Evaluation and Requirements:

Students are expected to read all assigned chapters, complete and submit all assignments on specific due date, make posts, and attend all classes. The nature of the course is such that perfect attendance is essential for mastery of the course content. A missed class can never be duplicated.

Course Description: This course is intended to help students understand the causes and preventions of organizational fraud. The complexity of financial statement fraud has gained considerable attention over the past few years and will continue to gain momentum. This course is designed to explain to students how to review and evaluate financial statements. Students will benefit from an enhanced understanding of what the numbers mean, providing an increased ability to detect indicators of fraud. Discussions will also include the professional responsibilities of the accountant in relation to accuracy of the statements, especially in light of new legislation and revised fraud standards.

Topics address recently identified current events, skills, knowledge, and/or attitudes and behaviors pertinent to the technology or occupation and relevant to the professional development of the student.

Academic Discipline/CTE Program Learning Outcomes: The primary purpose of this course is to provide students with the knowledge of the terms and accounting procedures encompassed in Fraud Examinations. The course is designed to meet the basic needs of those students who are preparing for a career in profit as well as non-profit organizations.

Upon completion of this course, students will learn responsibilities of management and auditors, red flags of financial statement fraud, and audit procedures to detect fraud. Finally, students will also learn how to apply internal controls through actual case studies.

Research Component:

Grades on papers, the valuation and homework will be based upon demonstrated research skills and analytical reasoning. Sources will be properly referenced under MLA Rules on a separate Works Cited page. These references are to be located through research. Please read the instructions found at <http://learning.hccs.edu/faculty/william.nantz/acnt1305> for further discussion of these assignments.

HCC's on-line library provides an extensive source of research material and may be found at <http://library.hccs.edu/home>. The on-line library includes over 100 searchable databases at <http://library.hccs.edu/atoz>. To access the websites provided by HCC if not on campus, click on the database you want to access and following the instructions for logging onto the database. On the West Loop campus you may access all these resources including RIA.

To perform off-campus online research using RIA, sign up for RIA on the West Loop Campus using the following: <http://www.checkpoint-registration.riag.com/schools>. You will not be able to log onto RIA off-campus without first getting a password and Log ON ID.

The ability to demonstrate research skills through your written assignments and proper use of a Works Cited page is an important component to demonstrating your ability to properly research material related to this course. Research requires the ability to identify the appropriate research question and then identify and properly utilize key search terms to be used in performing electronic searches through large volumes of data. The information located will need to be located from multiple sources and analyzed. The analysis will culminate in a properly prepared memorandum, valuation, and homework assignments.

IMPORTANT FOR RESEARCH TOPICS: RIA Checkpoint Education License for RIA's Academic Advantage Program is available in all our open labs and in the library on the West Loop Campus. This license includes RIA tax code, FASB Accounting Standards, AICPA Resource – Professional Literature.

FINAL EXAM: I will proctor the final on 5/5 and 5/6 at 3p.m. at the West Loop Campus. We will meet outside of RM 255. This is a Saturday or Sunday. Please make sure you confirm a time to take the final. If you cannot make the final on this day because of a legitimate conflict, you will need to make other arrangements to take the final through HCC. Some dates include the following:

May 5 or 6 for exams at taken at an HCC campus w/o Prof. Nantz as proctor, or

May 4 - 7 through the use of your own proctor at a non-HCC campus.

These dates are subject to HCC requirements, and may change. It is YOUR obligation to make sure you can take final. Your failure to act in a timely manner may cause you to fail this course.

Please contact jeremy.hawkins1@hccs.edu if you plan to take the final without me as the proctor.

Skipping the final exam-Any student that fails to take the Final Exam will receive a zero for the exam and an "F" for the course.

Scoring less than 50% on the final exam-If a student's final exam score is less than 50%, then he/she will receive an "F" overall grade for the course. This will be the case regardless of the percentage that the final exam may be worth in the course overall grade-evaluation.

Remember, there is no makeup Final Exam and the ONLY TEST in this class is the Final Exam.

The Final Exam will be a multiple choice test. The questions will primarily come from the review questions provided in the class. If you do the homework and follow along in class, there should be no surprises.

It is important that you log on to this course in the HCC Canvas System by Jan. 23, 2018 or I may indicate to the registrar that you have never attended, and you may be dropped from this course. Or, if you don't log in or participate in the course, you will receive an "F" in the course.

STUDENTS LIVING OUT OF THE HCC SERVICE AREA

Students living out of the HCC service area during the semester in which they are enrolled at HCC in online classes need to make special arrangements to accommodate their needs. In the event the course requires onsite exams, it is the student's responsibility to obtain a proctor. This proctor must be someone in the testing center at a local community college or at a university. The proctor will need to provide a secure testing environment and possibly (depending on the course) a computer with Internet access. A valid picture ID must be presented to the proctor when taking the exam.

