. Other assignments such as in-class writing and worksheets may also be given.

Essays

You will write three major essays:

- 1) Research Proposal/Plan: essay that proposes your semester research project and plan.
- 2) Annotated bibliography: bibliography with annotations that critically analyze sources.
- 3) Argumentative Essay: essay that focuses on a controversial issue, which will require research and MLA documentation, including parenthetical references and a works cited page.

Instructions for the essays will be provided on the course webpage. Please carefully read the instructions. The essays will give you an opportunity to explore various rhetorical modes and apply your composition skills.

Exams

There will be two exams this semester:

- 1) Midterm: in-class essay that critically analyzes a published article.
- 2) Final: in-class essay that critically analyzes a published article.

You must write your exam essay in a Blue Book. Only essays written in Blue Books will be graded, so please get your Blue Books in advance and bring them to class on the first day of each exam.

GRADE PERCENTAGES

- 12% Essay #1
- 15% Essay #2
- 20% Essay #3
- 23% Participation, Quizzes, & Other Assignments
- 15% Midterm Exam
- 15% Final Exam

GRADING CRITERIA AND GRADING SCALE

Your work will be graded using the standard A-F system.

A (90-100%): Your work demonstrates superior ability and originality. Thorough knowledge of the material is displayed. The quality of submitted work is consistently high with no stylistic or rhetorical errors.

B (80-89%): The student demonstrates above average ability. Knowledge of the material exceeds basic requirements. The quality of submitted work contains few stylistic or rhetorical errors.

C (70-79%): The student presents work that adequately fulfills the assignment. Errors in proofreading, mechanics, style, and rhetorical devices are present.

D (60-69%): The student submits below average work that displays little skill or creativity. The work contains repeated mechanical and stylistic errors and poorly developed assignments.

F (0-59%): The student submits sloppy, poorly organized works containing excessive stylistic and rhetorical errors. The work displays little student effort and interest.

Notes

- All major assignments must be completed & submitted within the required submission periods to pass the course.
- Midterm & Final Exam Grades: According to English Department Policy, students must have a passing average on the midterm and final exam essays to receive a C or better in the course.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- 1) In order to improve our writing skills, we must practice writing. Therefore, all your work, including essays, should be written specifically for this class; essays or sections of essays (or any work) should not have been submitted to another class. Credit will not be given for work that has been submitted to another class or publication.

- 2) All work must be submitted in the required formats and to the required locations to receive credit; pay careful attention to the assignment instructions for submission directions.
- 3) All out of class assignments must be typed unless otherwise stated. Handwritten assignments will be returned ungraded.
- 4) All assignment submissions must be in MLA format and stapled unless otherwise indicated.
- 5) Essays that use sources must be accompanied by in-text citations in MLA format, a works cited page in MLA format, and copies of all sources with required highlighting in order for the essays to receive credit. More info is provided in the assignment instructions.
- 6) All major out-of-class essays/assignments must be submitted to the appropriate sections in Turnitin.com by the deadline in order to receive credit.

MAKE-UP & LATENESS POLICY

- 1) Unless otherwise stated, paper copies of assignments are due in class, not outside of the class period. Assignments that are submitted after the first 15minutes of class but before the end of the class will have 10 points deducted. If you do not submit the assignment in class on the due date, the assignment (except Major Essay Packets) will not be accepted. Problems with the computer or printer are not acceptable excuses. Take responsibility as a college student if you miss a minor assignment. Learn from the experience and work to submit the rest of the assignments on time.
- 2) Unless otherwise stated, Major Essay Packets may be submitted late but will be penalized. Essay Packets that are submitted after the first 15minutes of class but before the end of the class will have 5 points deducted. If you do not submit the Essay Packet in class on the due date, you may submit it in the next class with a penalty of 15points. If you do not submit it in that next class, you may submit it in the following class with a penalty of 30 points. For each class day that the Essay Packet is late, 15 points will be deducted. Essay Packets that are more than 3 days late will not be accepted.
- 3) In-class assignments, including but not limited to quizzes, group work, reading responses, discussions, peer reviews, and presentations, cannot be made up or submitted late.
- 4) Make-ups or deadline extensions may be given at the discretion of the instructor. There will be no extension of due dates and/or make-ups unless a compelling excuse is provided. A compelling excuse must be accompanied by official documentation such as an official doctor's letter. A problem with your personal computer, printer, or internet connection is not an acceptable excuse. Computers are available at the HCC campuses and some public libraries.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

A student who is academically dishonest is, by definition, not showing that the coursework has been learned, and that student is claiming an advantage not available to other students. The instructor is responsible for measuring each student's individual achievements and also for ensuring that all students compete on a level playing field. Thus, in our system, the instructor has teaching, grading, and enforcement roles. You are expected to be familiar with the University's Policy on Academic Honesty, found in the catalog. What that means is: If you are charged with an offense, pleading ignorance of the rules will not help you. Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College System officials against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty.

"Scholastic dishonesty": includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion.

