What's Exciting About This Course

The Department of English helps students find and develop their authentic voices, establish political power, and create social capital. We teach critical thinking, close reading, and analysis. We coach students on the rhetoric of messaging with consideration of purpose and audience. We support them as they craft their own narratives. We turn thoughts into words, ideas into interpretations, ambiguity into translation, and silence into voice.

My Personal Welcome

Welcome to Composition II! During this course we will utilize all of the skills and techniques you learned during Composition I. Hopefully our journey together will prepare and equip you for a successful academic and professional career as well as provide you with tools to help you navigate the dynamic environment we call everyday life.

Preferred Method of Contact

Please contact me with questions or concerns via email at winifred.adair@hccs.edu or through the Canvas Inbox. I will respond to emails within 24 hours Monday through Friday; however, any messages sent after 5 p.m. on Friday or during the weekend will be answered on Monday morning.

Office Hours

Tuesday, Thursday, 12:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.
WebEx, or Missouri City Campus, Rm 113

Although I have posted office hours, feel free to email me during the week if you have questions. Refer to the section titled "Preferred Method of Contact."

Course Overview

Course Description

English 1302 is an intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Emphasis is on effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry, including primary and secondary research methods; critical reading of verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions. Core curriculum course.

Requisites

English 1301 or satisfactory score on the CLEP Exam.

English Department

<https://www.hccs.edu/programs/areas-of-study/liberal-arts--humanities/english/> (<https://www.hccs.edu/programs/areas-of-study/liberal-arts--humanities/english/>)

Core Curriculum Objectives (CCOs)

English courses satisfy three (3) hours of the communication requirement in the HCCS core curriculum. The HCCS English Discipline Committee has specified that courses address the following core objectives:

- Critical Thinking: Students will demonstrate creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
- Communication: Students will demonstrate effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral, and visual communication.
- Personal Responsibility: Students will demonstrate the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.
- Teamwork: Students will demonstrate the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
 - Composition I, Composition II, Creative Writing, Introduction to Technical Writing, and Technical & Business Writing only
- Social Responsibility: Students will demonstrate intercultural competency, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
 - Literature courses only

Student Learning Outcomes and Objectives

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs)

Can be found at:

<https://www.hccs.edu/programs/areas-of-study/liberal-arts--humanities/english/> (<https://www.hccs.edu/programs/areas-of-study/liberal-arts--humanities/english/>)

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs)

Upon successful completion of ENGL 1302, the student will be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative research processes.
- Develop ideas and synthesize primary and secondary sources within focused academic arguments, including one or more research-based essays.
- Analyze, interpret, and evaluate a variety of texts for the ethical and logical uses of evidence.
- Write in a style that clearly communicates meaning, builds credibility, and inspires belief or action.
- Apply the conventions of style manuals for specific academic disciplines (e.g., APA, CMS, MLA, etc.)

Word Count Requirement

Students will write a minimum of 5,000 words over the course of the semester.

Departmental Practices and Procedures

Department-Specific Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be calculated
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through class activities, discussions, and lectures
- Provide a description of any assignments
- Inform students of policies
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class and participate in class discussions and activities
- Read and comprehend the texts
- Complete the required assignments
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all documents, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies, including plagiarism, in the HCCS Student Handbook

Program-Specific Student Success Information

As with any three-hour course, expect to spend at least six hours per week outside of class reading and studying the material. I will provide assignments to help you use those six hours per week wisely. Additional time will be required for written assignments. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of reading the textbook, attending class, completing assignments in Eagle Online, and participating in class discussions. There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading) and studying the material using the course objectives as your guide.

Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in online and in-person environments. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services \(https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/tutoring/\) website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <https://library.hccs.edu/home> (<https://library.hccs.edu/home>)

Supplemental Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peer-assisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/> (<https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/>)

✓ Course Requirements

You will write a minimum of 5,000 words over the course of the semester.

Your assignments may include, but are not limited to, group work, homework assignments, essays, graded and ungraded quizzes, and a research project.

Assignments must meet requirements as outlined in this document, verbally conveyed in class, and explained on assignment prompts.

Essays must be typed (Times New Roman or Arial font, 12pt—black ink only), and will be formatted in accordance with MLA manuscript guidelines that I provide.

Essays must be transmitted in a manner that maintains the proper format (doc, docx, rtf, or pdf) and uploaded to Canvas.

You may not submit a paper for a grade in this class that has been submitted for a grade in another class unless I give prior permission. Make-up work and late assignments are submitted at my discretion. No extra credit, no curve.

Assignments that do not meet requirements run the risk of getting an automatic zero.

Assignments, Exams, and Activities

Type	Weight	Topic	Notes
------	--------	-------	-------

Type	Weight	Topic	Notes
Research Project	45%	Student Select	Argumentative research paper requiring the use of sources as evidence to support argument to include counterarguments
Critical Analysis	20%	Student Choice	Thorough analysis of one source used for research project
Journals	15%	TBA	Various readings
Imported Assignments	10%	HCC Research Tutorial	HCC Library tutorial designed to facilitate the research process
Quizzes and Assignments	10%	Assignments	Various quizzes and tutorials designed to reinforce the research process

Grading Formula

Grade	Range	Notes
A	90 to 100
B	80 to 89
C	70 to 79
D	60 to 69
F	59 and below

* Instructor's Practices and Procedures

Online

Although I strive to be early for each class session, keep in mind that I am also at the mercy of computers and internet access. Wait at least 10 minutes. If I am unable to connect, I will get in touch with you at the first opportunity. Any potential loss of contact will not negatively impact your work or grade.