All fees associated with proctoring are the responsibility of the student. Exams will be sent via fax, email, or US mail directly to the proctor with instructions for administering the exams and Online Learning Staff will do this. This will be done at no cost to the student; however, the student WILL BE responsible for fees associated with returning the exams (including costs of overnight express, etc. to meet deadlines).

The proctor approval form MUST be completed and approved at least 2 weeks prior to the first scheduled exam. The students must complete and submit the Proctor Request Form to both hcc.online@hccs.edu and directly to Jeremy Hawkins at jeremy.hawkins1@hccs.edu

The above form is located at <http://www.hccs.edu/online/student-services/>

Then go the link “Proctoring Exams” Taking an exam when if you live outside the HCC service area”

Students Rights: Anti-Discrimination:

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 requires that institutions have policies and procedures that protect students’ rights with regard to sex/gender discrimination. Information regarding these rights are on the HCC website under Students-Anti-Discrimination. Students who are pregnant and require accommodations should contact any of the ADA Counselors for assistance.

It is important that every student understands and conforms to respectful behavior while at HCC. Sexual misconduct is not condoned and will be addressed promptly. Know your rights and how to avoid these difficult situations.

Please review the following if you have any questions:

<http://www.hccs.edu/district/students/anti-discrimination/>

You may also log into www.edurisksolutions.org to read more about respectful behavior. Sign in using your HCC student email account, then go to the button at the top right that says Login and enter your student number.

Drops and Withdrawals:

It is the responsibility of each student to officially drop or withdraw from a course. Failure to officially withdraw may result in the student receiving a grade of F in the course. A student may officially withdraw in any of the following ways:

1. Complete an official withdrawal form at any HCCS campus.
2. Withdraw on-line.
3. Send a letter requesting withdrawal to: Registrar Houston Community College System O. Box 667517 Houston, TX 77266-7517
The withdrawal will be effective as of the date of the postmark. Withdrawals will NOT be accepted by telephone.

It is the responsibility of each student to officially drop or withdraw from a course. Failure to officially withdraw may result in the student receiving a grade of F in the course. Procedures for withdrawing from a class are found in the Student Handbook.

International Students: Receiving a W in a course may affect the status of your student visa. Once a W is given for the course, it will not be changed to an F because of visa considerations.

New Policy: Students who repeat a course three or more times will face significant tuition/fee increases at HCC and other Texas public colleges and universities. Please seek tutoring or other assistance prior to considering course withdrawal.

Incompletes:

The grade of “I” (incomplete) is conditional. If you receive an “I,” you must arrange with your instructor to complete the course work by the end of the following term (excluding summer). After the deadline, the “I” becomes an “F.” See the Student Handbook for more information. My policy for issuing an incomplete is that you must have completed all semester coursework except the final, and have a minimum of a C average.

Academic Honesty:

A student who is academically dishonest is, by definition, not showing that the coursework has been learned, and that student is claiming an advantage not available to other students. The instructor is responsible for measuring each student's individual achievements and also for ensuring that all students compete on a level playing field. Thus, in our system, the instructor has teaching, grading, and enforcement roles. You are expected to be familiar with the University's Policy on Academic Honesty, found in the catalog. What that means is: If you are charged with an offense, pleading ignorance of the rules will not help you. Students are responsible for conducting themselves with honor and integrity in fulfilling course requirements. Penalties and/or disciplinary proceedings may be initiated by College System officials against a student accused of scholastic dishonesty. “Scholastic dishonesty” includes, but is not limited to, cheating on a test, plagiarism, and collusion.

Cheating on a test includes:

- Copying from another students’ test paper;
- Using materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
- Collaborating with another student during a test without authorization;

- Knowingly using, buying, selling, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of a test that has not been administered;
- Bribing another person to obtain a test that is to be administered.

Plagiarism means the appropriation of another’s work and the unacknowledged incorporation of that work in one’s own written work offered for credit.

Collusion mean the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work offered for credit. Possible punishments for academic dishonesty may include a grade of 0 or F in the particular assignment, failure in the course, and/or recommendation for probation or dismissal from the College System. (See the Student Handbook)

Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System: At Houston Community College professors believe that thoughtful student feedback is necessary to improve teaching and learning. During a designated time, you will be asked to answer a short online survey of research-based questions related to the instruction in this class. The anonymous results of the survey will be made available to your professors and division chairs for continual improvement of instruction. Look for the survey as part of the Houston Community College Student System online near the end of the term.