Cheating on a test includes:

- Copying from another students' test paper;
- Using materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
- Collaborating with another student during a test without authorization;
- Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of a test that has not been administered;
- Bribing another person to obtain a test that is to be administered.

Plagiarism means the appropriation of another's words or ideas and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one's own written work offered for credit.

Collusion means the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit.

Possible punishments for academic dishonesty may include a grade of 0 or F in the particular assignment, failure in the course, and/or recommendation for probation or dismissal from the College System. (See the Student Handbook)

Scholastic dishonesty is a serious offense. For example, copying even just one sentence or phrase without properly citing the source is plagiarism. Take pride and responsibility in doing your own work. To be accepted, all papers require proof of their development. Serious infractions will result in failure in this class.

CONTACT INFORMATION & EMAILS

Please feel free to contact me concerning any problems that you are experiencing in this course. You do not need to wait until you have received a poor grade before asking for my assistance. Please also take advantage of the tutoring, library, and counseling services available to you. Information about the services is provided in this syllabus.

- 1) In general, I will respond to emails in approximately 24 hours if the email was sent between 9AM Mon. – 3PM Fri. Emails sent during the weekend will be answered after the weekend.
- 2) When sending an email, please include your class, section, and name in the subject heading. I may not answer emails that do not have appropriate headings. Here is an example of an appropriate heading: SUBJECT: English 1301 DE, Jane Smith
- 3) Please use proper English. For example, do not write: “Hey Miz. Claz waz 2 kool. Gramr roks! LOL. C U l8r.” I may not try to figure out/respond to such emails :-)
- 4) Please check your email regularly.
- 5) Students requesting a phone call will be contacted within three days, not including weekends.

CLASSROOM CONDUCT

As your instructor and as a student in this class, our shared responsibility is to develop and maintain a positive learning environment for everyone. As a fellow learner, you are asked to respect the learning needs of your classmates and to assist me achieve this critical goal. All students in HCC courses are required to follow all HCC Policies & Procedures, the Student Code of Conduct, the Student Handbook, and relevant sections of the Texas Education Code when interacting and communicating in a classroom with your professor and fellow students. Students who violate these policies and guidelines will be subject to disciplinary action that could include denial of access to course-related resources or even removal from the class. (See Student Handbook)

- 1) Arrive on time and stay for the entire class. If you arrive late or leave early, please do so quietly.
- 2) Contribute your ideas and participate in class and respect everyone’s right to his/her own views.
- 3) Do not use devices including but not limited to cell phones, pagers, and video games in class. Laptops are not allowed without prior permission from the instructor, and this permission may be revoked at any time.
- 4) Do not attempt to do work not related to this course in the classroom.
- 5) If someone is talking, please do not interrupt.

USE OF CAMERAS OR RECORDING DEVICES

Use of recording devices, including camera phones and tape recorders, is prohibited in classrooms, laboratories, faculty offices, and other locations where instruction, tutoring, or testing occurs. Students with disabilities who need to use a recording device as a reasonable accommodation should contact the Office for Students with Disabilities for information regarding reasonable accommodations.

ATTENDANCE

As stated in the HCC Catalog, all students are expected to attend classes regularly. You should understand that your grade will suffer as a result of absences, and of course, your ability to do the work required in the course will be impaired and grades on that work will naturally be lower. Being tardy or leaving early will negatively affect your grade. If a student misses more than 6 hours of class, excused or non-excused absences, the student may be dropped from the course or given an F at the instructor’s discretion. If students stop attending the class, it is their responsibility to formally withdraw.

Regular attendance is expected and required. It is the only way you can learn from your professors and your peers and meet the goals of this class.

- 1) A record of absences, late arrivals, and early departures will be maintained throughout the semester. Be on time and stay until class is finished. Arriving late or leaving early and/or absences will affect your final grade.
- 2) I take role at the beginning of class. If you are tardy, it is your responsibility to make sure that I record your attendance at the end of class. Otherwise, you’ll be considered absent.
- 3) Valid reasons for missing class include illness and family emergencies. You need to provide official documentation such as a doctor’s note.
- 4) AN ABSENCE IS NOT AN EXCUSE FOR MISSING A DUE DATE OR FOR BEING UNPREPARED FOR THE NEXT CLASS. You are responsible for all assignments. If you are absent or tardy, it is your responsibility to learn what you have missed. Please read the course calendar. Try to exchange phone numbers and/or email addresses with at least 3 classmates to get possible help.

HCC WITHDRAWAL POLICY

Beginning Fall 2007, the State of Texas imposes penalties on students who withdraw/drop courses excessively. Students are limited to no more than SIX total course withdrawals throughout their educational career at a Texas public college or university. Students are encouraged to review the HCC 6 Drop Policy.

To help you avoid having to withdraw from any class, contact your professor regarding your academic performance. You may also want to contact your counselor to learn about helpful HCC resources (e.g. online tutoring, child care, financial aid, job placement, etc.).

