What's Exciting About This Course

Intermediate Chinese further develops the listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills and the cultural awareness acquired in Beginning Chinese. The skills you learn from this course will enable you to read and write with a broader range of vocabulary and engage in conversations with more words and phrases in a culturally appropriate manner.

My Personal Welcome

Hello everyone, and welcome to Beginning Chinese I. This course explores the foundational Chinese learning to assist you in Chinese real-world situations and ensuring that you have an adequate core understanding of how to write, read, listen, and speak basic Chinese. In this course, students must have access to Microsoft Word and Microsoft PowerPoint software.

The Key concepts of this course will include listening, speaking, writing, and reading of Chinese.

Our course will discuss and provide you with the opportunity to reflect on and discuss various Chinese language learning and cultural topics to experience real Chinese society, traditions, and culture.

Prerequisites and/or Co-Requisites

The minimum requirements for enrollment in CHIN 1411 include placement in college-level reading (or take INRW 0420 or ESOL 0370 as a co-requisite). If you have enrolled in this course having satisfied these prerequisites, you have a higher chance of success than students who have not done so. Please carefully read and consider the repeater policy in the HCCS Student Handbook.

Canvas Learning Management System

This section of CHIN 1411 will use Canvas (<https://eagleonline.hccs.edu>) to supplement in class assignments, exams, oral presentations and discussions, and activities. You will need to visit the course in Canvas regularly as many assignments will be submitted there rather than in class.

HCCS Open Lab locations may be used to access the Internet and Canvas. USE FIREFOX OR CHROME AS THE INTERNET BROWSER.

Other Instructional Resources

Tutoring

HCC provides free, confidential, and convenient academic support, including writing critiques, to HCC students in an online environment and on campus. Tutoring is provided by HCC personnel in order to ensure that it is contextual and appropriate. Visit the HCC Tutoring Services website for services provided.

Libraries

The HCC Library System consists of 9 libraries and 6 Electronic Resource Centers (ERCs) that are inviting places to study and collaborate on projects. Librarians are available both at the libraries and online to show you how to locate and use the resources you need. The libraries maintain a large selection of electronic resources as well as collections of books, magazines, newspapers, and audiovisual materials. The portal to all libraries' resources and services is the HCCS library web page at <http://library.hccs.edu>.

Supplementary Instruction

Supplemental Instruction is an academic enrichment and support program that uses peerassisted study sessions to improve student retention and success in historically difficult courses. Peer Support is provided by students who have already succeeded in completion of the specified course, and who earned a grade of A or B. Find details at <http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/supplemental-instruction/>.

Course Overview

CHIN 1411, Basic Chinese language skills in listening speaking, reading and writing within a cultural framework. Students will acquire the vocabulary and grammatical structures necessary to communicate and comprehend at the beginner level.

Core Curriculum Objectives (CCOs)

CHIN 1411 satisfies the component area option in the HCCS core curriculum. The course addresses the following core objectives:

- Critical Thinking: Students will demonstrate the ability to engage in inquiry and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information, and creative thinking by completing an essay assignment on a topic introduced in the course readings.
- Communication Skills: Students will demonstrate effective expression of ideas through completion of two oral presentations and class discussion on cultural topics.

Program Student Learning Outcomes (PSLOs)

Can be found at: <https://www.hccs.edu/programs/areas-of-study/liberal-arts-humanities-education/world-languages/>

Course Student Learning Outcomes (CSLOs)

Upon completion of CHIN 1411, the student will be able to:

Student Success

Expect to spend at least twice as many hours per week outside of class as you do in class studying the course content. Additional time will be required for written assignments so be sure to pay attention to the due dates of the assignments to allow yourself enough time to complete them. Successful completion of this course requires a combination of the following:

□ Reading the textbook

- Attending class in person and/or online
- Completing assignments
- Participating in class activities

There is no short cut for success in this course; it requires reading (and probably re-reading), writing, and studying the material using the course objectives as a guide.

Instructor and Student Responsibilities

As your Instructor, it is my responsibility to:

- Provide the grading scale and detailed grading formula explaining how student grades are to be derived
- Facilitate an effective learning environment through learner-centered instructional techniques
- Provide a description of any special projects or assignments
- Inform students of policies such as attendance, withdrawal, tardiness, and making up assignments
- Provide the course outline and class calendar that will include a description of any special projects or assignments
- Arrange to meet with individual students before and after class as required

As a student, it is your responsibility to:

- Attend class in person and/or online
- Participate actively by interacting with classmates in class discussions, online and inperson
- Read and comprehend the assigned material
- Complete the required assignments and exams
- Ask for help when there is a question or problem
- Keep copies of all paperwork, including this syllabus, handouts, and all assignments
- Be aware of and comply with academic honesty policies in the HCCS Student Handbook

Assignments, Exams, and Activities

Chapter Tests

You will take a test at the conclusion of each class and each chapter. The tests will include the following sections: listening, grammar, reading, writing and speaking. Tests will be 15% of your total grade.

In-class Activities and participation

May participation is very important because I have in-class activities throughout the lesson. To me, if you do not participation in class, you won't learn. In-class activities will include writing, partner practice, oral drills, vocabulary practice and conversation practice on topics related to the assigned chapters in the textbook. Learning a second language requires lots of practice, and you will have an opportunity to practice what you have learned in class. You will spend an hour each week in a computer lab working individually on the online exercises that I have assigned for each chapter Your participation in all these activities will be 25% of your total grade.