SCANS – Secretary’s Commission for Achieving Necessary Skills

The Secretary’s Commission on Achieving Necessary Skills (SCANS) from the U.S. Department of Labor was asked to examine the demands of the workplace and whether our students are capable of meeting those demands. Specifically, the Commission was directed to advise the Secretary on the level of skills required to enter employment. In carrying out this charge, the Commission was asked to do the following:

- Define the skills needed for employment
- Propose acceptable levels of proficiency
- Suggest effective ways to assess proficiency, and
- Develop a dissemination strategy for the nation’s schools, businesses, and homes

SCANS research verifies that what we call workplace know-how defines effective job performance today. This know-how has two elements: competencies and a foundation. This report identifies five competencies and a three-part foundation of skills and personal qualities that lie at the heart of job performance. These eight requirements are essential preparation for all students, whether they go directly to work or plan further education. Thus, the competencies and the foundation should be taught and understood in an integrated fashion that reflects the workplace contexts in which they are applied.

Workplace Competencies	Foundation Skills
Resources: allocating time, money, materials, space, staff Interpersonal Skills: working on teams, teaching others, serving customers, leading, negotiating, and working well with people from culturally diverse backgrounds Information: acquiring and evaluating data, organizing and maintaining files, interpreting and communicating, and using computers to process information Systems: understanding social, organizational, and technological systems, monitoring and correcting performances, and designing or improving systems Technology: selecting equipment and tools, applying technology to specific tasks, and maintaining and troubleshooting technologies.	Basic Skills: reading, writing, arithmetic and mathematics, speaking and listening Thinking Skills: thinking creatively, making decisions, solving problems, seeing things in the minds eye, knowing how to learn, and reasoning Personal Qualities: individual responsibility, self-esteem, sociability, self-management and integrity

SCANS workplace competencies and foundation skills have been integrated into Ethics for Accountants, and are exhibited in the SCANS schedule.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

It is a violation of HCC policy for an employee, agent, or student of the College to engage in sexual harassment as defined in the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) guidelines. Any student who has a complaint concerning this policy has the opportunity to seek resolution of such a complaint in accordance with procedures set forth in the Student Handbook. Report any complaints immediately to College Administration or call the Institutional Equity & Compliance Office 713.718.8271.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT (ADA) COMPLIANCE

Any student with a documented disability (e.g., physical, learning, psychiatric, vision, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the Disability Support Services Office (DSSO) of their respective college at the beginning of each semester. Faculty is authorized to provide only the accommodation(s) requested by the DSSO. For information and services at HCC Southwest, contact Dr. Becky Hauri, ADA Counselor, at 713.718.7910.

Repeat Course Fee

The State of Texas encourages students to complete college without having to repeat failed classes. To increase student success, students who repeat the same course more than twice, are required to pay extra tuition. The purpose of this extra tuition fee is to encourage students to pass their courses and to graduate. Effective fall 2006, HCC will charge a higher tuition rate to students registering the third or subsequent time for a course. If you are considering course withdrawal because you are not earning passing grades, confer with your instructor/counselor as early as possible about your study habits, reading and writing homework, test taking skills, attendance, course participation, and opportunities for tutoring or other assistance that might be available.

Online Behavior

As your instructor and as a student in this class, it is our shared responsibility to develop and maintain a positive learning environment for everyone. Your instructor takes this responsibility very seriously and will inform members of the class if their behavior makes it difficult for him/her to carry out this task. As a fellow learner, you are asked to respect the learning needs of your classmates and assist your instructor achieve this critical goal.

Course Credit for the CPA Exam:

Educational Credit for the CPA Exam: The Texas State Board of Public Accountancy (Board) requires that you have completed a baccalaureate or higher degree from a Board recognized institution of higher education to study at a Board recognized Texas community college to complete the educational requirements to qualify for the CPA Exam. Houston Community College is recognized as a qualifying Texas community college. This means that you have to have graduated from a recognized, four-year college BEFORE the first day of this class if you want this class to fulfill the Board's education requirements to sit for the CPA Exam.

<http://learning.hccs.edu/faculty/william.nantz>

Students with Disabilities:

Any student with a documented disability (e.g. physical, learning, psychiatric, vision, hearing, etc.) who needs to arrange reasonable accommodations must contact the Disabilities Services Office at the respective college at the beginning of each semester. Faculty is authorized to provide only the accommodations requested by the Disability Support Services Office. Houston Community College is dedicated to providing an inclusive learning environment by removing barriers and opening access for qualified students with documented disabilities in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. Ability Services is the designated office responsible for approving and coordinating reasonable accommodations and services in order to assist students with disabilities in reaching their full academic potential. In order to receive reasonable accommodations or evacuation assistance in an emergency, the student must be registered with Ability Services.

If you have a documented disability (e.g. learning, hearing, vision, physical, mental health, or a chronic health condition), that may require accommodations, please contact the appropriate Ability Services Office below. Please note that classroom accommodations cannot be provided prior to your Instructor’s receipt of an accommodation letter and accommodations are not retroactive.