In-Person

If I am not in class at class start time, wait 15 minutes for instructions from staff members. If a staff member fails to show, place my name and the class identification number on a sheet of paper and have everyone sign in. Give the attendance sheet to the administrative staff in the front office. Utilize the time to work on your current essay or research project.

Syllabus Change

I reserve the right to modify the syllabus at any time. Students will be apprised of any change.

Academic Integrity

Plagiarism is an unacceptable misuse of the published or unpublished intellectual property of another person by attempting to pass the information off as your own. HCC defines collusion as the "unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing written work submitted for fulfillment of course requirements." Every academic institution requires that you conduct yourself with integrity while completing your coursework. Your grade depends upon your ability to synthesize work without resorting to intellectual theft or unapproved collaboration. Essays that contain plagiarized information or evidence of collusion will receive an "F" for the assignment. Make sure that you familiarize yourself with HCC's policy on Academic Integrity and Scholastic Dishonesty identified below.

Here's the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance):

<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>
(<https://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/student-procedures/>)

Incomplete Policy

If a student experiences unforeseen circumstances (accidents, births, illness, death) that prevent completion of the class, a grade of Incomplete may be assigned. In order to receive a grade of Incomplete ("I"), the student needs to discuss the situation with the instructor and provide documentation of the situation. Also, the student must have completed all of the coursework with the exception of the final assignment. Students given an Incomplete must complete all coursework within six months of the end of the term. Failure to complete the work will result in an "F."

HCC Student Handbook \(https://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/student-handbook/\)

Missed Assignments/Make-Up Policy

Late assignments are submitted at my discretion. If you have an assignment that you know will be late, discuss the situation with me before the assignment is due. For every day that the assignment is late, 10 points will be deducted.

Attendance Procedures

This is a combined WS (Online on a Schedule) and P (In-person) course. Attendance will be taken at each class meeting.

Student Conduct

Although this course is partially online, you are expected to log in on a regular basis and actively participate in the course. Active participation means completing assignments in a timely manner, and engaging in class discussions.

Instructor's Course-Specific Information

Assignments must meet requirements as outlined in this document, verbally conveyed in class, and explained on assignment sheets. Essays must be typed (Times New Roman or Arial font, 12pt—black ink only), and will be formatted in accordance with MLA manuscript guidelines that I provide. Essays must be transmitted in a manner that maintains the proper format (doc, docx, rtf, or pdf) and uploaded to Canvas. Assignments that do not meet requirements run the risk of getting an automatic zero.

You may not submit a paper for a grade in this class that has been submitted for a grade in another class unless I give prior permission.

No extra credit, no curve.

Devices

HCC notes that the use of electronic devices in the classroom is up to the teacher's discretion and states, "Any use of such devices for purposes other than student learning is strictly prohibited. If an instructor perceives such use as disruptive and/or inappropriate, the instructor has the right to ask the student to terminate such use. If the behavior continues, the student may be subject to disciplinary action to include removal from the classroom or referral to the dean of student services for further disciplinary action."

Cell phones are considered an electronic device and can only be used when the teacher gives permission to do so. Cell phone use in class may result in the instructor deducting points from the students grade, marking the student absent, or asking the student to leave the class session.

If it is imperative that you make or take an emergency call during class, advise the instructor prior to class. When necessary, discretely excuse yourself from the classroom.

Faculty-Specific Information Regarding Canvas

This course section will use Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu> (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>)) to supplement in-class assignments, exams, and activities.

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. For best performance, Canvas should be used on the current or first previous major release of Chrome, Firefox, Edge, or Safari. Because it's built using web standards, Canvas runs on Windows, Mac, Linux, iOS, Android, or any other device with a modern web browser.

Canvas only requires an operating system that can run the latest compatible web browsers. Your computer operating system should be kept up to date with the latest recommended security updates and upgrades.

Faculty Statement about Student Success

Do not wait until the due date to complete your assignments. Early completion allows you the opportunity to revisit your work and revise if necessary.

Put your work down if only for an hour or two and then re-read your work.

Read your work aloud. The areas that cause you to stumble or stop and think about what it says are the areas that you need to revise.

Thoroughly read everything before starting the work.

When in doubt, ask, ask, and ask again!

Instructional Modalities

In-Person (P)

Safe, face-to-face course with scheduled dates and times

Online on a Schedule (WS)

Fully online course with virtual meetings at scheduled dates and times

Social Justice Statement

This classroom is a place where everyone will be treated with respect regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, national origin, religious affiliation, sexual orientation, political beliefs, age, or ability. Diversity of thought is appreciated and encouraged provided you can agree to disagree. In other words, classroom discussion should be relevant to the topic as well as civilized and respectful to everyone. Discriminatory language and behavior is not acceptable in the classroom environment, online or in person, just as it is not acceptable in the workplace. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated and may result in administrative withdrawal without a refund.

Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students during office hours, and before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class in person and/or online
- Participate actively by reviewing course material, interacting with classmates, and responding promptly in your communication with me
- Read and comprehend the textbook
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook (<https://www.hccs.edu/studenthandbook>)

EGLS3

The EGLS³ (Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System (<https://www.hccs.edu/egls3>)) will be available for most courses near the end of the term until finals start. This brief survey will give invaluable information to your faculty about their teaching. Results are anonymous and will be available to faculty and division chairs after the end of the term. EGLS³ surveys are only available for the Fall and Spring semesters. -EGLS3 surveys are not offered during the Summer semester due to logistical constraints.