Homework assignment

There will be homework for vocabulary writing, grammar, recording, and listening. Some of these will be done in the lab and other will be homework assignment. You can do it either in a computer lab on campus or at home. These assignments will be 15% of your total grade.

CHIN 1411 Departmental Final Exam

All students enrolled in CHIN 1411 will be required to take a comprehensive departmental final exam. The exam will be very similar in format to the chapter tests you have taken at the end of each chapter. The final exam will be given the last week of the semester and it will be 30% of your final grade.

Grading Formula

Chapter Tests	15%
Mid-Term Exam	15%
In-class Activities & participation	25%
Homework Assignments	15%
Departmental Final Exam	30%
	100%

Grade	Total Percentage
A	90-100
B	80-89

C	70-79
D	60-69
F	<60

Incomplete Policy:

In order to receive a grade of Incomplete ("I"), a student must have completed at least 85% of the work in the course. In all cases, the instructor reserves the right to decline a student's request to receive a grade of Incomplete.

HCC Grading Scale can be found on this site under Academic Information:

<http://www.hccs.edu/resources-for/current-students/student-handbook/>

Course Calendar

NOTE: True beginners of Chinese need to plan on an average of 8 hours per week or more of study time to keep up with the pace of the course and to allow time to practice listening and speaking. We usually cover one chapter every two weeks. Classes meet 2x a week for 2.5 hours. Note: For dual-credit classes, there are 14 weeks of content; final exam during week 15. The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the syllabus.

Last day of class: Dec. 5
Final Exam: Thursday, Dec. 12

Instructor's Practices and Procedures

Missed Assignments

I may allow makeups for major assignments (compositions, exams) but with a late-work penalty. This will be on a case-by-case basis and will require advance notice with a justifiable reason.

Academic Integrity

I expect you to do your own work. You are not helping yourself by using something like "Google Translate" I will probably be able to tell if you have done that. There are consequences for cheating, plagiarism, collusion, etc. and can include a referral to the Dean of Student Services and possible expulsion from HCC. See the link below for details.

Scholastic Dishonesty will result in a referral to the Dean of Student Services. See the link below for details.

Here's the link to the HCC information about academic integrity (Scholastic Dishonesty and Violation of Academic Scholastic Dishonesty and Grievance):

<http://www.hccs.edu/about-hcc/procedures/student-rights-policies--procedures/studentprocedures/>

Attendance Procedures

Attendance is very important and key to your success in the course. You will receive a grade for your participation in the class, and if you are not present, you will not be able to participate. It is also important so that you can keep up with the pace of the class and not miss assignments. Please communicate with me as soon as you know that you will need to miss a class.

Student Conduct

I expect you to conduct yourselves as responsible adults while you are in this class. That means respect for yourself, your classmates and your instructor. Your participation grade will suffer if you fail to behave responsibly.

Electronic Devices

There will be times during the course where you will be allowed to use your laptop or telephone to do class activities. However, if I find you wearing earplugs or checking your cell phone or laptop during a time when we are not using electronic devices, you will receive a "0" for participation for that day. Your preparation/participation will count 10% of your final grade, and you risk having your overall grade for the course go down.

EGLS³

The EGLS³ (Evaluation for Greater Learning Student Survey System) will be available for most courses near the end of the term until finals start. This brief survey will give invaluable information to your faculty about their teaching. Results are anonymous and will be available to faculty and division chairs after the end of the term. EGLS³ surveys are only available for the Fall and Spring semesters. -EGLS3 surveys are not offered during the Summer semester due to logistical constraints.

HCC Email Policy

When communicating via email, HCC requires students to communicate only through the HCC email system to protect your privacy. If you have not activated your HCC student email account, you can go to HCC Eagle ID and activate it now. You may also use Canvas Inbox to communicate.

Housing and Food Assistance for Students

Any student who faces challenges securing their foods or housing and believes this may affect their performance in the course is urged to contact the Dean of Students at their college for support. Furthermore, please notify the professor if you are comfortable in doing so.

This will enable HCC to provide any resources that HCC may possess.

disAbility Services

HCC strives to make all learning experiences as accessible as possible. If you anticipate or experience academic barriers based on your disability (including long and short term conditions, mental health, chronic or temporary medical conditions), please meet with a campus Abilities Counselor as soon as possible in order to establish reasonable accommodations. Reasonable accommodations are established through an interactive process between you, your instructor(s) and Ability Services. It is the policy and practice of HCC to create inclusive and accessible learning environments consistent with federal and state law. For more information, please go to

<http://www.hccs.edu/supportservices/disability-services/>

Title IX

Houston Community College is committed to cultivating an environment free from inappropriate conduct of a sexual or gender-based nature including sex discrimination, sexual assault, sexual harassment, and sexual violence. Sex discrimination includes all forms of sexual and gender-based misconduct and violates an individual's fundamental rights and personal dignity. Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex-including pregnancy and parental status in educational programs and activities. If you require an accommodation due to pregnancy please contact an Abilities Services Counselor. The Director of EEO/Compliance is designated as the Title IX Coordinator and Section 504 Coordinator.