How to Withdraw

- If a student decides to withdraw from a class upon careful review of other options, the student can withdraw online prior to the deadline through their HCC Student Center.
- HCC and/or professors may withdraw students for excessive absences without notification (see Attendance).
- Students should check HCC's Academic Calendar by Term for withdrawal dates and deadlines. Classes of other duration (flex-entry, 8-weeks, etc.) may have different final withdrawal deadlines. Please contact the HCC Registrar's Office at 713.718.8500 to determine mini-term class withdrawal deadlines.

3-PEAT RULE

Students who repeat a course for a third or more times may face significant tuition/fee increases at HCC and other Texas public colleges and universities. Please ask your instructor / counselor about opportunities for tutoring / other assistance prior to considering course withdrawal or if you are not receiving passing grades.

STUDENT SERVICES

Student Services provides counseling for the Northwest College student body. Counselors are available at each campus to assist students in creating class schedules, evaluating college transcripts, and completing degree/certificate plans.

Student Services regular business hours are the same at both campuses. Phone numbers:

- * 8 a.m. – 7 p.m. M – Th
- * 8 a.m. – 1 p.m. F – Sat
- * Katy Campus, 713-718-5751
- * Spring Branch Campus, 713-718-5669

Additional Information: <http://northwest.hccs.edu/northwest/campus-services>

Early Alert: HCC has instituted an Early Alert process by which your professor may “alert” you through counselors of concerns that you might fail a class because of excessive absences and/or poor academic performance. A counselor will then reach out to you to discuss your progress and offer any relevant resources. This initiative is designed to provide students with support services and resources to assist them in successfully completing their course.

DISABILITY SERVICES

Any student with a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, psychiatric, vision, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the Disability Support Services Office at the respective college at the beginning of each semester. Professors are authorized to provide only the accommodations requested by the Disability Support Services Office. For questions, please contact Donna Price at 713.718.5165 or the Disability Counselor at your college. To visit the ADA Web site, please visit www.hccs.edu then click Future students, scroll down the page and click on the words Disability Information.

Northwest ADA Counselor – Mahnaz Kolaini – 713.718.5422

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Contact the International Student Office at 713-718-8520 if you have questions about your visa status.

EGLS3 – EVALUATION FOR GREATER LEARNING STUDENT SURVEY SYSTEM

At Houston Community College, professors believe that thoughtful student feedback is necessary to improve teaching and learning. During a designated time, you will be asked to answer a short online survey of research-based questions related to instruction. The anonymous results of the survey will be made available to your professors and division chairs for continual improvement of instruction. Look for the survey as part of the Houston Community College Student System online near the end of the term.

EAGLE ONLINE STUDENT USER ID

Your Eagle Online login user ID will be your HCC User ID (sometimes referred to as the “W” number). All HCC students have a unique User ID. If you do not know your User ID you can look it up by visiting the HCC home page:

- From www.hccs.edu, under the column “CONNECT”, click on the “Student System Sign In” link
- Then click on “Retrieve User ID” and follow the instructions.

Or use the direct link to access the Student Sign In page:

<https://hccsaweb.hccs.edu:8080/psp/csprd/?cmd=login&languageCd=ENG>

The default student password is “distance.” Students will then be prompted to change their password after their first login.

TUTORING & OTHER RESOURCES

LIBRARY RESOURCES

As an HCC student you have the same access to first-rate information resources that the HCC Libraries make available to all HCC students. A special website pulls together all the tools students will need to complete research. Visit <http://library.hccs.edu>.

Library services are available throughout HCC. Through a daily library delivery service and a listing of all materials belonging to HCC libraries, books may be requested from and delivered to any campus library. HCC also has cooperative borrowing agreements with the University of Houston libraries and provides a copy of the Houston Public library catalog at each library. These arrangements provide students with access to over 4 million volumes.

Special services provided by the library system include photocopying facilities; specialized equipment for disabled students; group and personalized instruction in library use, including a self-instructional media program to orient students to the use of the HCCS libraries; a “term paper” workshop; and online bibliographic search services.

ONLINE TUTORING

HCC provides free online tutoring in writing, math, science, and other subjects. Look for Ask Online on your Eagle Online log-in page. This directs students to the HCC AskOnline Tutoring site: <http://hccs.askonline.net/>. Use your student ID or HCC e-mail address to create an account. Instructions, including a 5-minute video, are provided to make you familiar with the capabilities of this service.

ON-CAMPUS TUTORING

The HCC campuses also provide free in-person, on-site tutoring. You may go to a tutoring center for a one-to-one tutoring session. No appointment is necessary. For more information, visit the HCC Northwest Writing Center web page at <http://northwest.hccs.edu/northwest/academic-programs/writing-center>

GET INVOLVED!

HCC provides many opportunities for you to get involved in the community.

- 1) There are some HCC literary magazines. The Northwest Review is a journal of student and staff writing and artwork. Submit some of your artwork or writing for the opportunity to get published! Contact Michael.Sofranco@hccs.edu for information.
- 2) Pandora’s Box and the REEL Film Series show free films at Northwest College.
- 3) Please share other possible activities with the class. A section has been provided on the Discussion Board for you to share your activities.
